

CHEVROLET
MASTER DELUXE
SALOON
With built-in trunk.
26 H.P.—19 miles per gallon
TURRET TOP—KNEE ACTION
DELIVERED PRICES
LONDON £325 VANCOUVER £252
HONGKONG
£236

FAR EAST MOTORS
26 Nathan Road, Kowloon.
Telephone 59101.

Manager
"Hongkong Telegraph"
100 Newgate Street, Hongkong.
High Water: 20.37.
Low Water: 14.26.

FOUNDED 1881
No. 14712

五拜禮 號一十月十英港香

The

FIRST EDITION

Library, Supreme Court

Hongkong Telegraph.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1935.

日四十月九

SINGLE COPY 10 CENTS
$36.00 PER ANNUM

D
Don't experiment—continue to ride on
DUNLOP
the Performance
tyre

GUERILLAS HARASS ITALIAN TROOPS

HARD FIGHTING IN OGADEN

ITALIANS PREPARE FRESH ADVANCE

EXPECTED TO ATTACK TOWARDS MAKALE

(SPECIAL TO "TELEGRAPH")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, Received, Oct. 11, 8 a.m.)

[WITH THE ETHIOPIAN ARMY]

AT THE FRONT, Oct. 10.

Reports reaching the headquarters from the Northern Ethiopian Army advance posts state that guerrilla attacks by the black troops are inflicting heavy casualties upon the Italian outposts. During the past two nights the Italians have been harassed constantly.

Meanwhile, in Ogaden the fighting continues unabated. There have been hand-to-hand skirmishes.

A Red Cross unit has opened a hospital at Jijiga and is caring for the victims of gas attacks and shell-shock. Meanwhile, brigades of Mohammedans, armed with new Mauser rifles, have marched to the front to join the Christian Ethiopians. In marked contrast to the half-naked Christians, the Moslems are clad in flowing white garments and lace skull caps.

The guerrillas are attempting to prevent the Italians from possessing the water holes, in accordance with headquarters' orders. The most effective way to defend the plateau is to drive the Italians mad with thirst, they claim.

TERROR IN HARRAR

Harrar was swept by a thunder-storm to-night. The natives believing it was an air raid were in a panic. Two died of fright. The troops scattered into the open country. The officers rounded up their scattered troops only with

RELATIONS BROKEN OFF

Rome, Oct. 10. It is announced that diplomatic relations with Ethiopia have been broken off.

The Ethiopian Charge d'Affaires has been given his passports and Count Vinci, at Addis Ababa, has been ordered to leave at once. He is reported to have requested a last interview with Emperor Haile Selassie before he departs. —United Press.

PREPARING ATTACK

Rome, Oct. 10. The Italians on the Northern Front are preparing for a mass drive against the strategically important Makale.

They are led by General Ruggieri Santini, who is at present on the outskirts of Debra-sion. Makale is about 50 miles almost due south of Adowa.

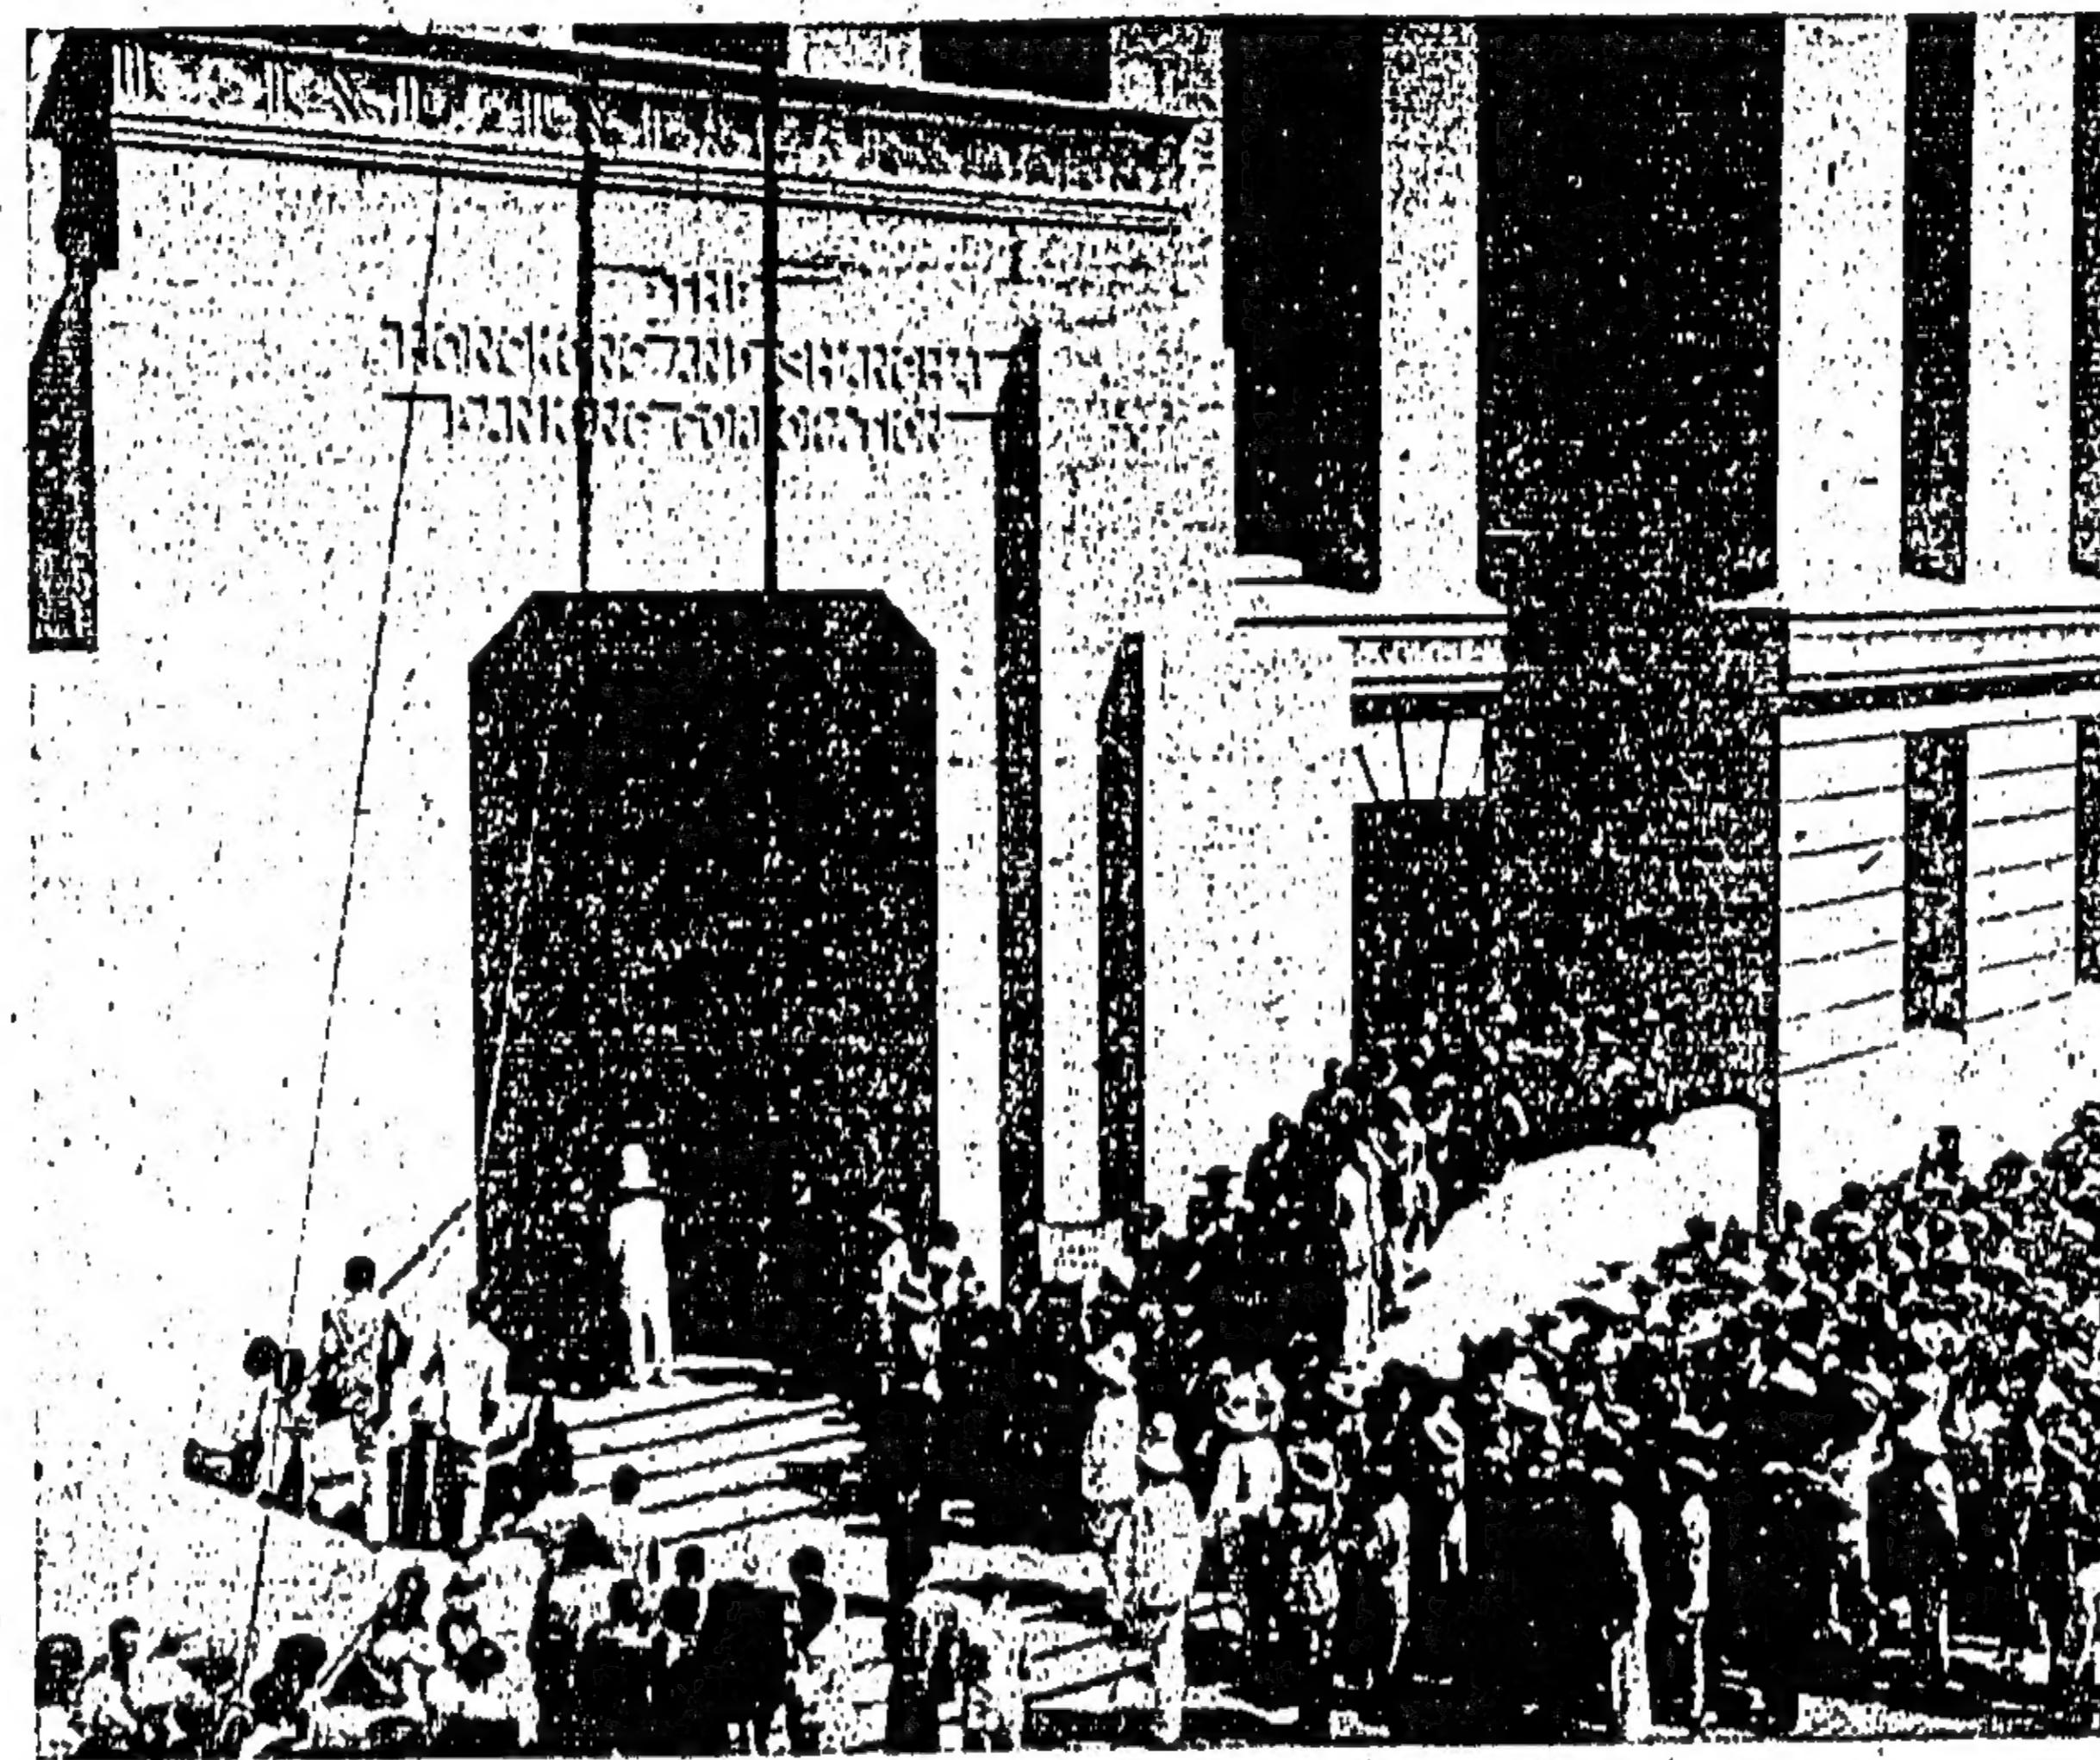

Italian officers with the fighting army believe the advance on Makale will meet with little resistance. Planes have reported no heavy concentration of Ethiopians beyond Adowa.

Two strong Ethiopian columns which were earlier reported to be approaching the Italian lines now appear to have withdrawn. —United Press.

GOING TO FRONT

London, Oct. 10. The Daily Mail correspondent at Addis Ababa learns that Empress Menen may many Emperor Selassie to Harrar front.

Meanwhile the unmarried (Continued on Page 7.)

Scene at the opening of the new Head Office of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank yesterday. H.E. the Officer Administering the Government (Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith) is seen unlocking the main doors. (Photo: A. Fong.)

ITALIANS' CASUALTY ESTIMATE

2,500 ETHIOPIANS DIE IN BATTLE

ATTACKERS' LOSSES

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, Received, October 11, 8 a.m.)

Adowa, Oct. 10.

The Italian headquarters on the Northern Front state that the Ethiopian losses since the start of the campaign in that area number approximately 2,500 dead and 600 prisoners.

The only Italian casualties were two officers killed and 100 officers and men wounded.

The Italians are continuing frequent reconnaissance flights designed to locate the great concentrations of troops which the Ethiopians have reported in progress. The planes drop their reports at headquarters and then proceed to the new aerodrome which has just been laid out at Adugula, 50 miles from Adowa.

General Debbo, the Italian High Command, told Reuters' correspondent that he was well satisfied with the operations up to now. —Reuters Special.

HEAVY LOSSES

Another source has stated that the Ethiopian losses in guerrilla fighting have been heavy, and have included a number of chieftains.

The Ethiopians have offered spasmodic counterattacks with detachments of 400 or 500, keeping the Italians busy, but they have proved no serious menace to the advance.

BISHOP ARRESTED

Berlin, Oct. 10. The Catholic Bishop of Melisen has been arrested on charges of exporting German money. —United Press.

STOCK MARKET DANGERS

WARNING ISSUED BY CHARLES GAY

INFLATION IN WALL STREET

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, Received, October 11, 8 a.m.)

New York, Oct. 10.

Addressing a conference of the American Management Association, Mr. Charles Gay, President of the New York Stock Exchange, warned against the danger of "runaway stock market inflation" and another crash such as that of 1929, as a result of the existing abnormal money market, with a gigantic volume in excess of reserves.

Mr. Gay said only a sound Federal Reserve policy and a sound Treasury policy could control the situation. He added that the Stock Exchange was deeply concerned with the question of such inflation, and at the same time emphasised he was not predicting that stock prices would become inflated, but one must recognise that this might occur.

Commenting on Mr. Gay's remarks, Mr. Landis, Chairman of the S.E.C., at to-day's Press conference, declared that the S.E.C. was fully cognisant of the boom potentialities inherent in the present money credit situation, but expressed doubt over the S.E.C.'s ability to check an inflationary boom.

Mr. Landis declared that many influences making for a boom had not any relationship with the S.E.C. but deal mainly with monetary policies. —Reuters Special.

DANGEROUS POSITION

New York, Oct. 10. The President of the New York Stock Exchange, Mr. Charles Gay, in a speech to the American Management Association to-day, said that low money rates combined with the greatest surplus of reserves in the history of the United States form the basis of a greater stock market inflation than that in 1929.

He said, "Given sufficient confidence or even recklessness born of boredom over the idleness of money, the situation could develop and threaten the gravest conse-

Hongkong Volunteers For Front?

AMBULANCE BRIGADE WANTS SUPPORT

WILLING TO RAISE UNIT

The Hongkong St. John Ambulance Brigade is willing to raise a Red Cross detachment for service in Ethiopia, provided financial guarantees are forthcoming, stated Mr. A. Morris, Director of Ambulance of the Hongkong and China District, in an interview with the Telegraph this morning. Mr. Morris added that if the idea materialises, he is willing to go with the detachment.

The Telegraph approached Mr. Morris on the subject in view of

ALOISI'S LAST ADDRESS?

To Empty Assembly Hall

Geneva, Oct. 10.

After the League Assembly had dispersed for lunch, Baron Aloisi reascended the rostrum and repeated the same speech he delivered to the Assembly, this time to an almost empty hall, where only sound film photographers were present. He spoke in Italian.

This will probably be his farewell appearance. Due to condemnation of Italy by the Assembly, Baron Aloisi will probably decline to attend any future session. —Reuters Special.

The object of these celebrations on a large scale is to attract tourists and stimulate business, and thus restore prosperity. —Reuter.

CANTON'S SHOW OF STRENGTH

CHAN CHAI-TONG REVIEWS FORCES

ELABORATE CEREMONY

Canton, Oct. 11. With over fifty aeroplanes drawn in formation overhead, the "strong man of Canton," yesterday reviewed his land, sea and air forces in one of the most impressive parades ever held here.

Practically all Canton's crack units, equipped with the most up-to-date weapons, including a large number of tanks and armoured cars, participated.

Meanwhile, the national holiday was being observed by civilians with an unprecedentedly elaborate programme, including a most magnificent and picturesque dragon procession, and other exhibitions, costing $250,000.

The whole city will be on foot for three days, the Government having declared a general holiday for all shops and Government offices participating in the celebrations.

The population has been increased by at least 10,000 in the last few days, owing to the influx from Hongkong and Macao and every district of the province. The streets are thronged and traffic is blocked continually in many sections.

The object of these celebrations on a large scale is to attract tourists and stimulate business, and thus restore prosperity. —Reuter.

FRENCH COLONY IS QUIET

TROOPS GUARDING DIREDAWA

Paris, Oct. 10.

The Minister of Colonies, in a report on the situation in French Somaliland, says everything is quiet. A Franco-Ethiopian detachment has been sent to Dire-dawa, where the foreign colony is mostly French, and where the Djibouti-Addis Ababa railway repair shop is also situated.

It is denied that the Emperor of Ethiopia has exercised his right to requisition the railway for the use of troops in time of war. —Reuter.

MAY LIFT ARMS EMBARGO

LEAGUE COMMITTEE SETS TO WORK

ITALY FEELS BRITAIN PRESSING SANCTIONS

It is understood that the first work of the League's Co-ordinating Committee, dealing with the application of penalties against Italy and the Italo-Ethiopian crisis generally, will be to consider lifting the arms embargo at present in force against Ethiopia.

There is virtual unanimity in the League with respect to sanctions, and only Austria and Hungary failed to register an affirmative vote for the Co-ordinating Committee's institution.

Italy feels that the League is rushing sanctions against her, and that Great Britain is responsible for the speed at which the Geneva machinery has been working. The Italian resentment against Britain is consequently increasing.

ROYALIST COUP IN GREECE

KING WAITING FOR PLEBISCITE

MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED

Athens, Oct. 10.

Martial law has been proclaimed following the Monarchist coup. The country remains quiet, though troops are occupying public buildings as a precaution.

The Assembly will meet this afternoon to proclaim the end of the Republican regime and to vote to General Kondylis and his Cabinet executive powers until the plebiscite is held on November 3 to determine the question of the return of ex-King George to the Throne.

It is understood that M. Theotokis will be Vice-President and Minister of Foreign Affairs, and that Army officers will assume the other portfolios.

The National Assembly has unanimously agreed to the following steps:

- (1) Abolition of the Republic and form of government;
- (2) Restoration of the Monarchy in 1911;
- (3) The plebiscite to be held on November 3;
- (4) General Kondylis to act as sole Regent in the meantime.

—Reuter.

London, Oct. 10. It is learned from an unimpeachable source that ex-King George does not intend to return to the Throne until a national plebiscite votes in favour of his restoration. —United Press.

—London, Oct. 10.

The jury has been completed in the trial of Mandeville Zengo, accused of the emasculation murder of Dr. Walter Bauer, and the prosecutor, Mr. Charles Dougherty, in his opening statement, demanded the death penalty. —United Press.

—Seattle, Oct. 10.

Longshoremen and seamen here have agreed not to handle any commodities detained for the war zone or to sail any ships bound there. Unions said the Italian freighter Collini, which arrives Sunday, will probably be picketed. —United Press.

—Chicago, Oct. 10.

Venezuela and Uruguay had earlier supported the League's proposals, but they indicated at this stage their intention of venting certain difficulties in

(Continued on Page 7.)

Lamp Shades

Lamps, Lamp Shades,
Slippers, Curios, Novelties
—now being offered at surprisingly low prices. We carry the largest local stocks in every type and style of silk and parchment shades.
An opportunity to beautify your home.
ADDRESS—13, Ice House Street.

B.B.C.*"AS SMART*AS SMART CAN BE"

Waves, cold, softness, beauty treatment, by specialists with the help of modern equipment.
Under the personal guidance of—

HELEN from SAN FRANCISCO.

HELEN'S BEAUTY SALON

Asia Life Building
Room 306 Opp. Tyrol's Tel. 34055
Make an early appointment.

THE HONGKONGPENINSULA HOTEL;
HONGKONG HOTEL; REPULSE BAY HOTEL;
PEAK HOTEL;&
SHANGHAIASTOR HOUSE; PALACE HOTEL;
HOTELS
LIMITED.

In association with the Grand Hotel des Wagons Lits, Peking

THE ISLAND'S MOST EFFICIENT SERVICE!

RUNNYMEDE HOTEL

On Sea Front.

CRAIG HOTEL,
Penang Hill (near Rail station)
(1,400 feet above sea-level).
Private Cars for Excursions Anywhere.

Caterers etc. to Imperial Airways.
Meals are interchangeable, no extra cost wherever you have your breakfast, luncheon,
Roumes of both hotels have private bathrooms and modern sanitation. At the Runnymede each room has its own public telephone.
The Runnymede Restaurant has undeniably pride of place among hotels of the East with its cuisine and fully claims by its associations to offer the traveler such as is not to be found elsewhere.

NOTICE*COMPETITORS IN THE RECENT AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHIC COMPETITION

PETITION ARE REQUESTED TO CALL FOR THEIR ENTRIES AT THE OFFICE OF "THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH".

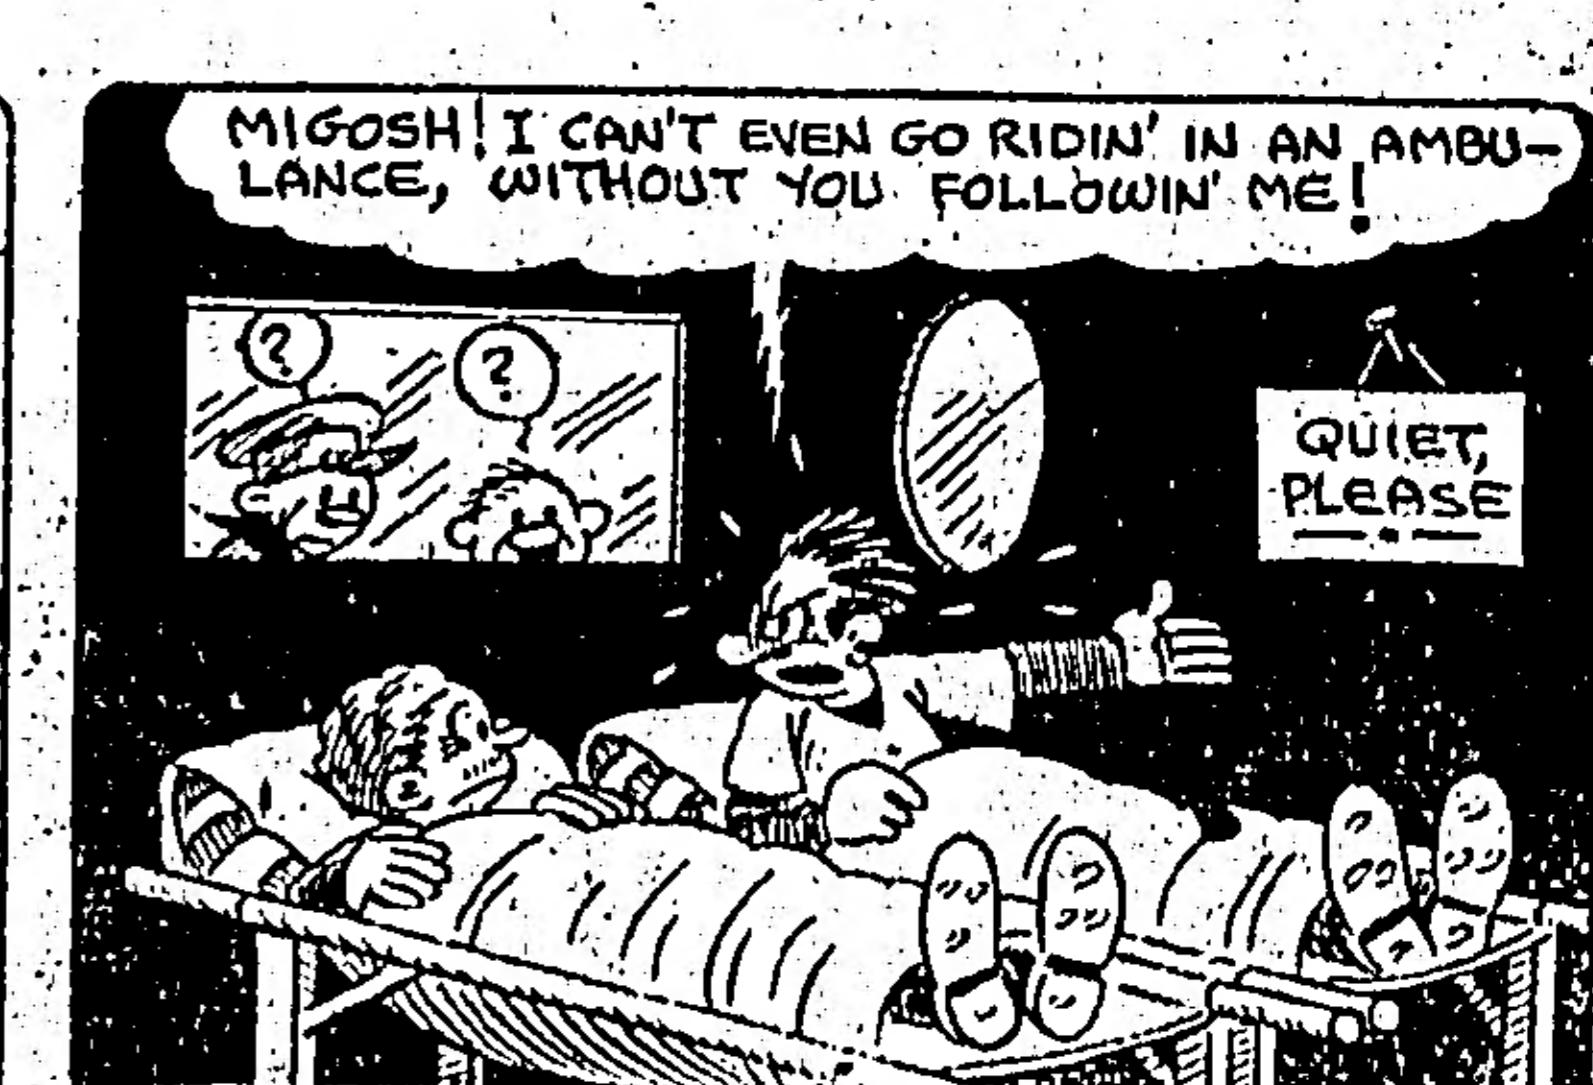

MORNING POST BUILDING.

Teething troubles

Because SCOTT'S Emulsion contains 44% of pure cod liver oil and lime salts for bone formation, it prevents teething troubles, rickets and soft bones. Ask for genuine SCOTT'S EMULSION.

SALESMAN SAM*Just a Pest

By Small

SPY CHIEF MEETS MAN HE HUNTED AFTER 18 YEARS*The "Sea Devil" Swaps War Yarns With Admiral Sir Reginald Hall

EIGHTEEN years ago a tall schooner was sailing the Southern Atlantic, looming up beside a merchant ship at dusk, threatening her with guns, ordering the crew into boats, sinking the ship. The crew would then be taken aboard the schooner and landed at a neutral port.

King Ghazi of Iraq attending a military troop review which recently took place at Baghdad on the occasion of the second anniversary of his accession to the throne of Iraq.

SEVEN MILES HIGH*92 DEGREES BELOW FREEZING POINT

MOSCOW, OCT.

PILOT VICTOR YESEV-

YEV, one of the most celebrated of Russian airmen, flew an airplane, a single-seater, into the stratosphere and reached a height of 39,384 feet, which is just over seven statute miles.

Fingers Frozen

And how cold the stratosphere is may be judged from the fact that he reports noting on his instruments that the temperature was 92 degrees below freezing point.

In spite of his special gloves and clothing the fingers of his right hand were frozen.

Before this flight Yevseyev had five times flown his airplane to a height of 31,000 feet.

The world altitude record for an airplane was once held by Britain. Now it is held by Italy. In April 1934 Renato Donati reached a height of 47,340 feet—in a British-engined airplane.

Balloon Heights

Much greater heights have been reached by balloons, which have an advantage over airplanes for stratosphere exploration because they have no engines to be affected by the rarified air.

The Soviet held the world record for balloon ascents into the stratosphere. In April last a Soviet balloon reached a height of twenty-five miles—and then burst.

That balloon was not manned, but carried an automatic radio apparatus which recorded progress. When the balloon burst the instruments floated down by parachute.

In January 1934 a Soviet balloon carrying three people reached a height of 12½ miles.

That also is a world's record.

JERITZA'S FIRST HUSBAND*AGREES TO U.S. DIVORCE

The divorce and remarriage tangle of Mme. Marlo Jeritza, the opera star, was cleared up to-day when a joint statement was issued by the lawyers of herself and Baron Popper, her first husband.

Mme. Jeritza married Mr. Winfield Scheff, the Hollywood film producer in August, after divorcing Baron Popper according to Arkansas law. Baron Popper, when he heard of her remarriage, denied that he had been divorced. To-day's statement says:

"Full accord exists over the divorce and the economic dissolution of the household in Vienna and elsewhere. The dissolution of the marriage relationship has taken place with mutual consent of both parties."

Honest "Norwegian"

The big, boisterous German laughed. "Before I ever got through the blockade," he remarked, "a very nice young officer, searching my hip and saw for himself that I was a perfectly innocent Norwegian, with nothing more German than a little dachshund on board."

"He was so satisfied with my honesty that he even wished me a merry Christmas. You are right, admiral, it was great fun."

The admiral chuckled at his wartime enemy.

"What about your papers?"

asked the admiral.

"They were faked Norwegian papers, of course. Do you know, I have seen the British Imperial seal in use during the war. It was made in Germany."

Costly Slip

A smile crossed the admiral's shrewd face. He went out of the room for a moment and came back with a small piece of wood with a seal on the end.

"That may interest you," he said, "that is a German Imperial seal—made in England! It was used, too."

"It enabled me to catch one of your most redoubtable spies—von Rintelen. I met him years afterwards, and he asked me how I had spotted him."

"I told him his passport was not in order—it was not a German passport, of course. He told me that was impossible."

"It must have been all right," he said. "I made it myself."

"Then I showed him that while faking the passport he had used the seal, which should be half on the passport and half on the photograph, before the gum of the photo had dried.

When he stamped it he moved the photograph a fraction of an inch. That was enough to show me the passport was a fake."

"He got four years for that little slip. Hard luck, eh?"

The admiral laughed and slightly changed the subject. He took the count into the library and showed him the references to the Sea Devil in our official history. The count's big finger settled on a line.

Boy's Death Fall

"They say here that I read the burial service over a little English

VETERAN DIVER BATTLES SHARK

Panama, Oct. 1.—A 37-year-old pearl diver has died following a fight with a huge man-eating shark 60 feet below the surface.

The man had dived off the islands in search of pearls for fifty years, believing that sharks never attack human beings.

The shark attacked him while he was collecting shells.

Up above the churned waters attracted the attention of his fellow pearl divers. Plunging in, they found the veteran fighting a desperate losing battle with his hands and feet.

They succeeded in rescuing him and bringing him ashore, but he died soon afterwards.—Reuter.

cabin boy who had been killed by men in mid-Atlantic when we sank his ship.

"We did not cause his death. He fell and was killed by accident. I never caused a single death in any of the ships I sank."

"But I took the blame for his death, and read the service over his little body, covered with the Union Jack, so that his record should read: 'Died in Action,' and his name go on the Roll of Honour."

"One question, admiral: An officer saved my life in New Zealand when they wanted to hang me for a sinking when all hands were lost, but with which I had nothing to do."

"He asked me in court point-blank if I had sunk the ship. I told him I had not."

"Have captain, you have."

"The case was dismissed. What was his name, admiral?"

"Hall Thompson," said Sir Reginald.

"That's it," exclaimed the count. "For years I have tried to remember that name."

As they took leave of each other the big German gripped the admiral's hand. "I am really happy to have met a very gallant sailor," said the admiral.

SOME POPULAR DECCA AND BRUNSWICK RECORDS ISSUED RECENTLY.

K761. THE RIDE OF THE VALKYRIES ("Die Walküre")
The Queen's Hall Orchestra.

K768. TOCCATA AND FUGUE IN D MINOR (Bach)
The Queen's Hall Orchestra.

K762. RACHMANINOFF'S PRELUDE,
HUMORESKE, Op. 101, No. 7. (Dvorak)
The Queen's Hall Orchestra.

K756. STATE BALL MEMORIES...MARIUS WINTER & HIS ORCH.

F5529. FIRE DANCE.
B'WANGA. Quick Step. Ambrose & His Orch.

1922. ONE NIGHT OF LOVE.
CIRIBIRIBIN. Grace Moore Soprano.

1993. SWANEE RIVER. Bing Crosby.

EASY TO REMEMBER. Vocal. Bing Crosby.

1994. SOON. Bing Crosby.

DOWN BY THE RIVER. Vocal. Bing Crosby.

2007. SOLITUDE. F.T. Duke Ellington & His Orch.

2013. LOOKIE LOOKIE LOOKIE, HERE COMES COOKIE.
I'LL TAKE THE SOUTH. Piano & Vocal. Cleo Brown.

F5543. HOLLYWOOD HOLIDAY.
DREAM SHADOWS. Bobo Daniels, Skeets Gallagher & Ben Lyon.

1832. WHY DON'T YOU PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH.
DON'T LET YOUR LOVE GO WRONG. Vocal. The Boswell Sisters.

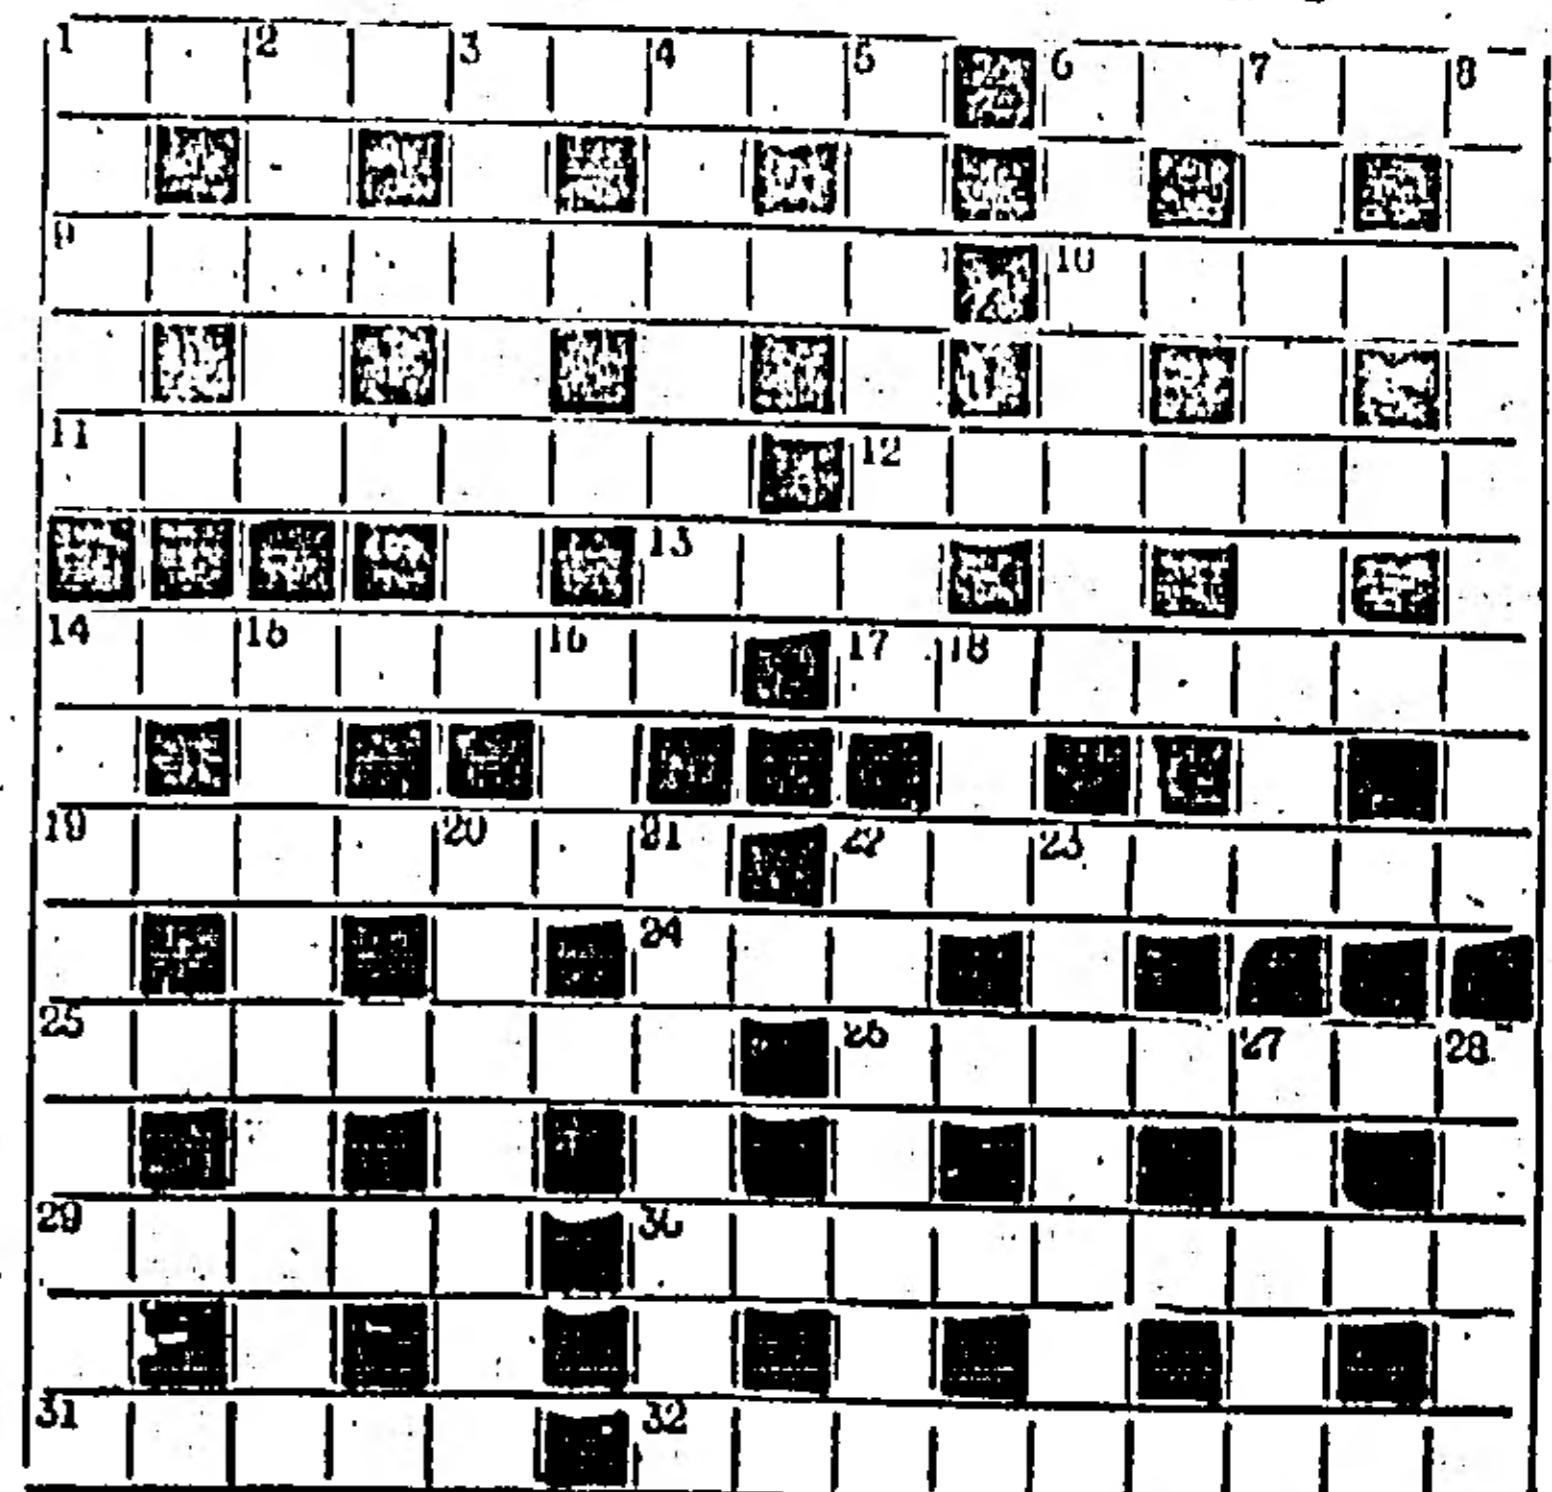

1957. ROCK AND ROLL.
IF I HAD A MILLION DOLLARS. Vocal. The Boswell Sisters.

F5548. LULLABY OF BROADWAY.
THE WORDS ARE IN MY HEART. Vocal. Dick Powell.

F5558. LULLABY OF BROADWAY. F.T.
THE WORDS ARE IN MY HEART. F.T. Ambrose & His Orch.

TSANG FOOK PIANO CO.9 Ice House Street.
HONGKONG.

USE ELECTRIC CHROMIC NEEDLES WITH YOUR PICK-UP.

OUR BRITISH CROSSWORDS*ACROSS

1 There's so much merriment in it that it must be killing.
6 The result of a broken boom.
9 Censure.
10 A coastal feature.
11 Sounds like a scraper but is bigger.
12 Showing some sense anyhow.
13 Feminine name.
14 I across might cause this; and it is old at heart.
17 National adjective.
19 The vernal current in banking circles.
22 British essayist.
24 Artistic aid.
25 Films have made this place famous.
29 Oil is to be obtained from this fruit.
30 Sound entertainment in Switzerland.
31 It may be admitted that this is inserted (two words).

32 Botanical specimen used in perfumery.

DOWN

1 Shoot that might come to grips.
2 Fruitful cause of man's miseries.
3 Hardly a favourite part of the lot.
4 Form of a treaty that comes in refreshingly in the afternoon.
6 This song should be a warning to you (two words).
8 This does not form the favourite walk at the seaside.
7 Not in the most fortunate man.

her.
Without the fourth letter this expression of impatience might be a favourite weapon.
14 A fungus.
15 A forerunner of the scientist.
16 This colour has the sound of finally.
18 The whirling form of rag.
20 One of the family and an article in for association.
21 Is a covert allusion to this cry allowable?
22 A gorgeous English showplace.
23 Double the last letter to describe a kind of steel.
27 Slang money.
28 A boat that may be seen in numbers on the Thames.

Yesterday's Solution

COBBLER'S SAMULET
A N I A I A I A H
ROASTING USURE
B N H C C H R A
OLD TIMER THE T R E
Y Y A R E D I K H
T D R E V I L E
B T W L O F F U N R
E L I S H A E C
A N E C A F M W
M I S H A P DECISIVE
E M T F P L N T
N O I S E N F U R L O U G H
D T A G J I E T E
S A H A R A LEAP YEAR

ACTRESS
SEEKS DIVORCE

MISS DOROTHY ("CHILI") BOUCHIER, actress and film star, has filed a petition seeking a judicial separation from her husband, Mr. Harry Milton, actor and former "Co-Optimist."

They were married six years ago when Miss Bouchier first became famous as "The English Clara Bow."

Married in the morning, they flew in an airplane for a few hours after the reception, and returned in time for Mr. Milton's performance in "The Show's The Thing," at the Lyceum.

Many American Divorces May Be Illegal

VALIDITY OF MEXICAN COURT DECISIONS QUESTIONED

Washington, Oct. 4. A final legal interpretation of the validity of Mexican divorces may result from the post office department's latest drive on mail order decrees obtained by Americans in the Mexican courts.

The ruling may involve the validity of additional thousands of marriages in which one of the principals has been divorced by the Mexican route.

So far state courts in the United States have ruled generally that such divorces are illegal and not binding in this country. The question has not been determined, however, by any high court such as the supreme court.

Action of the Postal authorities in barring from use of the mails the Border Law office at El Paso, Tex., may furnish the test. That company, or any similarly situated may appeal to the Federal courts from the postal order.

The Border Law Office, according to Postal officials, is typical of those which advertise that they can obtain the judicial sundering of marital ties for small fees on a mail order basis.

The company, the department charges, offered the services of two Juarez attorneys and a decree of divorce which must be recognised throughout the world at prices ranging from $100 to $250. Delivery of the decree was promised in from 10 to 35 days after the necessary application papers were received.

Advertising used by the Border Law Office held that International Law made it necessary for every other country to recognize the Mexican decree whatever the local law on divorce might be. It also claimed that courts in the United States had consistently recognized the Mexican decrees where they had been tested.

The Post Office department, in a finding by Solicitor Karl Crowley, held that this was a fraudulent representation. The domestic courts of this country, Crowley found, had never recognized a Mexican divorce excepting in equity cases. He held that anyone who obtained a Mexican mail order divorce and re-wed could be prosecuted for bigamy.

For these reasons, Crowley held, the Border Law Office's business was fraudulent and it might be barred from use of the mails. This case, it is thought, will furnish a direct test of the legality of mail order divorces and may resolve the question of their validity for good.

United Press.

Lawrence Of Arabia's Secrets Revealed In Diary

£100,000 BOOK THAT HAS BEEN SUPPRESSED

Rigip Discipline Of Royal Air Force Revealed

THE secret of the posthumous book by Lawrence of Arabia which an American publisher has announced his intention of publishing—in order to retain the copyright—and immediately suppressing has been revealed.

He proposes to issue only five copies and to put a price of £100,000 on each in order to prevent any sale.

The book is called "The Mint."

It is an astounding picture of life in the Air Force in the form of a diary which Lawrence kept day by day from the moment he entered the R.A.F. depot at Uxbridge as one of a batch of recruits. It continues through his period of training until he graduated at Cranwell with the full status of an aircraftman.

Nobody Spared

Only a few privileged among Lawrence's friends and certain high officials of the R.A.F. have seen this document.

There are several drafts of it in existence, for Lawrence was in the habit of constantly polishing and re-writing everything he wrote.

Everything went into that diary. He spared nobody, least of all himself.

The R.A.F. at the time he enlisted was in process of reconstruction. It had been born among the make-shifts of war emergency. Few of its active officers in the field had had any other than pure flying training, the personnel of the ranks consisted of emergency drafted skilled and unskilled labour.

To make an efficient service all this had to be changed. The word went forth that the R.A.F. must be drilled and disciplined on the strictest lines.

"Rigid And Brutal"

The diary begins with Lawrence marching into Uxbridge depot in mafiti.

He found there the atmosphere of a Guards battalion subjected to a discipline which was iron rigid and at times brutal.

If the authorities knew his identity they apparently made no sign.

He notes down every detail of his early days and comments upon the incongruity of no drilling men who were destined to be mechanics, riggers, etc. They did nothing but squad drill and "P.T."

The physical training he found hardest to bear. He

Astounding Picture Of Hardships In British Service

New York, Oct. 1.

THE secret of the posthumous book by Lawrence of Arabia which an American publisher has announced his intention of publishing—in order to retain the copyright—and immediately suppressing has been revealed.

He proposes to issue only five copies and to put a price of £100,000 on each in order to prevent any sale.

The book is called "The Mint."

It is an astounding picture of life in the Air Force in the form of a diary which Lawrence kept day by day from the moment he entered the R.A.F. depot at Uxbridge as one of a batch of recruits. It continues through his period of training until he graduated at Cranwell with the full status of an aircraftman.

Nobody Spared

Only a few privileged among Lawrence's friends and certain high officials of the R.A.F. have seen this document.

There are several drafts of it in existence, for Lawrence was in the habit of constantly polishing and re-writing everything he wrote.

Everything went into that diary. He spared nobody, least of all himself.

The R.A.F. at the time he enlisted was in process of reconstruction. It had been born among the make-shifts of war emergency. Few of its active officers in the field had had any other than pure flying training, the personnel of the ranks consisted of emergency drafted skilled and unskilled labour.

To make an efficient service all this had to be changed. The word went forth that the R.A.F. must be drilled and disciplined on the strictest lines.

"Rigid And Brutal"

The diary begins with Lawrence marching into Uxbridge depot in mafiti.

He found there the atmosphere of a Guards battalion subjected to a discipline which was iron rigid and at times brutal.

If the authorities knew his identity they apparently made no sign.

He notes down every detail of his early days and comments upon the incongruity of no drilling men who were destined to be mechanics, riggers, etc. They did nothing but squad drill and "P.T."

The physical training he found hardest to bear. He

Mixed Bathing Prohibited In Kentish Borough

SO THEY ARE PUTTING BY-LAWS IN A MUSEUM

DRIVERS of horse trams must place nosebags containing food on their horses' heads whilst they are waiting.

This is one of Hythe's (Kent) borough by-laws, which date back to 1873. They have not been revised or modernised since.

Councillor T. A. Taylor, ex-Mayor of the town, describes them as ridiculous and the laughing stock of the country.

The by-laws for public bathing, dating back more than 60 years, include the following:

(1) No person above the age of 10 years shall bathe from any part of the seashore within the borough east of the Constguard Station between 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. except from a dwelling-house, bathing machine, cabin, hut, tent or other enclosure or screen.

(2) Every person above the age of 10 years who swims from any part of the seashore between the Hotel Metropole and the Constguard Station between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. shall whilst bathing wear an opaque costume reaching from the shoulders to within three inches of the knees to prevent indecent exposure of the person.

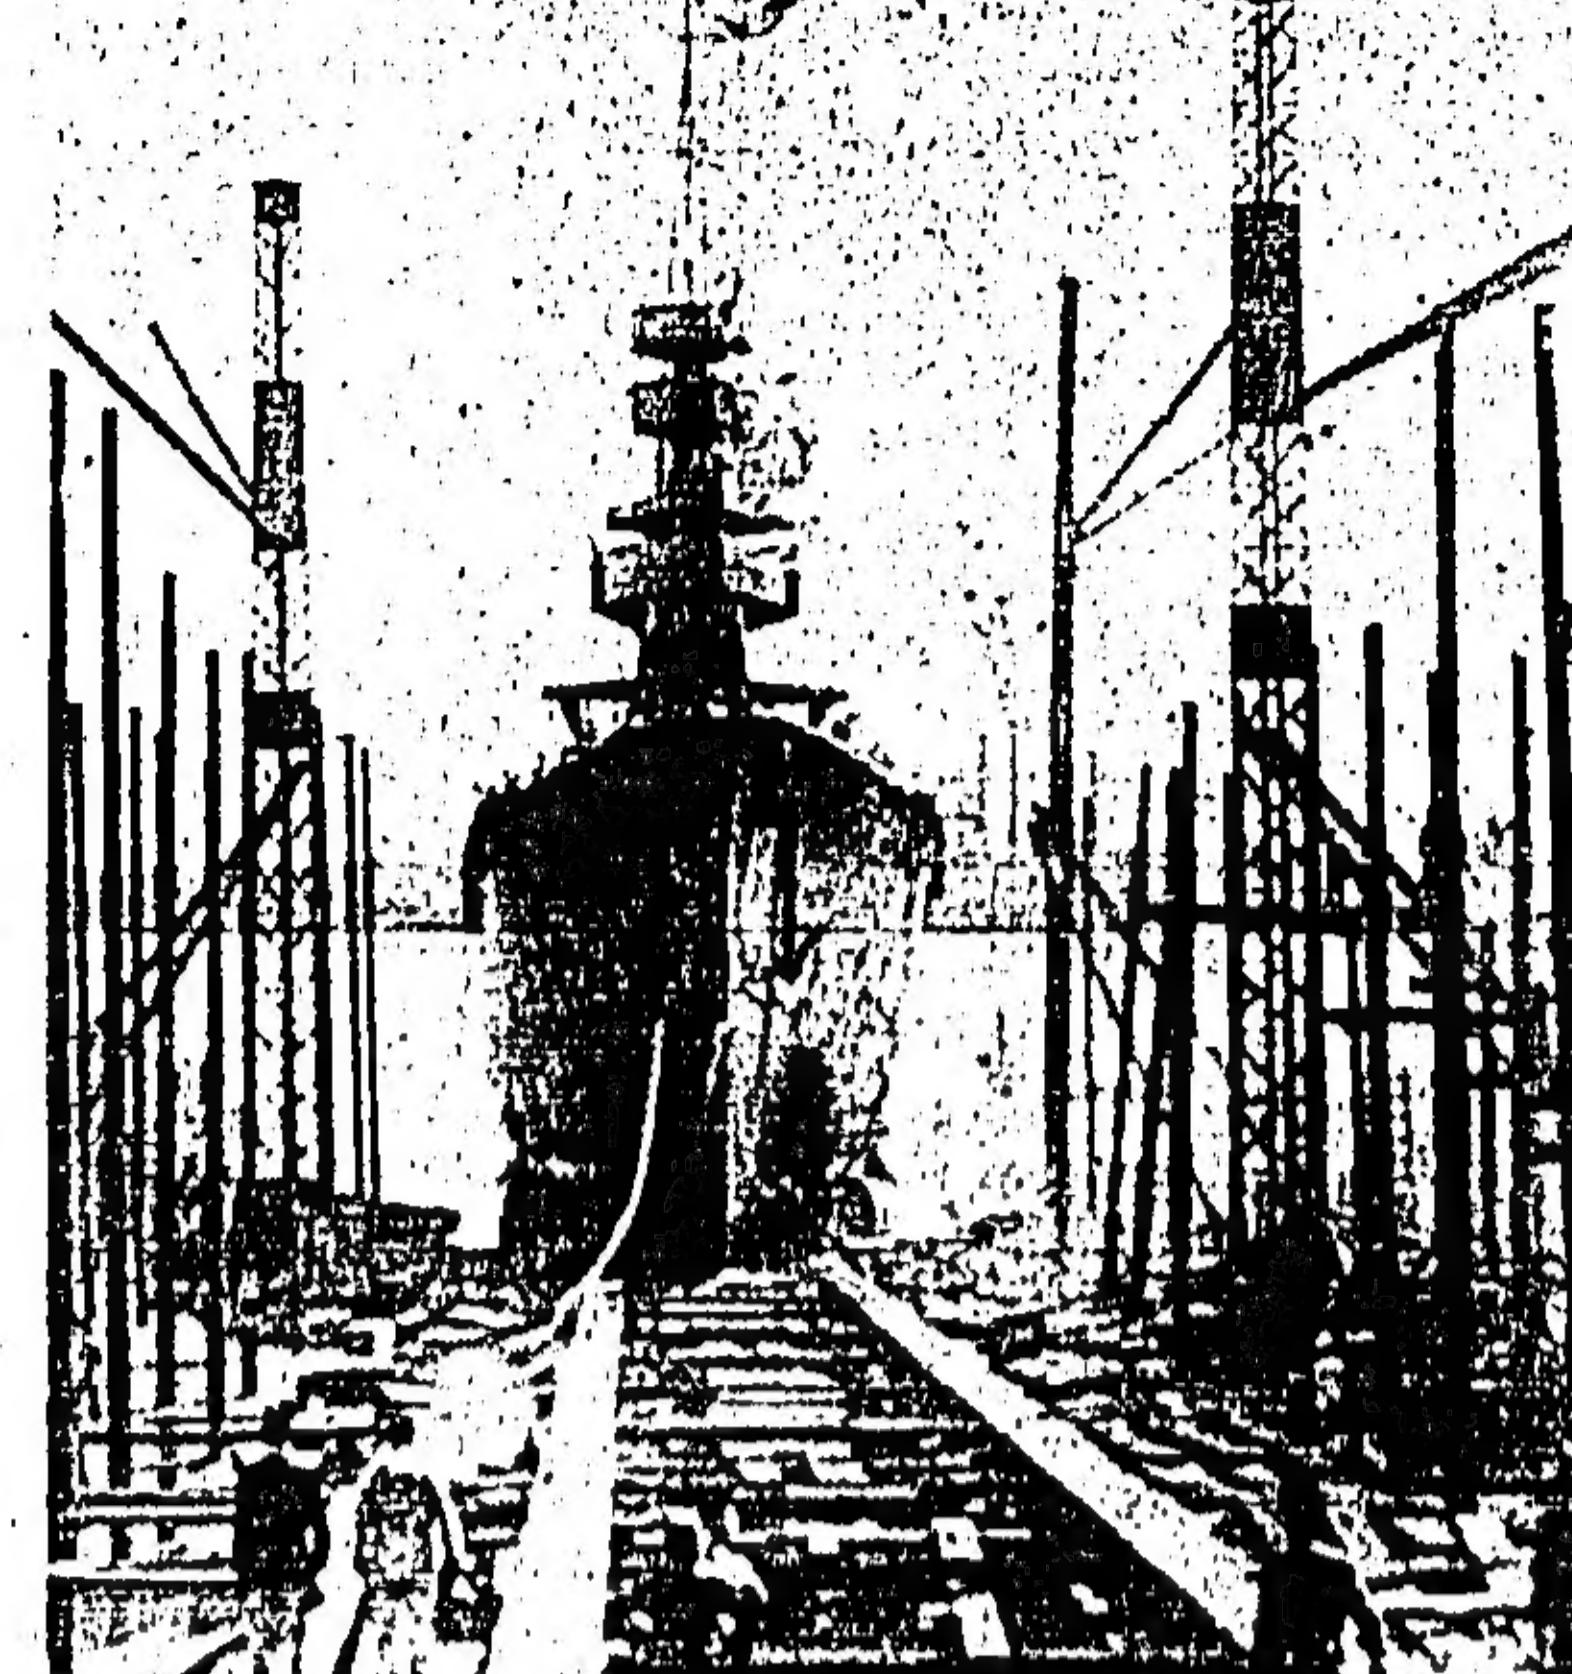

(3) No male person above the age of 10 years shall bathe from any part of the seashore within the borough which is or shall be set apart by notices erected by the Council in a conspicuous place on the seashore as a bathing place for the use of female persons exclusively. The penalty for an offence against these by-laws is £5.

There is only one copy of these old by-laws in existence, and it is proposed to place them in the Hythe Public Museum.

Princess Zahai, daughter of the Abyssinian emperor, is 16 years old and a modern young woman who doesn't miss beauty nor intelligence. She speaks English, German and French fluently, plays the piano and is capable hostess at Imperial palace festivities in Addis Ababa.

NEW CHINESE CRUISER

Another Chinese cruiser, named the Pin Hai, was launched at Klangnan Dockyard recently, the naming ceremony being performed by Admiral Cheng Chi-liang, Vice Minister of the Navy. The boat, which is 300 ft. long and has a beam of 39ft, will take nearly another year to complete.

Prince Of Wales Sets New Shoe Fashion In Budapest

Black And White Shoes Now The Rage

Budapest, Sept. 28.

THE Prince of Wales, stepping on to the platform here to-day after a two-days' train journey from Cannes, started a new men's fashion—black and white sports shoes.

They were the first things that Budapest noticed. Within half an hour inquiries were being made in the shops for them. Before closing time a few lucky Hungarians had secured pairs of the shoes.

The Prince wore a straw hat, a grey flannel double-breasted suit, blue shirt, grey tie, the already famous shoes, and a white orchid in his buttonhole.

On the hotel register he appears as the Duke of Chester.

27 Rooms

The Prince first asked for the stationmaster, to whose greeting he replied in Hungarian. Then, after shaking hands with the Budapest police chief, he walked smiling through the crowd of 4,000, who cheered their "Prince Charming," as they call him, jumped into a car, and drove to the Dunapalota Hotel.

There an entire floor of twenty-seven rooms has been placed at his disposal. Five are his own, which overlook the Danube facing the royal palace. The rest are for his friends and staff.

The grey-carpeted sitting-room is furnished with gobelin tapestry chairs worth £4,000. Over his bed is a portrait of Queen Elizabeth. The rooms were personally inspected by the British Minister, Sir Patrick Ramsay, before the Prince arrived.

The Prince greeted the hotel manager with the words, "You did not expect to see me back so soon, did you?" "I am proud," was the reply.

Gift From Premier

On the Prince's table was a large bowl of peaches grown by the Prime Minister, General Goemboes. The Prince and his party finished off the peaches before leaving for a short tour round the town before dinner.

He intended to do some shopping, but changed his mind, and showed his friends the fashionable Margaret Island; on the Danube.

One of the mounds containing 224 antique articles, revealed a warrior buried with a servant; three horses, weapons and a variety of gold and silver jugs inscribed with Orikhon script (an ancient Turkish script of the seventh-ninth centuries).—Reuters

There is no accommodation to be had in any of the chief Budapest hotels. The city is packed with English, Americans, and other nationalities.

BRIDGE AT NIGHT

Sold everywhere in large and small bottles.

KEEPS YOU FIT

Andrews
Effervescent-Cooling-Refreshing

Agents: BANKER & CO., LTD.

SWAN, CULBERTSON & FRITZ

Investment bankers and brokers in securities and commodities Daily New York and London Stock Exchange Services. Commodity Futures on the principal American markets.

Members of:

New York Cotton Exchange.
Chicago Board of Trade.
Commodity Exchange, Inc.
(Silver, Rubber, Silk, Copper, Hides and Tin)
New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange.
Canadian Commodity Exchange Inc.
Winnipeg Grain Exchange.
Manila Stock Exchange.

Correspondents for Hayden, Stone & Co.
Telephone: 30244, 30245, 30246. Cable Address: Swanstock.
9, Queen's Road Central.

(Corner of Ice House Street.)

PEROMAIL

Facsimile of POST WIRELESS
SPECIAL

REDUCE YOUR AIR MAIL CHARGES

BY USING

The "POST" Aeromail Letter Paper

and Envelopes.

EXTREMELY LIGHT AND STRONG

ON SALE AT:

THE SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST, LTD.

Wyndham St.

Tel. 26615.

PADS CONTAINING 100 SHEETS, LETTER SIZE, $1.00

ENVELOPES IN 3 SIZES, $1.75 TO $2.75 PER 100.

SMALLER QUANTITIES ALSO AVAILABLE.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

25 WORDS $1.50 for 3 DAYS PREPAID
50 cents for Every Additional Day
Alternate Insertions 20% Extra.
If Not Prepaid a Booking Fee of
50 cents is Charged.

FOUND

FOUND—Thoroughbred wire-haired terrier, pup. Apply Dog's Home, Tel. 56162 or 56074.

TO LET

TO LET—Several large and small godowns. Apply: Kwong Sang Hong Ltd., P. O. Box 320.

TO LET—Modern Flats at "Ticin Mansion", Macdonnell Road, Quiet locality, splendid view. Apply Xavier Bros., Ltd., Tel. 23216 or 23722.

ROOMS TO LET

ROOMS TO LET—Clarendon Hotel, begs to announce that they have a few rooms available at $100 per month.

The gay and sparkling story of a pretty girl florist who tires of launching other people's romances and gets romanced herself!

JOHN BOLES
JEAN MUIR

CHARLES
BUTTERWORTH
RUTHELMA STEVENS
HARVEY STEPHENS
ARTHUR LAKE

Produced by Robert F. Karp
Directed by William A. Seiter

SUNDAY AT

ALHAMBRA

WHEN AT HOME

The
Hongkong Telegraph
MAY BE PURCHASED

AT

SELFRIFFE'S

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

G. R.

HONG KONG EVENING INSTITUTE

(Formerly known as Technical Institute)

The Institute will be re-opened on Friday, 18th October, 1935. Entry forms and copies of Prospectus may be obtained at the Education Department or at the Central British School.

A. O. BRAWN,
Director,
Evening Institute.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that a sale will be held on Tuesday, the 15th of October, 1935, at noon in the offices of the Imports and Exports Department, Fire Brigade Building, second floor, at which the following articles, recently confiscated by Magistrate's order, will be sold by public auction subject to reserve:

88 Leather suit cases in assorted sizes.

E. W. HAMILTON,
Superintendent of Imports and Exports.
Hong Kong, 7th October, 1935.

THE DAIRY FARM ICE AND COLD STORAGE CO. LTD.

NOTICE

It is hereby notified that an Interim Dividend of 50 cents per share has been declared for the 6 months ended 30th June, 1935, and will be payable on application at the Company's Registered Office, 2 Lower Albert Road on and after the 28th day of October, 1935.

The Register of Shares of the Company will be closed from 18th day of October, to the 26th day of October, both days inclusive, during which period no transfer of shares can be registered.

By order of the Board of Directors.

J. D. THOMSON,
Secretary.

SWATOW RICE TAX

JAPANESE COMPLY WITH CUSTOMS REQUIREMENTS

Canton, Oct. 10.

Reports concerning the results of the Sino-Japanese negotiations in Swatow for the settlement of the rice dispute state that progress has been made in the discussion with the Japanese by Mr. Wu Pak-shing (Secretary of the Municipal Government here).

The Japanese are alleged to be insisting on obeying only the regulations of the Chinese Maritime Customs, which is interpreted to mean that they refuse to pay the native duty which goes to the Kwangtung Government. The native duty, in the form of a special tax for foreign rice alone, is imposed throughout Kwangtung. The Japanese further ask that all the goods seized from Japanese firms should be restored to their owners.

Customs Searchers

Canton, Oct. 9.

Among the resolutions passed by the South-west Political Council this morning was a plan to improve the Customs examination of luggage of overseas Chinese at Swatow, Kongmoon and Holoway.

These overseas Chinese do not know Chinese Customs regulations and are subject to thorough search by Customs and tax officials.

The appointment of several officers above the rank of major by the First Group Army is confirmed by the Council, which was presided over by Mr. Chow Lu.—Union News.

MOUNTAIN FIRES

SPECIAL CAMPAIGN AGAINST VILLAGE IGNORANCE

Canton, Oct. 10.

In view of the desolation and barrenness of the mountains as a result of fires started by superstitious and ignorant villagers, the Executive Committee of the Lung Chuen Kuomintang office has requested the County authorities to issue an order prohibiting them from destroying the mountains' forests.

In order to enforce this order, a propaganda corps has been formed by the Kuomintang, in co-operation with the Mass Education Institute. The members are to be sent to the interior of the districts to enlighten the villagers on the usefulness of the forests. Simultaneously the Agriculture Bureau of the Provincial Department of Reconstruction, is requested to contribute propaganda on how to avoid fire and to protect the forests.

The propaganda corps has left for various villages and will start work to-day.—Union News.

Put your whole soul into shopping and you'll wear a hole in your sole.

ADVERTISE

WHERE YOU ARE SURE
OF THE

LARGEST AFTERNOON
CIRCULATION

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

IN

THE "TELEGRAPH"

CIRCULATION CERTIFIED BY CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

MARKET UPWARD YESTERDAY

New York, Oct. 10.

The following reports on the New York Stock Market have been received through Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz:

The Wall Street Journal report on yesterday's market—Stocks to-day were upward, with an increased volume of trading. The advance was inspired by Mr. Gay's speech to the effect that the industrial use of vast credit might inflate securities. Prices of numerous stocks touched the year's high levels. Bonds were firm. Stocks on the Curb Exchange were upward and active.

S. C. and F. New York Office Cable: The market was broadly strong, with a large volume of business passing. Motor and steel issues led in the advance and traders were more cheerful.

The United States Corporation's shipments during September amounted to 614,933 tons, against 370,306 tons last year.

New York and Chicago commodity reports received through Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz:

Cotton—Trade buying is subsiding.

It is still possible that hedge selling will continue.

Tea—Prices are firm.

Wheat—There is some improvement in the demand from Europe and from mills. Stronger cables abroad and continued uncertainty at Geneva contributed to the rise, but increasing Black Sea shipments are becoming a factor.

An improvement in the crop in Australia and the Argentine is tending to create a two-sided market.

Corn—There was some buying of December corn. We believe that there will be no early pressure of the new crop, but an ample supply is indicated.

It appears that prices are now high enough.

Rubber—The revival of interest on the part of manufacturers is due to expectations of higher prices.

Hides—Good buying orders created a firm situation.

Silk—Profit-taking on upturns is advisable.

REUTER QUOTATIONS

Dow Jones Averages:

Oct. 9, Oct. 10.

30 Industrials 130.55 132.99

20 Rails 32.83 33.17

20 Utilities 25.15 25.78

40 Bonds 95.78 95.70

11 Commodity Index 57.04 57.22

U.S. COMMODITY PRICES

21 YEARS AGO

Extracts From the "Telegraph" Files

The following extracts are from the Hongkong Telegraph for the week ended October 17, 1914.

The rate of dollar on demand was 1s. 9/3/16d.

The new Catholic chapel at Saiwanho was opened by Bishop Pozzoni.

The partnership between Li Shuk-wai and Tong Lui-chuen, carrying on business as the King Edward Hotel, was dissolved, the latter gentleman taking over the business.

At the annual meeting of the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club, Mr. Frank Smythe was re-elected Commodore. The Committee included Messrs. A. L. Shields, A. Murdoch and E. B. Reed.

Silver fell to 23.1/8d., the lowest point reached for five years.

London Stock Exchange

MARKET UPWARD YESTERDAY

New York, Oct. 10.

The following reports on the New York commodity exchange are issued by Reuter:

Oct. 9, Oct. 10.

100 Wheat 10.98 11.01/01

100 Corn 10.97 10.91/92

100 Barley 10.99 10.92/92

100 Oats 11.03 10.98/98

100 Maize 11.06 11.01/01

100 Soybeans 11.08 11.02/02

100 Cotton 11.30 11.30

100 Rubber 12.40 12.48/48

100 Oats 13.49 12.56/1

100 Corn 13.52 12.70/73

100 Barley 12.70 12.84/86

100 Maize 12.91 12.98/98

Total sales—100 lots, Chicago Wheat

December 104.4 105.4 105

May 103 104 104

July 92.4 93.7 93.7

Wednesday's sales: 29,833,000 bushels.

Chicago Corn

December 61.4 61.4 61.4

May 59.2 59.2 59.2

July 50.4 50.4 50.4

Wednesday's sales: 6,770,000 bushels.

Winnipeg Wheat

October 92.4 93.4 93.4

December 92.4 93.4 93.4

May 90.4 90.4 90.4

New York Sugar

December 2.51 2.49/50

January 2.15 2.14/16

March 2.13 2.12/13

May 2.16 2.15/17

July 2.20 2.19/20

Total sales: 2,000 tons.

New York Silk

December 1.84 1.85/86

March 1.84 1.85/86

May 1.84 1.85/86

Total sales: 30 lots.

Montreal Silver

December 60.00 60.00/95

March 67.20 67.20/67.05

May 67.00 67.40/65

The Silent Guide tells the World!

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE

LATEST SHARE QUOTATIONS

The following quotations on the London Stock Exchange have been received through Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz in conjunction with Reuter.

Oct. 9, Oct. 10.

British Government Securities

War Loan 34.6% £103.4% £103.4%

MAJESTIC THEATRE

TO-DAY TO SATURDAY At 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 & 9.20 p.m.

THEY'LL BRING THE MELLOW WARMTH OF LOVE TO EVERY HEART!

She's a child of the gallant south
... He's a crusty silver-haired veteran... Love tears them apart—then brings them together again!

Surprise
Gorgeous Full-Color Climax!

SHIRLEY TEMPLE LIONEL BARRYMORE in The Little Colonel

A B.G. DeSylva Production with EVELYN VENABLE, JOHN LODGE and BILL ROBINSON

Directed by David Butler

Based on the story by Annie Fellows Johnston

A GENUINE PHOTOGRAPH AND FIGURETTE OF SHIRLEY TEMPLE WILL BE PRESENTED TO EACH PATRON FREE.
COME AND BRING YOUR CHILDREN ALONG.

DOUBLE TENTH OCCASION HONOURED BY CHINESE COMMUNITY

The Double Tenth was observed as a general holiday in the Colony and while there were no formal decorations and official celebrations the Kuomintang flag was prominently displayed and a holiday atmosphere prevailed.

There was a big gathering of prominent Chinese merchants at the tea-party reception given at the Chinese Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon in connection with Chinese National Day. The Chamber's chairman, Mr. Wong Kwong-tin, was unable to attend owing to indisposition and the Secretary, Mr. Chan Ping-an announced that the Hon. Mr. R. H. Kotewall and the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo had both written to the Chamber expressing regret at their inability to be present owing to previous engagements.

Mr. Choy Ilng was requested to act as chairman and he asked those present to follow him in a simple ceremony in which all members bowed to the Chinese national flag three times.

Among those present were Messrs. Mok Kon-sang, Tang Shiu-kin, To Jackman, Li Yiu-tong, Choy Ilng, Ip Lan-chuen, Shum Pak-ming, Chiu Chao-fan, U Tae-wing, Kwok Chen, Lo Man-hin, Yung Chi-ming, Yung Koon-man, Chan Tat-sam, Lau King-ching, Lau Yuk-wen, Lam Kau-mow, Chiu Chen-yu, Chan Kim-tong, Yiu Lan-ting and Chau Sing-chi.

Chinese Club's Party

There was a similar happy gathering of members of the Chinese Club at noon at which Dr. Kwan Sum-yin was chairman, and a speech was made by Professor Hsu Te-shan of Hongkong University.

Those present included the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, Dr. Li Shu-fan, Mr. Shou J. Chen, General Gaston Wong-keung, Mr. Li Yuk-tong, Mr. Lai Yuk-chen, Mr. Tsui Kan-po, Mr. Ngan Shing-kwan and about 100 others.

Exodus From Colony

Bookings for the journey to Canton on the Kowloon-Canton Railway yesterday were reminiscent of the King's Jubilee Celebrations last June, as thousands and thousands of Chinese of all classes thronged the station at Tsimshatsui for accommodation to see the Double Tenth Carnival.

ROOSEVELT'S SONS

INJURED IN CRASH AT LEVEL CROSSING

Boston, Oct. 9.—President Roosevelt's two sons, John and James, narrowly escaped death to-day when the automobile which John was driving crashed into a train at East Boston.

The accident occurred at Maverick Street just as the gates were lowered to allow a train to pass. Young Roosevelt was unable to pull up the car and crashed through the gates. He had the presence of mind, however, to swing the car round and run parallel with the train before the impact which tore off the front of the car.

John received injuries to his shoulder and was rushed to hospital where he was treated by Dr. Elfrid Cutler. He was later allowed to return to his room at Harvard University.

James, who was only shaken, was entrained for Washington soon after the accident. Franklin Roosevelt Jr., meanwhile sent a radio message to President Roosevelt, who is on board the U. S. S. Houston on his way to Mexico, that his two brothers were virtually uninjured.—United Press.

From the early hours of the morning, huge crowds gathered outside the Kowloon station in their effort to get an earlier train. Whole families were seen having their morning meal sitting on pavements or waiting near the booking offices.

Inquiries made at the K.C.R. offices yesterday revealed that the number of bookings was well over 10,000. From the Kowloon station alone, no fewer than 7,248 tickets were issued. Other stations, it was estimated, must have also received several thousand bookings.

Special carriages were put on in order to accommodate the rush, but notwithstanding this, many failed to find seats on the trains. A large number had to stand all the way. Although as many people as safety allowed were hustled on to the trains, at one time the stream of seething humanity looked endless. As the day wore on, however, the stream thinned, but many had to wait for hours before they could commence their journey.

It is believed that bookings yesterday were even heavier than those of the King's Jubilee.

The Producer of "King Kong" Startles the World Anew!

MERIAN C. COOPER'S

gigantic production of

SHE

From H. Rider Haggard's weird, wondrous story of the beautiful woman who bathed in flame and lived 500 years
... at last to find her first love at this very hour!

With 5,000 players including
HELEN GAHAGAN, RANDOLPH
SCOTT, HELEN MACH, NIGEL BRUCE

Directed by Irving Pichel and Loring C. Holden

TO-MORROW AT THE KING'S

H.M.S. KENT

LEAVES WEIHAIWEI FOR CHINWANGTAO

Weihaiwei, October 10.
H.M.S. Kent with Admiral Sir
Frederic Dryer aboard left to-day for Chinwangtao, and is expected to return to Weihaiwei on October 22.

H.M.S. Falmouth, with Lady
Dryer on board, left yesterday on the same programme.—Reuter.

H. Sell, Mr. James and Mr. George Talbot.—Shanghai Times.

OBITUARY

ONE OF SHANGHAI'S OLDEST RESIDENTS

Mr. Star Talbot, 75, one of the oldest and most respected of Shanghai residents, died peacefully at his home, 9 Great Western Road, in the presence of his family, last week. The late Mr. Talbot is survived by his widow, nee Miss Emily White, whom he married on May 16, 1885, and with whom he celebrated their Golden Wedding early this year.

The deceased had been in failing health for over a year and his death was not unexpected. Most of the members of his large family were at his bedside at the time of his death. Mr. Talbot would have celebrated his 75th birthday in a few days.

Born in Hongkong, Mr. Talbot, as a young lad of 14, went to Shanghai in 1874. In 1885 he married the daughter of the late Mr. Augustus William White and is survived by five daughters, two sons, grand children and also great grand children.

The deceased's immediate family consists of such well-known local people as: Mrs. Stewart-Murray, Mrs. J. L. Wade, Mrs. F. C. Roberts, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Mrs.

GLADYS
PARKER

© 1934 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

WATSON'S
Genuine
BAY RUM

The Ideal Non Greasy Hair Lotion for Summer use.

STIMULATING AND REFRESHING

$1.00 & $1.75 Per Bottle

A. S. WATSON & CO., LTD

Let us quote you for that Radio Gramophone you contemplate purchasing.

We build cabinets to suit individual tastes, and equip them with the two finest units for reception and reproduction . . . . . "Garrard" & "Patterson."

All Wave Radio-Gramophones in stock from $265.00.

Inspection Invited.

S. MOUTRIE & CO. LTD.

York Building. Chater Road.

LANE, CRAWFORD, LTD.

SOLID SILVER

ENGLISH HALL-MARKED

SALVERS

IN SIZES RANGING FROM 6" 8" 10"
12" 14"
TO 16"
DIAMETER

FINEST SELECTION POPULAR PRICES

IDEAL GIFT FOR PRESENTATIONS

Can be Suitably Inscribed with Inscription or Facsimile Signatures Neatly Engraved

SILVERWARE DEPT.

PHONE 28151

You'll save expense

with a—

"STUDEBAKER"

STUDEBAKER trucks cost very little more than the lowest priced units on the market, but they give you far better performance, far more stamina, much lower operating costs.

And the handsome, distinctive streamlined appearance of the new 1935 Studebaker truck makes it stand out from the crowd. With its sleek, business-like lines and powerful, dependable engine, it is a truck you will be proud to own, a truck which inspires a feeling of prestige that suggests a price much higher than its actual cost.

We will furnish particulars and terms on application.

HONGKONG HOTEL GARAGE

Stubbs Rd. Tel. 27778/9,

The Hongkong Telegraph.

FRIDAY, OCT. 11, 1935.

AIR SERVICE PROSPECTS

Although there has been no outward demonstration of the fact, Hongkong has followed with the liveliest satisfaction the arrival and departure of the Imperial Airways plane on the first of the experimental flights between Penang and this Colony, designed to pave the way for the inauguration of a mail and passenger air service which will link us with the Motherland, Australia and other parts of the Empire. The exchange between Hongkong and the Colonial Office of official despatches on the subject serve to throw into relief the immense advantages which will accrue to this Colony when the service is in full operation. As to the date of its inauguration, the Secretary of State expresses the hope that it will be in the near future. Some idea of the time which will be gained may be gathered from the fact, mentioned in the despatch by the Officer Administering the Government, that he received Mr. Malcolm MacDonald's letter eleven days after it was signed in London, in spite of the fact that the latter stages of the experimental flight to Hongkong were purposely slowed down. The present series of flights allow three days for the trip between Penang and Hongkong, but subsequent flights will cut that time in half. Eventually, the service between London and Hongkong will be undertaken on a nine and half days' schedule, and the time will doubtless come, with certain parts of the route covered by night flying, when even that time will be eclipsed. A point which is worth stressing, as indicative of the reliability of the Imperial Airways services, is that the first flight between Penang and Hongkong was made strictly to schedule. It is also worth remembering that Imperial Airways has just duplicated its London-Singapore service, providing bi-weekly flights. Thus do we see further evidence of the speeding up of the means of communication between distant parts of the world. Time was, not so many years ago, when five weeks was the minimum for postal contact between London and Hongkong. Since then, the Siberian mail has been introduced and fast shipping services have been established, whilst latterly we have had the joint steamer and air mail facilities enabling postal matter to be sent to and from London inside

NOTES OF THE DAY

UNARMED GUARDS

We are told that the unfortunate who was shot to death in the bandit raid upon the China Light and Power Company car on Wednesday night, was unarmed. We do not wish to criticise. We only wonder what useful purpose an unarmed guard on a "cash bag" serves. It would be cheaper, and as sensible, to adopt the system used for centuries by those who grow valuable crops—and use a scarecrow.

ALBERTA'S MYSTICISM

In theory and in the steps, at least the preliminary ones, to put it into practice, the social credit scheme of Alberta is one of perplexing contrariety. It was emphasised during the election campaign that no aid was expected from the banks to help out in the establishment of the new economic proposal, and yet it is to the banks that Premier Aberhart is turning to give the first whirr to the social credit wheel. For election purposes the banks were portrayed as of no help to industry and consumers. It was pointed out by Premier Aberhart and his followers that the banks "profit" by maintaining a scarcity value for their wares, that they carry out a restrictive policy and that "they are opposed to the general interests of the community." Of course, the responsibility of office and the irresponsibility of pre-election utterances are two different things. "Premier Aberhart is now facing realities; before he was shooting at the moon," says a Canadian contemporary. The Aberhart policy is, like the Douglas scheme, based on the assumption that the consumers' purchasing power is insufficient to buy the goods produced and the goods that are capable of being produced. The goal is to fill the gap between incomes and prices. One method to be adopted is a national dividend calculated on industrial productivity but distributed freely and equally to each individual in addition to any wage, salary or dividend. Another remedy is to reduce prices by decree, with the sellers compensated by new Government credits free of interest charges.

ACT OF INFLATION

When this is pointed to as an act of inflation the answer is that inflation would be prevented by stopping the issue of further credits as soon as the prices show a tendency to rise. What is aimed at is a "just price" to be arrived at by "reducing present prices in the ratio of the financial cost of total national production." How Alberta will do this as a province of the Dominion of Canada, remains to be seen. A correspondent in The Manchester Guardian Commercial points out that the Alberta "just price" is not of the orthodox Douglas variety. Moreover, the source of the "social dividend" remains under a cloud. "It is," says the correspondent, "to be found by the 'unearned increment levy' on all transactions, then the scheme would merely reduce purchasing power, and Mr. Aberhart has failed to grasp certain important points in the Douglas scheme. He has failed to grasp that Social Credit involves the creation of additional purchasing power to enable consumers to obtain more goods for a given amount of money."

MUST HAVE FUNDS

The ability to obtain more goods for a given amount of money involves the creation of funds which can only be secured by taxation, inflation or by loans. Mr. Aberhart has commenced his political career by raising loans which are repayable out of the future development of Alberta's natural resources. This is contrary to the Douglas plan. The correspondent quoted says that, "at the same time, the more thoughtful citizens are already worried sufficiently about their existing debts. However, the amount which could be raised for such consumer credits would test the credit-worthiness of such proposals. On the other hand, Alberta has not the power to inflate its own currency. The world must feel a good deal of sympathy for this already harassed state (Alberta) attempting such a fantastic panacea, full of popular appeal, but choked with obscurity and mysticism."

fortnight. All that has been lacking has been a direct link by air with the Straits Settlements. It is this link which will soon be forged, and inasmuch as the experimental flights now being undertaken are a preliminary to complete aerial contact with the Imperial Airways services, Hongkong is more than gratified that they have been undertaken.

"The Very Idea"

IT TAKES A BANK EXPERT TO APPRECIATE A BANK

In the Old Days Ice House Street Merchants Traded Concubines For A Fistful of Rice

By Eddie Kelly, Loan Expert

WANDERING over the new Bank yesterday morning in between champagnes, Eddie Kelly stumbled over a parcel that looked as if it contained a large bundle of banknotes.

So many suspicious characters, disguised in top hats, were cluttering up the place that Kelly decided the safest thing to do would be to take the parcel away with him.

In revealing this act of altruism, Mr. Kelly has taken some pains to point out that he did it solely because he didn't want to see the bank start off by losing any of its property.

Arriving at his office, Mr. Kelly decided that the next best thing to do would be to open the parcel.

"I took an awful risk," he confessed. "Only the other day I was reading that millions of germs lurk on a ten dollar note."

"I couldn't risk the lives of those husky co-workers in the Telegraph office and I intended, if the contents were banknotes, to burn them."

Fortunately, Mr. Kelly on, we decided to fill in the lot more potatoes on him. By degrees he accumulated an enormous stock of bear skins, etcetera, as well as potatoes. Mr. Taggart was there; counting the H.K. & S. Hotel champagne glasses to see how many had been souvenired by the bears off in hundreds. For crowd, we gave him a cheque-want of a feed of potatoes for $250 in payment of last stone-club maker was too weak month's account of $180, pocketing the change, which he handed potatoes grew eyes to see.

HOT SKYSCRAPERS.

Since we drank all that champagne yesterday morning we have alternated between being unconscious and bank-conscious.

Looking at all those massive Chubb doors and grilles makes us understand what they mean when they talk about safe deposits. A crook would have as much chance of getting into the vaults as Mr. Grayburn will have of cashing the dud cheque with which we opened our account with his institution.

We became so full of chum-pagne and enthusiasm for banking, as a matter of fact, that we gave him all our savings to mind. A five-dollar Chartered Bank note, three dollar cartwheels and eight ten-cent pieces.

Upon such faith are mighty institutions founded. We paid in our $8.80 without a tremor.

Later, however, we realised that we would want something to tide us over the rest of the month, so using our new cheque book for the first time, we got him to personally cash a cheque for $50.

That left us with 59 blank cheques in our new cheque book so, in order to save time later course, however, and foisted which just shows you what a wonderful institution banking is.

Then we had some black coffee, for which you can blame that champagne.

Hitherto our actual experience in the matter of banking is such that if all the notes we had banked were placed end on end they would reach.....

What's the lineal measure for atom?

We had our first experience with banks in our callow youth into the wood industry. What when, spurred on by the fierce about lending me 500 stone axes pangs-of-love, we banked five to get started?"

"Well, I dunno," said the richest man in Hongkong. "How do I know that I'll get my 500 back?"

"You know me," replied the worder. "Tell you what. I've got twenty sacks of rice, a nice, comfortable cave on the Peak, all lined with bear skins, and I've also got six concubines.

Three of the concubines are well domesticated and the other three are so well trained that they have a surplus of potatoes, he swop-are so well trained that they have a few of them with neigbouring taipans in adjoining caves on the Peak for stone clubs, bear-skins and whatnot. 500 stone clubs within six months.

Nature pursued its relentless course, however, and foisted "Okay," said the rich johnny, "but I've got to have my cut. I'll give you the 500 stone axes, but you've got to give me 600 axes in return."

So the wood merchant agreed.

After a time, when another stone-age merchant wanted some axes, the richest man in the world discovered that he had run out of them. But he knew that he had some considerable reputation by this time so he picked up a stone from the bed of a nearby creek and made his private chop upon it.

"You take this stone along to Master Dave Biggar, at the Chaste Cave, and tell him that I will pay him 50 stone axes when he brings it back to me. When he knows that this stone is worth 50 axes he will let you have them."

(How do we go on now, said he, pausing to wipe the sweat off his brow.)

After a while Master Grayburn found out that so many cave dwellers wanted stone axes, and bearskins and concubines and things that he did not have enough space in his old cave. So he decided to build himself a bigger cave.

And that is how we had so much champagne yesterday.

"Now, when we get home we can say that we saw nearly every roof garden in New York."

Triumphal Occupation Of Adowa

ITALIANS PROMISE JUST RULE

GREETED BY SUPPLICANTS

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1881. Received, October 11, 7 a.m.)

London, Oct. 10. Reuter's special correspondent with the Italian Northern Army has telegraphed his impressions on entering Adowa on Wednesday with General Villa Santa, the commander of the victorious Division.

As the General passed through the narrow alleys on horseback, the amazed inhabitants left their primitive huts and peered between the maize stalks in their tiny gardens. The bolder ones stood on the walls saluting, and some even gave the Fasces salute.

The General hoisted the Italian flag with his own hands and was frequently stopped during his tour by Ethiopian supplicants, but he exhorted them not to be afraid and to induce their fugitive neighbours to return, because "Italy has not come for pillage."

Proceeding to the Cathedral, consisting of a whitewashed hall, the party were received by a native Bishop bearing a brass cross which the General and his officers kissed.

General Villa Santa here reiterated Italy's good intentions, and the crowds in the doorway of the Cathedral shouted "Evviva!" while women raised a long-drawn-out wail, the equivalent of cheering.

As a conclusion to the ceremony in the barely-furnished Court of Justice, the party were received at the gates by brightly-robed Lords and their ladies, to whom General Villa Santa repeated that Italy's only aim was to tranquillise the country.—Reuter Special.

HONGKONG VOLUNTEERS FOR FRONT?

(Continued from page 1.)

Morris replied: "I think we could raise a nursing detachment and a number of other volunteers provided we get financial support. Many of the Nursing Division and possibly a number of other qualified nurses from Canton would no doubt be willing to volunteer, provided there were certain guarantees in the way of passage, etc."

GEVEVA PERMISSION

Asked the procedure which would have to be followed, Mr. Morris said: "It would be necessary for us to cable to London and get them to communicate with Geneva so as to get the consent of the International Red Cross. We do not expect any difficulties from those quarters."

Questioned regarding the guarantees which would be necessary, Mr. Morris said the question was whether they could get public support—whether, in fact, the idea would appeal to the public.

Asked how big a detachment could be supplied, Mr. Morris said the Brigade locally has about 160 nurses, mostly Chinese, and over 350 men, Chinese and Indians, all qualified in first-aid. "Many of them," he added, "served in Shanghai during the trouble there in 1932, and numbers of others have had a certain amount of hospital service since."

When asked if he himself would be prepared to volunteer, Mr. Morris said: "If the idea materialises I am prepared to go with them."

Mr. Morris added that he would welcome some indication of the public feeling on the matter.

EXCHANGE RATES

	Oct. 9.	Oct. 10.
Parks.....	74.31/04	74.27/01
Geneva.....	15.074	15.0514
Berlin.....	12.10	12.18
Athens.....	.513	.513
Milan.....	40.3/16	40.7/16
Shanghai.....	1.0/3	1.0/3
New York.....	4.00/15/16	4.00/3/16
Amsterdam.....	7.05/4	7.23/4
Vienna.....	.26	.26
Prague.....	118/4	118/4
Bucharest.....	.621	.621
Madrid.....	35.15/10	35.15/10
Lisbon.....	110%	110%
Hongkong.....	27/0%	27/0%
Brussels.....	19.07	20.12
Monte Video.....	30.13/16	30.13/16
Belgrade.....	.216	.215
Montreal.....	.497	.497
Yokohama.....	1.2/1.3/2	1.2/1.3/2
Helsingfors.....	22.07	22.07
Rio.....	.414	.414
Buenos Aires.....	.15	.15
Silver (Spot).....	.29%	.29%
Silver (Forward).....	29.7/10	29.7/10
War Loan.....	103%	103%

—British Wireless.

DOUBLE TENTH CELEBRATED

FESTIVE DOINGS IN MACAO

Macao, Oct. 10. Macao has just seen another festive holiday in the celebrations of the "Double Tenth". Large crowds thronged the main thoroughfares of the city all day long. The streets have been a profusion of colour and the bursting of innumerable strings of red firecrackers from the many Chinese establishments along the Avenida Almeida Ribeiro proclaim "good joys" to the Republic of China.

A formal reception which took place in the offices of the China Merchants Association was attended by H. E. the Acting Governor of Macao, Dr. J. Perreira Barbosa, and a representative gathering of Portuguese Government officials and many Chinese members of the Association. In addressing a few words of appreciation to the gathering, H.E. the Acting Governor expressed his appreciation of the Sino-Portuguese friendship and hoped that the two nations would work together in close harmony for many years.

Residents of Macao returning from the inaugural ceremony of the opening of the Hongkong Bank's new premises and the races in the afternoon at Happy Valley, were greeted with sight of a galaxy of lights along the busy highways of Macao. The lights outlining the new Sincere Co. building and other Chinese hotels along the waterfront, lent charm to the spectacle.

All the Chinese school children took a prominent part in various lantern processions which proved to be one of the principal attractions of the day's celebrations. There were special issues of the Chinese newspapers.—Our Own Correspondent.

GUERRILLAS HARSS ITALIAN TROOPS

(Continued from page 1.)

women in Addis Ababa are in uniform and are parading the streets, demanding permission to guard the Empress or join the men at the front.—United Press.

WARRIOR MARCH

Addis Ababa, Oct. 10. The Governor of the province of Kaffa and Wolloga, each with an army of 30,000 warriors, are expected to reach here shortly.—Reuter Special.

ITALIAN VERSION

Rome, Oct. 10. The failure of the night attack on the Italian post of Omager, in Briten, was reported by the Giornale d'Italia, which said that 25,000 Ethiopians, equipped with modern weapons, tried to surprise the post under cover of darkness but were repulsed by Italian native troops, who counter-attacked and routed the enemy.—Reuter.

MALAYA DOES WELL

Shanghai, Oct. 10. Results of the Athletic Meeting are as follows:

Men's 100 Metres Low-Hurdles.—

5th heat, T. H. Lin, third, 6th heat, C. C. Li, second, 8th, M. H. Yang, third.

Men's Hundred-Metres.—8th heat, C. C. Fu, first, 9th, heat, P. H. Mel, second.

Men's Tennis Singles.—First Round, Honan—forced to—Malaya—Hongkong beat Shansi 6/1, 6/2.

Women's 50 Metres.—1st, heat, Y. W. Tai, third, 2nd, heat, C. T. Chen, third, 4th, heat, Y. C. Teng, first.

All the above were Malayan representatives.

In Football the match between Malaya and Fengtien has been postponed until Friday. Chinghai forfeited to Kwangtung.—Reuter.

STOCK MARKET DANGERS

(Continued from page 1.)

Quotations through the upward flight of security prices. With business at a lower level than in 1929 it is unpleasant to contemplate the consequences of a runaway market." He concluded by saying there was no evidence of this happening so far, but he warned everybody that extreme alertness was necessary.

Commenting on Mr. Gay's speech, the Chairman of the Security Exchange Commission, Mr. Landis, said: "We are conscious of those pressures but they are not related to the S.E.C. since they deal mostly with monetary policies." Also he added that the S.E.C. would welcome a test of its constitutionality.—United Press.

EXCHANGE RATES

(Continued from page 1.)

Asked the procedure which would be necessary, Mr. Morris said the question was whether they could get public support—whether, in fact, the idea would appeal to the public.

Asked how big a detachment could be supplied, Mr. Morris said the Brigade locally has about 160 nurses, mostly Chinese, and over 350 men, Chinese and Indians, all qualified in first-aid. "Many of them," he added, "served in Shanghai during the trouble there in 1932, and numbers of others have had a certain amount of hospital service since."

When asked if he himself would be prepared to volunteer, Mr. Morris said: "If the idea materialises I am prepared to go with them."

Mr. Morris added that he would welcome some indication of the public feeling on the matter.

EXCHANGE RATES

(Continued from page 1.)

Asked the procedure which would have to be followed, Mr. Morris said: "It would be necessary for us to cable to London and get them to communicate with Geneva so as to get the consent of the International Red Cross. We do not expect any difficulties from those quarters."

Questioned regarding the guarantees which would be necessary, Mr. Morris said the question was whether they could get public support—whether, in fact, the idea would appeal to the public.

Asked how big a detachment could be supplied, Mr. Morris said the Brigade locally has about 160 nurses, mostly Chinese, and over 350 men, Chinese and Indians, all qualified in first-aid. "Many of them," he added, "served in Shanghai during the trouble there in 1932, and numbers of others have had a certain amount of hospital service since."

When asked if he himself would be prepared to volunteer, Mr. Morris said: "If the idea materialises I am prepared to go with them."

Mr. Morris added that he would welcome some indication of the public feeling on the matter.

Not Opposing Sanctions

AMERICA KEEPING HANDS CLEAN

WARNING TO TRADERS

Washington, Oct. 10.

Mr. Cordell Hull, the Secretary of State, to-day strongly reaffirmed the President's warning to American citizens that those trading with the belligerents in East Africa or Europe did so at their own risk.

He added that his statement was based on a definite policy, designed to keep the United States out of the African conflict.

Mr. Hull's statement is significant, due to the League sanctions discussions, since President Roosevelt's statement of policy has been interpreted to mean that the United States won't oppose League sanctions.—Reuter.

NATIONAL SPORTS MEETING

SUCCESS OF MEN FROM MALAYA

HUGE CROWDS

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Fifty-thousand people jammed the stadium at Kiangwan and the outskirts of Shanghai this morning when the Sixth Chinese National Athletic Meet was commenced.

It was put on as 3,000 contestants, who had come from all parts of China, Malaya and the Philippines, headed by a brass band, marched past the grand stand, in which were seated Mr. Lin Sen, the President of the Republic of China, Mr. Wang Chingwei, Chairman of the Executive Yuan, and other Ministers, as well as many foreign diplomats and Chinese and foreign notables.

Hundreds of pigeons were released, while aeroplanes stunted overhead.

A new city sprang up around the stadium, hundreds of mounds being erected for stores and shops of various kinds. Five hundred pressmen are covering the meet, which will last for ten days.—Reuter.

DECISION WELCOMED

London, Oct. 10.

In Geneva, the all but unanimous approval by the Assembly of the Council's action in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute, and the fact that the co-ordination committee is to get to work at once, is welcomed as promising success to the efforts under the League Covenant to restore peace and achieve an agreed settlement.

The concluding sentences of Mr. Eden's speech this morning have attracted considerable attention. He said: "We all of us contemplate with the deepest regret that duty now confronts us, but regret, however deep and sincere, cannot absolve us from fulfilling the obligations to which we have set our names. Since it is our duty to take action, it is essential that such action should be prompt. That is the League's responsibility—a responsibility based on humanity, for we cannot forget that war is actually in progress. We must therefore persist in action which our obligations command us to assume, but not abate by one jot our hope for an early and peaceful settlement."

It is widely expected that the co-ordination Committee will be able to complete the first part of its difficult task in a week or ten days.

AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN ABSTENTION

Both in Geneva and London, the speeches of the Austrian and Hungarian delegates have caused some surprise.

The need of certain countries for special consideration in the event of the application of Article XVI has always been recognised, and in the present case is likely to receive the sympathetic consideration of the Co-ordinating Committee, but the fact that two countries which in the past have owed so much to the League action should have chosen to abstain publicly from associating themselves with the unanimous decision of the Council, which has secured the approval of over fifty nations in the Assembly, is the subject of unfavourable comment.

—British Wireless.

FRENCH APPEAL

Paris, Oct. 10.

French armament syndicates have voted to appeal to sailors and dock-workers at home and abroad to refuse to handle cargoes for Italian vessels carrying war materials.—United Press.

LONG FLIGHT

Key West, Fla., Oct. 10.

The Navy has announced that a plane has completed a non-stop flight from Norfolk, Va., to Coco Island.—United Press.

MAY LIFE ARMS EMBARGO

(Continued from Page 1.)

effecting sanctions through the Co-ordinating Committee.

Peru also supported the League, while expressing friendship for its large Italian population.

The Co-ordinating Committee begins its work to-morrow morning.—Reuter.

AUTONOMOUS BODY

Genoa, Oct. 10.

In order to save time, the new Co-ordinating Committee will be autonomous. It will establish its own Bureau and appoint its own sub-Committee to deal with the manifold aspects of sanctions without consulting either the Council or Assembly of the League.—Reuter.

RADIO BROADCAST

Pianoforte Recital By Maurice Barton

RECORDED MUSIC

From Z. B. W. on a wavelength of 356 metres (345 kilocycles).

4.7-30 p.m. Chinese Programme,

Marche Militaire (Schubert); Villanelle (With the Swallow) (arr. Winterbottom); Marche Slave (Tchaikovsky); Mirella—Overture (Gounod, arr. O'Donnell); Patrol Conique (Lake); 7.30-7.50 p.m. The Bowell Sisters and the Mills Brothers.

Limehouse Blues; Old Fashioned Love; The Object of my affection; It's written all over

SHANGHAI'S SUPERIORITY OVER LOCAL BOWLERS

HONGKONG RINK TROUNCED IN INTERPORT

VISITORS START BADLY BUT RECOVER WELL

COLONY PLAYERS FAIL TO FIND THEIR TRUE FORM

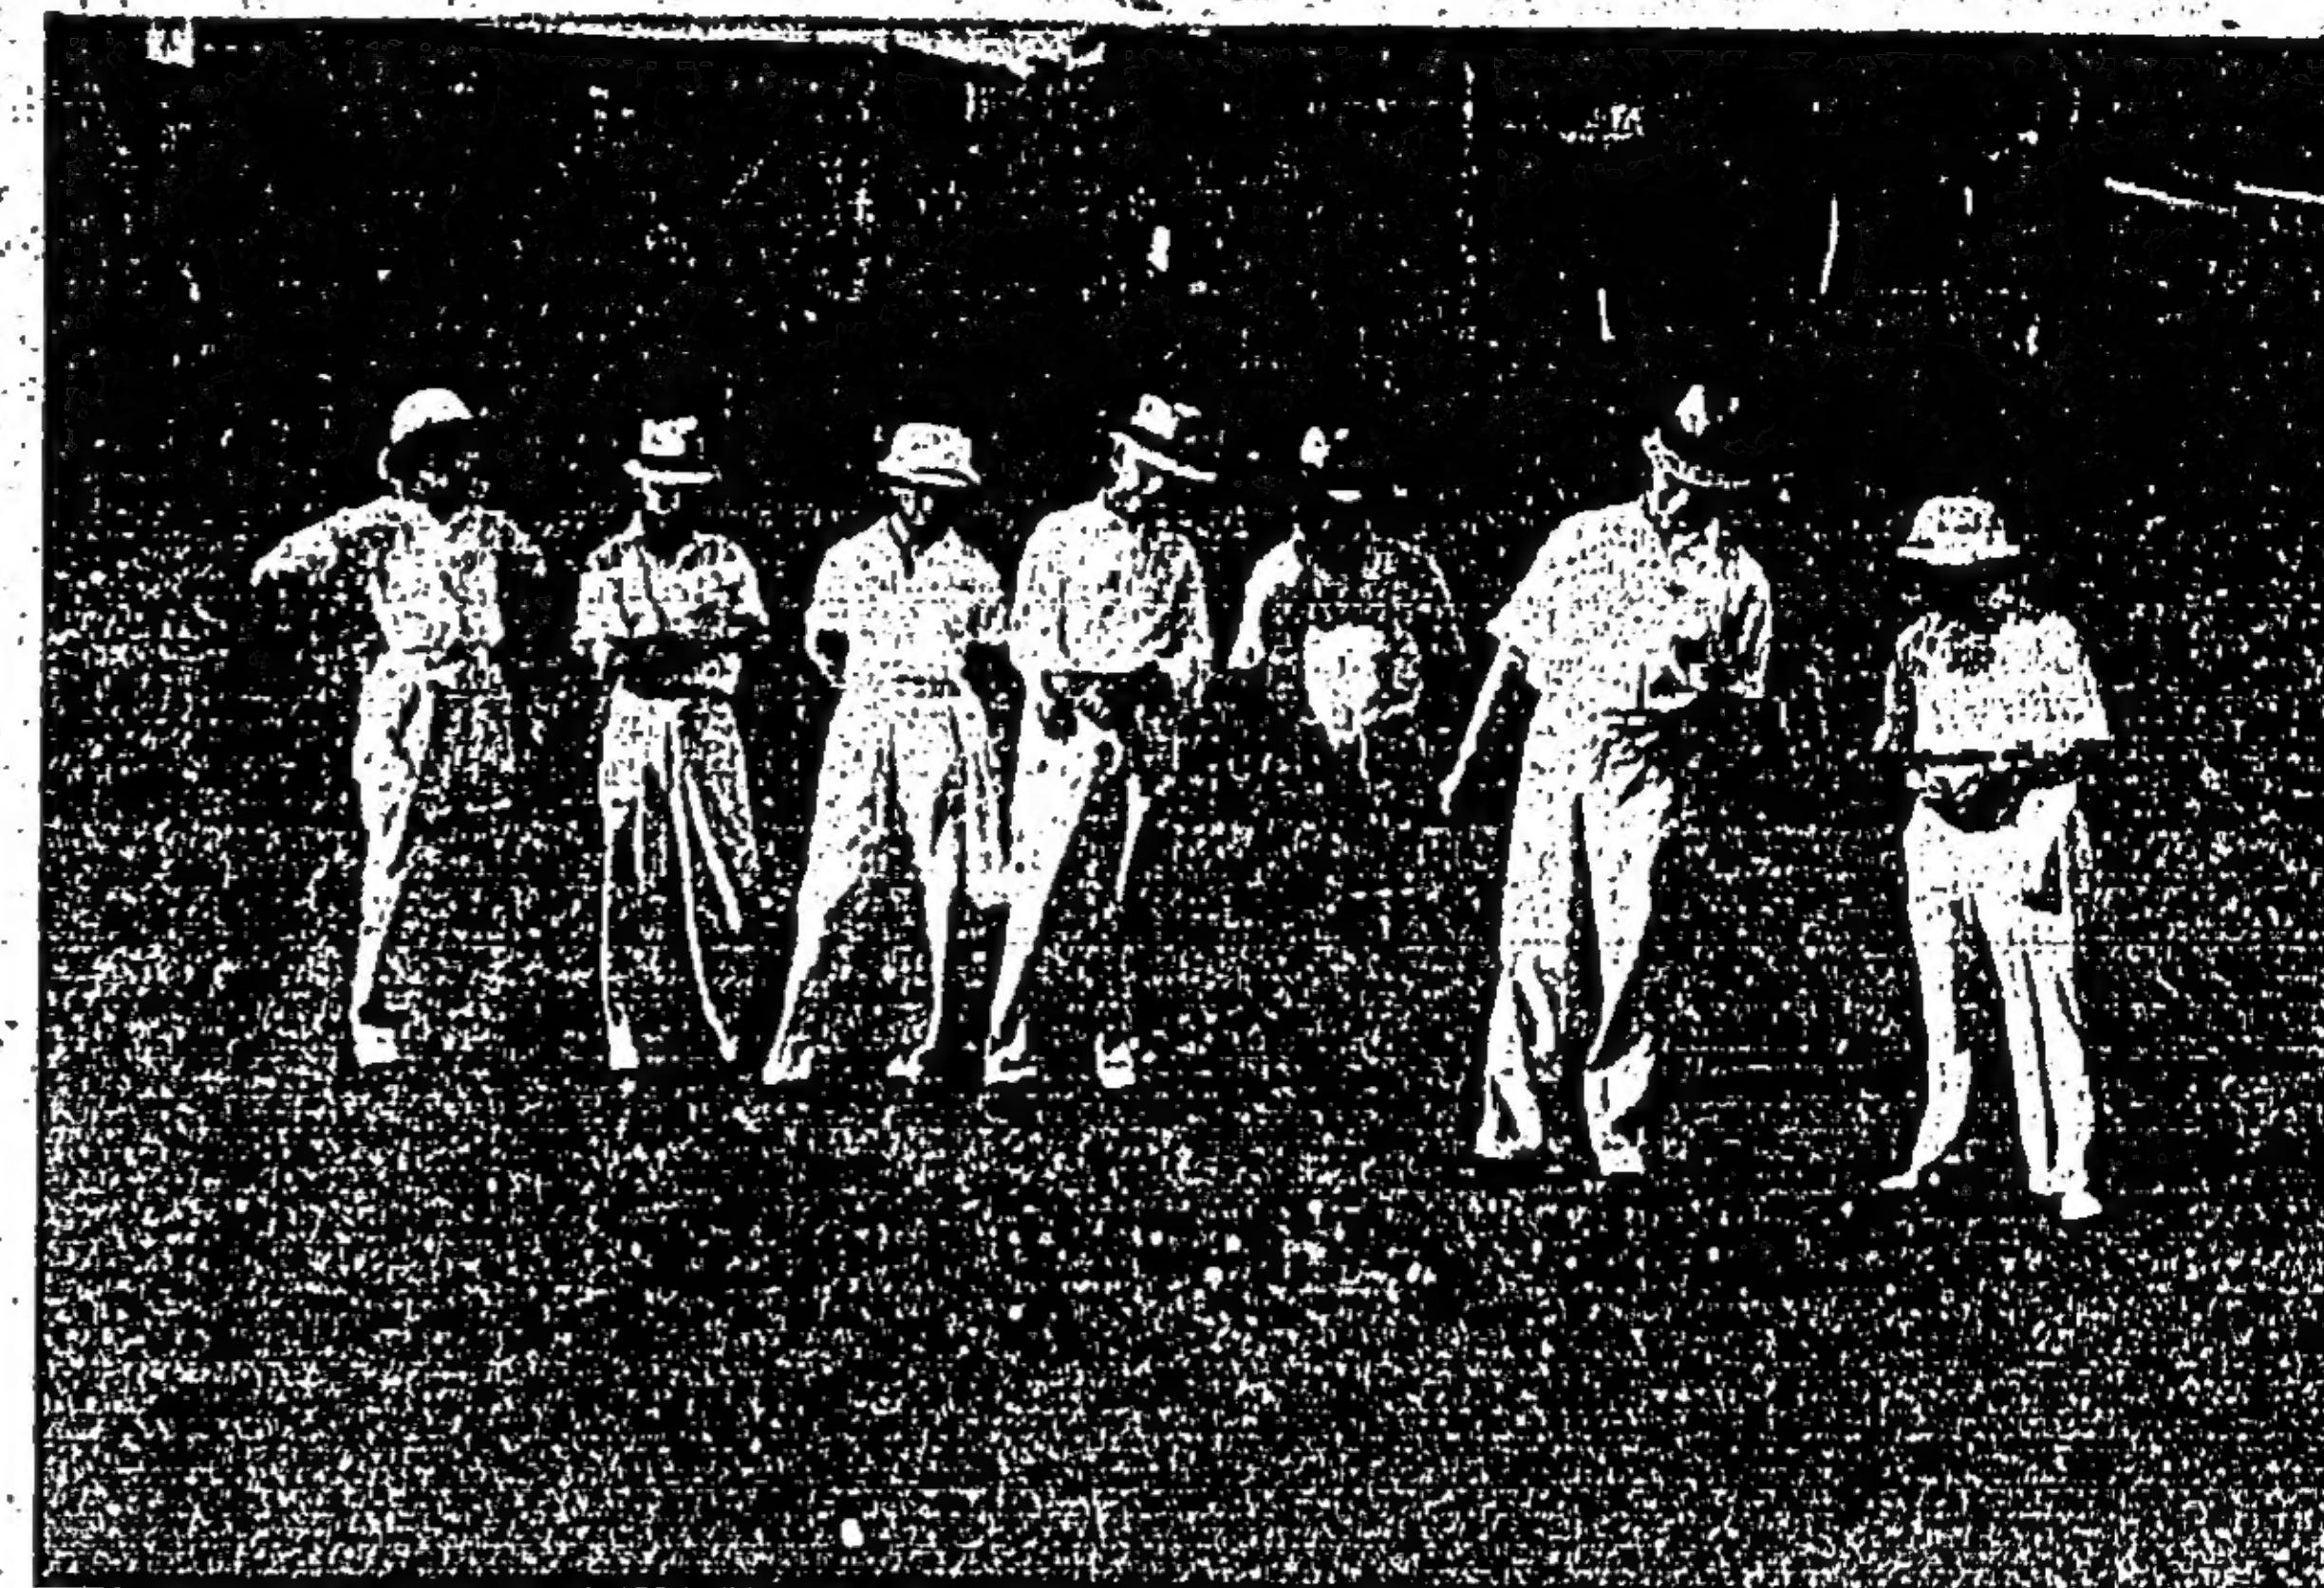

(By "Sagax")

Wednesday's match against the combined Police R. C. and Civil Service C. C. rink was certainly no criterion of Shanghai's capabilities as lawn bowlers and in the First Interport contest on the Club de Recreio green yesterday afternoon, the visitors from the North not only beat the Colony quartette, but they completely out-played our rink after a very poor start, the final score being 30 shots to 13.

No excuse can be offered for the Colony's defeat beyond the obvious explanation that the visitors were the superior of the two rinks and that the scores of 30 shots to 13 was fairly indicative of the general run of the play. Admittedly Luz deserved better luck than with some of his shots but he was the only local representative who can be said to have justified his selection.

For an Interport match the general standard of the bowls reproduced was not high, particularly during the opening heads but in the second half of the game, when the visitors were dominating the play there was some brilliant bowls played. It was from the Shanghai men that the thrills came and never were four interport bowlers more deserving of such a convincing victory.

Shanghai's total is not a record for an Interport match between the two Associations but it comes very near to being the highest ever registered. Only once before has it been exceeded and that was by the 1927 Shanghai team which beat Hongkong by 31-17 on the Craigenpawer C. C. green when J. W. Brierley, one of the six now in Hongkong, made his first appearance. In the Players in yesterday's Interport Lawn Bowls match anxiously awaiting a delivery from R. F. Luz, the Hongkong skip, during one of the heads. Reading from left to right the players in the picture are—C. W. Glover (Shanghai's skip), J. E. Noronha, J. M. C. Lopes, G. Richards, R. P. Phillips (umpire), J. Munro and C. G. Silva. (Photo: Ming Yuan).

R. F. Luz, who played a lone hand against Shanghai.

BROADCAST OF THE CUP FINAL

NOW A NATIONAL FESTIVAL

ABOLITION BEING OPPOSED

(By JOHN BELL)

London, Sept. 14. Congratulations to Mr. W. Pickford and others of the F.A. Council who share his recently expressed view that the broadcast of the Cup Final at Wembley is a national festival like the Derby or the Boat Race.

For a long time there has been talk of discontinuing the broadcast and the whole question will, I am informed, be discussed at the next meeting of the F.A.

There is no doubt that practically all the League clubs in England will oppose another broadcast commentary from Wembley because of the effect on attendances at smaller matches upon that particular April day.

The issue before the F.A. when they come to consider the matter is this: Are they, who have full control in all things relating to the Cup, to preserve the broadcast and so prevent the pleasure which it gives to thousands lying in hospitals and others who, for various reasons, are confined to their homes?

Are they to listen to the plea of the League clubs who point out that the preference of so many for the fireside Cup Final day is losing them some hundreds of pounds in gate receipts? BEATING TO ONE TIME

In other words, the F.A. are asked if they govern a game in which questions of finance have crept so near to its heart that it beats to one tune only—the click of the turnstiles.

Are they wilfully to destroy those moments allowed a large army of people whose physical disability leaves them just this one opportunity to recapture something of the game's thrill?

And I would say this to the clubs whose eyes are too fiercely glued to their balance-sheets. That the enormous following which the football game commands to-day has grown from a small beginning, just so quickly as interest in the Cup Final has grown.

It was the glamour of the Final scene which drew the curious crowds in the early days and if to-day the loud-speaker takes up the clarion call the game must gain new friends. It is worth hearing it is worth watching.

Germany have now accepted the invitation of the Football Association to play an international match in England on December 4. A venue for the game has not yet been fixed.

Referee
Mr. Fogg is A Diplomat

OFFICIATES ON CONTINENT

Vienna, Sept. 14.

Mr. A. E. Fogg, of Bolton, Cup Final referee at Wembley last April, had the diplomat's job today of controlling the Central European Cup Final between the Czech champions, Spartans, and Hungary's Ferenczváros.

So intense was the national excitement aroused in both countries by the championship that it was agreed to ask neutral Britain to undertake the refereeing.

For ninety minutes Mr. Fogg acted as The Dictator with the Iron Nerves. He ruled over twenty-two players and 56,000 frenzied spectators. And at the end, after Spartan had won, fifty-six thousand and twenty-two people broke into spontaneous cheers—for Mr. Fogg.

BEATING TO ONE TIME

The Shanghai Interport lawn bowlers this afternoon will meet the combined Kowloon Cricket Club and Club de Recreio rink on the Kowloon C. C. green.

The Second Interport match will be played to-morrow on the Civil Service C. C. green. His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, (the Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith), has signified his intention of being present.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

RUGBY FOOTBALL IN ENGLAND

COUNTY MATCHES COMMENCE

ALL BLACKS WIN

London, Oct. 10.

The New Zealand rugby football tourists yesterday won their seventh victory of the season, beating Northumberland and Durham at Gosport by ten points to six.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

THIRD MATCH TO-DAY

GOVERNOR TO SEE INTERPORT

The Shanghai Interport lawn bowlers this afternoon will meet the combined Kowloon Cricket Club and Club de Recreio rink on the Kowloon C. C. green.

The Second Interport match will be played to-morrow on the Civil Service C. C. green. His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, (the Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith), has signified his intention of being present.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

VISITORS FIND FORM

It took Shanghai but half a dozen heads during which to adapt themselves to the strange local conditions and although they were scarcely at the start they improved to such an amazing extent upon their opening form that the Colony players were completely taken aback and were never in the picture.

Outstanding among the Shanghai players was J. Munro, the Hon. Secretary of the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Association, and the captain of the team. It was he who maintained the most consistent form throughout the 21 heads, and who actually laid the foundation for the big score registered against the Hongkong players. Never was he outplayed by his opposite number, C. G. Silva, and it was only during the concluding stages of the game that his brilliance was eclipsed by the uncanny accuracy of C. W. Glover, the Northern skip.

When the other Shanghai players were "looking for the green" Munro had his delivery judged down to a nicely and he was very prominent. Had it not been for some exceptionally fine play by R. F. Luz, the Hongkong skip, Munro would have been able to prevent the Colony's lead of nine shots to one.

Even when he was not interfering with the lie Munro was putting his

TESTIMONIAL TO R. V. RYDER

WARWICKSHIRE'S SECRETARY

A WELL-KNOWN CRICKETER

A Testimonial Fund is being raised for Mr. R. V. Ryder, Secretary of Warwickshire County Cricket Club, in recognition of his services to Warwickshire cricket for forty years.

Mr. Ryder began his connection with the club in 1895 when Warwickshire entered the championship competition. Two special appeals that he organised yielded a sum of £7,000. The Committee state that his record of service in the dual capacity of Secretary and Match Manager is unique in the history of first-class cricket.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

TESTIMONIAL TO R. V. RYDER

WARWICKSHIRE'S SECRETARY

A WELL-KNOWN CRICKETER

A Testimonial Fund is being raised for Mr. R. V. Ryder, Secretary of Warwickshire County Cricket Club, in recognition of his services to Warwickshire cricket for forty years.

Mr. Ryder began his connection with the club in 1895 when Warwickshire entered the championship competition. Two special appeals that he organised yielded a sum of £7,000. The Committee state that his record of service in the dual capacity of Secretary and Match Manager is unique in the history of first-class cricket.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

TESTIMONIAL TO R. V. RYDER

WARWICKSHIRE'S SECRETARY

A WELL-KNOWN CRICKETER

A Testimonial Fund is being raised for Mr. R. V. Ryder, Secretary of Warwickshire County Cricket Club, in recognition of his services to Warwickshire cricket for forty years.

Mr. Ryder began his connection with the club in 1895 when Warwickshire entered the championship competition. Two special appeals that he organised yielded a sum of £7,000. The Committee state that his record of service in the dual capacity of Secretary and Match Manager is unique in the history of first-class cricket.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

TESTIMONIAL TO R. V. RYDER

WARWICKSHIRE'S SECRETARY

A WELL-KNOWN CRICKETER

A Testimonial Fund is being raised for Mr. R. V. Ryder, Secretary of Warwickshire County Cricket Club, in recognition of his services to Warwickshire cricket for forty years.

Mr. Ryder began his connection with the club in 1895 when Warwickshire entered the championship competition. Two special appeals that he organised yielded a sum of £7,000. The Committee state that his record of service in the dual capacity of Secretary and Match Manager is unique in the history of first-class cricket.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

TESTIMONIAL TO R. V. RYDER

WARWICKSHIRE'S SECRETARY

A WELL-KNOWN CRICKETER

A Testimonial Fund is being raised for Mr. R. V. Ryder, Secretary of Warwickshire County Cricket Club, in recognition of his services to Warwickshire cricket for forty years.

Mr. Ryder began his connection with the club in 1895 when Warwickshire entered the championship competition. Two special appeals that he organised yielded a sum of £7,000. The Committee state that his record of service in the dual capacity of Secretary and Match Manager is unique in the history of first-class cricket.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

TESTIMONIAL TO R. V. RYDER

WARWICKSHIRE'S SECRETARY

A WELL-KNOWN CRICKETER

A Testimonial Fund is being raised for Mr. R. V. Ryder, Secretary of Warwickshire County Cricket Club, in recognition of his services to Warwickshire cricket for forty years.

Mr. Ryder began his connection with the club in 1895 when Warwickshire entered the championship competition. Two special appeals that he organised yielded a sum of £7,000. The Committee state that his record of service in the dual capacity of Secretary and Match Manager is unique in the history of first-class cricket.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

TESTIMONIAL TO R. V. RYDER

WARWICKSHIRE'S SECRETARY

A WELL-KNOWN CRICKETER

A Testimonial Fund is being raised for Mr. R. V. Ryder, Secretary of Warwickshire County Cricket Club, in recognition of his services to Warwickshire cricket for forty years.

Mr. Ryder began his connection with the club in 1895 when Warwickshire entered the championship competition. Two special appeals that he organised yielded a sum of £7,000. The Committee state that his record of service in the dual capacity of Secretary and Match Manager is unique in the history of first-class cricket.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Swansea, playing before her own supporters, beat Bridgend by eight points to nil.—Reuter.

HONGKONG BOWLERS DEFEATED

Shanghai Recover After A Bad Start

(Continued from Page 8.)

woods in places where they were always likely to prove useful and it was exceptionally rare that both his woods were wanted.

GLOVER IMPROVES

Against the consistency of Munro throughout the 21 heads was the sudden brilliance of Glover in concluding heads when he improved on his form of the opening ends during which his bowling was listless and ineffective and it was Glover's accuracy which sealed Hongkong's fate for when he was in his most destructive form it was indeed a sad time for the Colony. Many a promising head was spoilt by Glover's uncanny deliveries, which broke up the positions and gave Shanghai the count.

It seemed impossible that the player skipping Shanghai during the first ten heads and the man directing them in the last ten were one and the same for the difference in the play was so pronounced that one would never have thought it was Glover who was skipping in each instance.

When on the eighth head Shanghai lay two shots with the position very delicate and Glover cautiously played his last wood on to the adjoining green, somebody rather facetiously remarked "that's the best shot you have played," and that seemed to be the general opinion—so badly had Glover been skipping the rink during the first half of the match.

However, the spectators and all the Shanghai players were able to forgive and forget and to accord due credit to the Shanghai skip for his brilliant work after the first half of the game. Glover became, in an instant, the outstanding player on the green and was constantly applauded for some skillful play.

LEADERS WEAK

Neither Lopez nor Richards were up to their best and in the beginning both were completely off form although the Luntiano representative was only the better of the two visitors. He was playing short heads on his skip's direction and it was on these that the Shanghai players were prominent as they were not altogether happy on the four long heads that Hongkong was able to obtain.

After finding the green Lopez was an ideal lead although quite a few erratic deliveries were still being sent down by him.

Richards was never at home, as No. 4 and except for a slight improvement towards the end he was incapable of the form which he revealed in the interports of 1932 when he skipped one rink and played No. 3 in the other two.

The Hongkong team can be dismissed in a few words, probably the fewer the better. Only Luz was offering any opposition to the Shanghai players and the way he dominated the play on the first three heads was nothing short of amazing. He was able to do almost anything he willed and of the first seven shots scored by Hongkong he himself registered four, either by drawing or dislodging opposition woods. He played well throughout but at times his form suffered through lack of support.

None of the other three players were anywhere near interport standard.

IS JEALOUSY A DISEASE?

There is a doctor in Rome who has made a considerable name for himself by curing jealousy. This doctor first examines his patient's eyes minutely in order to determine the state of the liver, and his treatment consists of a reduction of food, an increase of exercise, and certain medicines.

If the liver is sluggish constipation results, with its attendant ills which affect the temper and give rise to an intolerant jealous state of mind. To restore liver activity and cheerful spirits there is no need to go to Rome; an occasional dose of Pinkettes will do all that is necessary. These dainty little laxative pills, acting in a perfectly normal way, remove any accumulation of waste matter from the system. They banish biliousness and sick headaches, relieve piles, sweeten the breath, make the eyes bright, the skin clear, drive away depression.

Try Pinkettes yourself and you will be delighted with their beneficial effects. All chemists sell them.

and their form would have shamed many a player in an ordinary club match. Guy was occasionally drawing some good shots but the occasions were few and far between. Silva failed to reproduce any of his league form while Noronha was a disappointment.

COLONY'S EARLY LEAD

When Hongkong ran away with a seven shot lead on the first three heads there were few spectators who were prepared to wager that the visitors would be able to extend our players, let alone beat them by such a convincing margin as 30-13.

Silva and Luz proved the most accurate of the bowlers on the first head on which Hongkong scored a three. The two Portuguese players each drew one shot while another was promoted by an opponent. On the second head Luz drew two woods almost dead on the Jack and Hongkong registered another three.

The best shot of the third head was delivered by Luz who carried the Jack into the ditch when Shanghai lay the shot. Hongkong chalked up a single and made the score 7-0.

Shanghai's first shot, came from Munro who rested Guy's erstwhile country. Luz made two attempts at driving but failed narrowly on each occasion.

When Shanghai lay second shot on the fifth head Luz, with a narrow passage to negotiate, dislodged the visitors' wood and gave Hongkong an extra shot, making the score 9-1.

Lopez showed better form on the sixth head and was on the Jack with one of his deliveries while Munro drew two more shots. Luz sent down a shot which was only three inches from the Jack but Shanghai had one resting on the "kitty" while Munro's better wood was still second shot.

SHANGHAI TAKES LEAD

Munro was again prominent on the seventh head with two perfect shots, which culminated in Shanghai lying three to make the score 9-6 in favour of Hongkong. Two, on the eighth head made matters more interesting but on the next head Hongkong again fought ahead.

It was on the eleventh head, whilst tea was being served to players and spectators that Shanghai took the lead for the first time. Glover sent down two perfect woods. With one he drew dead to the Jack and with the other he dislodged a Hongkong wood to secure a count of four.

Shanghai threatened to gain a commanding lead on the next head when Glover had two perfect shots after Munro and Lopez had given Shanghai a lie of two or three. With a count of four and possibly five staring him in the face Luz had no alternative but to break up the head and—in a desperate finish against Burton, both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the 10th hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second-up, pulled it far over the green, played a masterly pitch and then missed a short putt.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time in his long experience at the club that he had ever seen the cross-overs driven. Burton has that little turn of the wrist at the top of the swing which is a feature of the armoury of so many players of exceptional length.

At the first hole Alliss cut his drive. Burton followed with a long and slightly pulled tee-shot which crossed the cross-bunkers. A clever recovery gave him a safe 4 and a half.

Alliss won the second with a fine 4, but was in trouble on the right with his next drive, and Burton secured this hole with a brilliant 3. Alliss squared.

The next two holes were exchanged, Alliss getting a well earned 2 at the short 5th. Burton was trapped off his drive at the 7th, and just lost the hole after a brilliant recovery. However, he got one back at the next hole, where Alliss missed from three feet.

"Fourts" at the ninth made the tally 11s at the 18th his drive ended over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time in his long experience at the club that he had ever seen the cross-overs driven. Burton has that little turn of the wrist at the top of the swing which is a feature of the armoury of so many players of exceptional length.

At the first hole Alliss cut his drive. Burton followed with a long and slightly pulled tee-shot which crossed the cross-bunkers. A clever recovery gave him a safe 4 and a half.

Alliss won the second with a fine 4, but was in trouble on the right with his next drive, and Burton secured this hole with a brilliant 3. Alliss squared.

The next two holes were exchanged, Alliss getting a well earned 2 at the short 5th. Burton was trapped off his drive at the 7th, and just lost the hole after a brilliant recovery. However, he got one back at the next hole, where Alliss missed from three feet.

"Fourts" at the ninth made the tally 11s at the 18th his drive ended over the road.

The meeting of Padgham and King drew a large gallery, who were vastly entertained by a display on Padgham's part which the card and pencil wizard, King, has rarely bettered. King was two under fours with eight holes played and three down! Padgham's progress had been: 4 4 4 2 3 4 2. He pulled his drive into trouble at the 9th. King's second, however, kicked a little unfortunately, I thought, into a bunker and Padgham got a 5 and a half.

After that Padgham gave no glint of a chance and finished 6 under fours when he won by 3 and 2.

Behind them, Alliss was forging ahead of the Open Champion and reached the turn in 34, a hole to the good. Alliss put grand seconds near the pin at the 6th and 7th to win both in 3, but lost the 9th in curious circumstances. Both he and his opponent pushed their tee shots into the same bunker and got well out. Alliss a yard or two further away from the hole. He failed with his putt.

Perry's putt ran round the lip of the

Helen Gahagan in one of her regal costumes as the heroine of "SHE", RKO Radio spectacle from the H. Rider Haggard novel of romantic adventure. Randolph Scott, Helen Mack and Nigel Bruce are also featured in this thriller, coming to the King's Theatre tomorrow.

PADGHAM & ALLISS IN GOLF FINAL

Thrilling Matches In The Closing Stages

(BY "VAGRANT")

London, Sept. 13. A. Padgham (Sundridge Park) and P. Alliss (Beaconsfield) meet in the 36 holes final of the News of The World £1,250 Tournament at Royal Mid-Surrey to-day. The first round starts at 10.45 a.m., and the second at 2.15 p.m.

Both are Ryder Cup nominees, and were members of the team which 61 sailed for the United States to-morrow.

should be a fine tonic to the side. Both the open champion, A. Perry, and the match play champion as represented by the winner to-day will thus represent Great Britain in the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mervin Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the 10th hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second-up, pulled it far over the green, played a masterly pitch and then missed a short putt.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time in his long experience at the club that he had ever seen the cross-overs driven. Burton has that little turn of the wrist at the top of the swing which is a feature of the armoury of so many players of exceptional length.

At the first hole Alliss cut his drive. Burton followed with a long and slightly pulled tee-shot which crossed the cross-bunkers. A clever recovery gave him a safe 4 and a half.

Alliss won the second with a fine 4, but was in trouble on the right with his next drive, and Burton secured this hole with a brilliant 3. Alliss squared.

The next two holes were exchanged, Alliss getting a well earned 2 at the short 5th. Burton was trapped off his drive at the 7th, and just lost the hole after a brilliant recovery. However, he got one back at the next hole, where Alliss missed from three feet.

"Fourts" at the ninth made the tally 11s at the 18th his drive ended over the road.

The meeting of Padgham and King drew a large gallery, who were vastly entertained by a display on Padgham's part which the card and pencil wizard, King, has rarely bettered. King was two under fours with eight holes played and three down! Padgham's progress had been: 4 4 4 2 3 4 2. He pulled his drive into trouble at the 9th. King's second, however, kicked a little unfortunately, I thought, into a bunker and Padgham got a 5 and a half.

After that Padgham gave no glint of a chance and finished 6 under fours when he won by 3 and 2.

Behind them, Alliss was forging ahead of the Open Champion and reached the turn in 34, a hole to the good. Alliss put grand seconds near the pin at the 6th and 7th to win both in 3, but lost the 9th in curious circumstances. Both he and his opponent pushed their tee shots into the same bunker and got well out. Alliss a yard or two further away from the hole. He failed with his putt.

Perry's putt ran round the lip of the

Exciting Finishes Seen At The Valley

BIG DIVIDENDS PAID ON FIRST DAY OF DOUBLE TENTH MEETING

(By "Captain Foster")

There was a fairly good attendance of racing goers at the first day of the "Double Tenth" Meeting held yesterday at Happy Valley under ideal weather and it was an excellent afternoon's sport with keen riding and several exciting finishes.

BRITISH WOMEN GOLFERS

BEAT AUSTRALIAN PLAYERS

LOSE BUT HALF A POINT

Sydney, Sept. 17.

The team of British women golfers beat New South Wales by 5½ matches to ½ here to-day making a clean sweep of the singles.

Mrs. J. B. Walker, the new Australian Open champion, beat Miss Joan Hammond, the New South Wales champion, 7 and 6, Miss Phyllis Wade (Ferndown), beat Mrs. Clements 1 up, Miss Jesse Anderson (Craigie Hill) beat Mrs. T. McKay 4 and 3, and Miss Pamela Barton beat Mrs. Clive Robinson 4 and 3.

In the foursomes Mrs. Walker and Miss Anderson finished all-square with Mrs. Robinson and Miss Hammond; Mrs. W. Greenlees and Miss Wade beat Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Clements 3 and 1.

the green. All square!

At this point Alliss showed signs of cracking under the strain. He cut his drive to the 17th and his second finished on the edge of the plateau green. Burton found the middle of the green and ran his putt dead.

THE TURNING POINT

And then came the turning point of the match. Amidst breathless silence, Alliss surveyed the sloping lie to the hole and then played a chip which was a miracle of delicate control. It rolled on and on and on, and murmurs of "good shot" suddenly ended in a roar of "It's in!" Dormy one!

A half in 4, with Alliss paying a fine high pitch out of a hollow rough brought the end to a thrilling game.

The final should be an historic one. It was late before evening peace descended upon the club-house, where the chances of the finalists were being subjected to critical analysis and biased opinion.

Compton found R. A. Whitcombe in aggressively good form in the vicinity of the greens, and though he himself had been beaten.

Burton was always a little too good for Denny, who has played some phenomenal golf during the week.

The winner started by driving the green, the ball pitching short of the bunkers and bounding over them.

hole, stopped on the fair side and just as a half seemed inevitable fell in for 3.

Three putts cost Perry the 10th, and bunkers coming his way at the 14th and 15th, he was beaten.

Burton was always a little too good for Denny, who has played some phenomenal golf during the week.

The winner started by driving the green, the ball pitching short of the bunkers and bounding over them.

hole, stopped on the fair side and just as a half seemed inevitable fell in for 3.

Three putts cost Perry the 10th, and bunkers coming his way at the 14th and 15th, he was beaten.

Burton was always a little too good for Denny, who has played some phenomenal golf during the week.

The winner started by driving the green, the ball pitching short of the bunkers and bounding over them.

hole, stopped on the fair side and just as a half seemed inevitable fell in for 3.

Three putts cost Perry the 10th, and bunkers coming his way at the 14th and 15th, he was beaten.

Burton was always a little too good for Denny, who has played some phenomenal golf during the week.

The winner started by driving the green, the ball pitching short of the bunkers and bounding over them.

hole, stopped on the fair side and just as a half seemed inevitable fell in for 3.

Three putts cost Perry the 10th, and bunkers coming his way at the 14th and 15th, he was beaten.

Burton was always a little too good for Denny, who has played some phenomenal golf during the week.

The winner started by driving the green, the ball pitching short of the bunkers and bounding over them.

LONDON SERVICE

ANTENOR sails 23 Oct. for Marseilles, Casablanca, London, Rotterdam & Glasgow
ACHILLES sails 4 Nov. for Casablanca, London, Rotterdam, Hamburg & Hull

LIVERPOOL SERVICE

EUMAEUS sails 1 Nov. for Havre, Liverpool, Bramborough & Glasgow

NEW YORK SERVICE

MARON sails 7 Dec. for Boston, N.Y., Philadelphia and Baltimore, via Manila, Batavia, Straits & Cape of Good Hope.

PACIFIC SERVICE (via Kobe, Nagoya &amp; Yokohama)

TALITHIUS sails 23 Oct. for Victoria, Vancouver & Seattle

INWARD SERVICE

HECTOR Due 12 Oct. From U.K. via Straits
PROTEUS Due 21 Oct. From U.K. via Straits

Specially reduced fares are quoted for cargo steamers with limited passenger accommodation

For freight, passage rates and information apply to

BUTTERFIELD & SWIRE.

Tel. 3033. Agents: 1, Connaught Road, C.

LLOYD TRIESTINO

FLOTTE RIUNITE LLOYD TRIESTINO-MEDITERRANEA ITALIANA-SITMAR

EXPRESS PASSENGER SERVICE

TAKE ADVANTAGE of our SPECIAL REDUCED TWO MONTHS RETURN TICKETS allowing a stop over of about 8 weeks in India, 9 weeks in Ceylon or 10 weeks in the Straits.

FARES FROM HONG KONG

To	1st.	2nd.	2nd Econ class
Bombay	£44	£25	£21
Colombo	£41	£22	£19
Singapore	£18	£13	£11

NEXT SAILING R.R. "CONTE VERDE" 11th October.

Same reduced RETURN TICKETS to SHANGHAI

1st. cl. £12. 2nd. cl. £9. 2nd. Econ. cl. £6.

For full particular apply to:

LLOYD TRIESTINO

Queen's Building, ground floor.

Tel. Ad. "LLOYDIANO" P.O.B. 143 Telephone 32981.
Agents, Canon—Messrs. DODWELL & CO., LTD., SHAMEEN

SWEDISH EAST ASIATIC

SERVICE OF FAST MOTOR VESSELS

(with limited, but exceptionally good, passenger accommodation).

Homewards to:

Port Said, Tripoli, Marseilles, Algiers, Oran, Casablanca, Rotterdam (Amsterdam), Hamburg, Oslo, Gothenburg and other Scandinavian Ports.

via

Manila and Straits Settlements

M.V. "SHANTUNG" ..... 3rd Nov.

S.S. "CEYLON" ..... 3rd Dec.

Outwards to:

Shanghai, Yokohama, Kobe and Osaka.

S.S. "CEYLON" ..... 22nd Oct.

M.S. "TAMARA" ..... 19th Nov.

Passenger Rates:

Hong Kong to Mediterranean ..... £18

Hong Kong to Rotterdam ..... £55

Agents:

GILMAN & CO., LTD.
Hongkong.

G. E. HUYGEN
Canton.

HONGKONG BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

DONATIONS GRATEFULLY RECEIVED

Please send to the Honorary Treasurer:

Mrs. E. I. Wynne-Jones

404 The Peak.

SERIAL STORY

One I Love

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

CHAPTER XLVII

Janet said, "Why, yes, I remember you. Jeff Grant introduced us one day last summer. You're Miss—she hesitated—"Miss Calahan, isn't it?" "So I made an impression!" the other girl said, in mock surprise. "Yes, Dolores Calahan's my name. I've seen you a couple of times since, but you didn't see me. Walking around in a big car with a chauffeur I guess you wouldn't notice anybody like me! But just the same I've got something to say to you and I'm going to get it off my chest!"

"Why, of course—" Janet began, but the other girl interrupted. Dolores' dark eyes were defiant.

"What's the idea of two-timing a swell guy like Jeff Grant?" she demanded. "I saw you out there with your blond boy friend! It's because Jeff's out of town, I suppose."

"What in the world are you talking about?"

"I'm talking about you and the way you treat Jeff Grant!" Dolores went on. "You needn't act so innocent! Because you can't get away with it. The Calahans aren't afraid to say what they think to anybody and I'm telling you right now I think you're the limit! You're the kind of a girl who thinks it's smart to let a fellow get crazy over her and then give him the air. You don't want Jeff but you don't want anyone else to have him either."

"But—!"

Dolores stopped her. "Wait a minute," she said. "I'm not going to stop until I've finished. I'm not ashamed to admit I like Jeff myself and I tried to make him fall for me. I'm not the only one, either. I didn't have a chance and neither did any of the others. Why? Because he's so wild about you he doesn't know we're on earth. Say, if you don't want him why can't you lay off? Give somebody else a chance, can't you?"

Janet was staring at her. "Do you mean you think Jeff is in love with me?"

Dolores tossed her head. "I'd be blind if I couldn't see that!"

"Why! You thought you'd play your little game. Play around with your blond Barrymore and let a swell guy like Jeff break his heart! There ought to be something done about dames like you. You make me sick!"

"Just what," Janet asked, in a strained voice, "makes you think Jeff Grant is in love with me?"

"I guess I saw the way he looked at you—I've seen him mooning over a picture of you he's got, too. Oh, don't try to play innocent—"

"But he hasn't any picture of me."

"Yes, he has. A snap-shot with a couple of kids beside you. And one day I heard him talking to you on the telephone."

Janet remembered the snapshot then. Jeff had taken it the day of the picnic for Rosie and Tommy Silvani. She had had no idea that he had kept one of the prints for himself.

"Listen," Dolores went on. "I'll tell you one thing—the Calahans play square. I wouldn't be a cheap little cheater like you for anything in the world. You'll go on just the same, I suppose. You'll break Jeff's heart and then laugh at him but at least I've had the satisfaction of telling you exactly what I think of you Good Night, Miss High-and-Mighty Janet Hill!"

Head in the air, with a quick whirl, she made her exit. Janet turned toward the mirror. Five minutes later she was still staring at her reflection there.

It was three days later. There was no softly lighted table with flowers and gleaming silver and an orchestra in the distance as there had been at Regal's. This table stood in the bright, middling glare of a window in a chain restaurant. Outside the sun was streaming down and the Saturday crowd filled the sidewalk.

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent. "Lunches can wait!" he said. "This is important!" He steered her through the narrow aisle toward the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"Why, Jeff!"

"Come on," he said. "There isn't a moment to lose."

"But we haven't finished lunch."

His gesture was magnificent.

Canadian Pacific

EMPERESS OF RUSSIA

SAILS FOR

VICTORIA & VANCOUVER
via SHANGHAI & JAPAN PORTS

at 6 A.M. FRIDAY, October 18th

BOOK NOW FOR 1936
SAILINGS
AND SECURE CHOICE OF
ACCOMMODATION.

Sailings to MANILA

EMPERESS OF JAPAN ..... Oct. 25th.
EMPERESS OF ASIA ..... Nov. 7th.

Full Information from your own Agent or

CANADIAN PACIFIC

WORLD'S GREATEST TRANSPORT SYSTEM

Union Building.

Tel. 20752.

General Passenger Agents in the Orient for the

CUNARD WHITE STAR LINE.

San Francisco via Shanghai, Japan Ports & Honolulu.
Tatsuta Maru ..... Wed., 16th Oct.
Asama Maru ..... Wed., 30th Oct.
Takao Maru ..... Wed., 13th Nov.
Seattle & Vancouver.
Hiikawa Maru (starts from Kobe) Sat., 19th Oct.
Hiye Maru (starts from Kobe) Sat., 9th Nov.
London, Marseilles, Antwerp & Rotterdam.
Hakone Maru ..... Sat., 12th Oct.
Suwa Maru ..... Sat., 26th Oct.
Fushimi Maru ..... Sat., 9th Nov.
Sydney & Melbourne via Manila & Ports.
Kamo Maru ..... Sat., 26th Oct.
Kitano Maru ..... Sat., 23rd Nov.
Bombay via Singapore, Penang, & Colombo.
Tango Maru ..... Fri., 11th Oct.
Mayobashi Maru ..... Mon., 28th Oct.
South America (West Coast) via Japan, Honolulu,
Los Angeles, Mexico & Panama.
Bokuyo Maru ..... Sat., 9th Nov.
New York via Panama.
Katsuragi Maru ..... Thurs., 17th Oct.
Liverpool via Port Said, Bevrouth, Istanbul, Piraeus,
Genoa & Valencia.
Lima Maru (Calls Genoa) Sun., 13th Oct.
Calcutta via Singapore, Penang & Rangoon.
Bengal Maru ..... Tues., 16th Oct.
Tokushima Maru ..... Tues., 29th Oct.
Shanghai, Kobe & Yokohama.
Hakozaki Maru ..... Fri., 11th Oct.
Kitano Maru (Nagasaki direct) Fri., 18th Oct.
Terukuni Maru ..... Tues., 22nd Oct.
*Cargo only.

Tel. 30291.

FRENCH MAIL STEAMERS.
Sailings from Hongkong.

To MARSEILLES via Saigon
Singapore, Colombo, Djibouti
(Aden), Suva, Port-Said.

To SHANGHAI—KOBE.

Marechal Joffre 22nd Oct.
Sphinx ..... 5th Nov.
Chenonceaux ..... 19th Nov.
D'Artagnan ..... 3rd Dec.
Athos II ..... 17th Dec.
Pres. Doumer ..... 31st Dec.

Sphinx ..... 19th Oct.
Chenonceaux ..... 2nd Nov.
D'Artagnan ..... 16th Nov.
Athos II ..... 30th Nov.
Pres. Doumer ..... 13th Dec.
Andre Lebon ..... 28th Dec.

We can issue through tickets to Egypt, Syrian ports
East Africa, Madagascar by shipment on our mail steamers at Port-Said or Djibouti.

For full particulars, apply to:
Tel. 26651 Cie des MESSAGERIES MARITIMES.

BANKS

P. & O. BANKING CORPORATION LTD

Authorised Capital ..... £5,000,000
Subscribed and Paid-up ..... 2,654,100
Reserve Fund ..... 180,000

HEAD OFFICE
117-122, Leadenhall Street, London, E.C.3.
WEST END BRANCH
14-16, Cockspur Street, London, S.W.1.

BRANCHES—Bombay, Calcutta, Colombo, Madras, Shanghai, Singapore.

General Exchange and Banking Business transacted. Loans and overdrafts granted on approved security. Current and Fixed Deposits accepted.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS opened in local currency and in Sterling. Interest allowed at rates which may be obtained on application.

TRAVELLERS' LETTERS OF CREDIT and TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES issued.

PASSENGERS' LETTERS OF CREDIT for use only on board P. & O. and Cunard Line steamers to all ports of Call.

Home-Line accounts opened in all ports of Call.

British Income Tax Received.

Executaries and Trusteeships undertaken.

W. J. WADDINGTON, Manager.

Hongkong, 22nd June, 1935.

THE CHARTERED BANK OF INDIA, AUSTRALIA & CHINA.

Authorized Capital ..... £50,000,000
Paid-up Capital ..... £1,000,000
Reserve Liability of Proprietors ..... £,000,000
Reserve Fund ..... £,000,000

AGENCIES AND BRANCHES:

ALOR STAR ILIOLO BAGON SEMARANG
AMIRISTAIR IPOI KARACHI SEMERUH
BANGKOK KLAENG SHANGHAI
BATAVIA KOREA SHANGHAI
BOMBAY KUCHING TAIPEH
CALCUTTA LUMPUH SOUTHERN CAPODISTRIOS MADRAS SOUTHERN COLOMBO MANILA TONKIN
DEWAH NEW YORK TSINGTAO
HAMBURG PEKING YOKOHAMA
HANOI PENANG ZAMBOANGA

HEAD OFFICE—HONGKONG.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

S. H. Dowell, Esq., Chairman.

C. G. Kinnaird, Esq., Deputy Chairman.

Hon. Mr. W. H. Bell-Horn, M.P.; J. J. Paterson

A. H. Conlon, Esq.; T. H. Pearce, Esq.

M. T. Johnson, Esq.; J. A. Plummer, Esq.

G. Miskin, Esq.; A. L. Shields, Esq.

V. M. Grayburn, Esq., Chief Manager.

BRANCHES:

LONDON LYONS
BANGKOK MALACCA
BATAVIA MANILA
DOMINIA MUAR (JOHORE)
CALCUTTA MUKDEN
CANTON NEW YORK
CHEFOO PEKING
COLOMBO PENANG
DAIREN RANGOON
FOOCHOW SAIGON
HAMBURG SAN FRANCISCO
HANOI SHANGHAI
HARDING SINGAPORE
HOKKEW SUNGEI-PATANI
ILIOLO TIENSIN
JOHORE TOKYO
KOWLOON TSINGTAO
KOBE YOKOHAMA
KUALA LUMPUR

Current Accounts opened in Local Currency and Fixed Deposits received for one year or shorter periods in Local and Sterling on terms which will be quoted on application.

Hongkong, 2nd October, 1935.

THE BANK OF EAST ASIA LIMITED.

Authorized Capital ..... $10,000,000.00
Paid-up Capital ..... 6,000,000.00

Reserve and Undivided Profits ..... 2,400,000.00

HEAD OFFICE—HONGKONG.

10, Des Voeux Road Central.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Sir Shouson Chow, Chairman.

Li Koon Ching, Esq.; Li Lan San, Esq.

K. K. Kwok, Esq.; Wong Chi Sin, Esq.

Wong Yiu To, Esq.; Wan Ying Po, Esq.

Chan Ching Shuk, Esq.

Kan Tong Po, Esq., Chief Manager.

Li Tai Tong, Esq., Manager.

BRANCHES AND AGENTS:

Amoy, Nanking, Shanghai, Singapore
Bukit Mertajam, Penang, Kuala Lumpur
Calcutta, Madras, Colombo, Ceylon
Canton, Foochow, Ningpo, Tsinan, Tsinling
Hainan, Hangchow, Hangchow, Ningpo
Honolulu, Saigon, Bangkok, Kuala Lumpur
London, Manila, Singapore, Tokyo
Manila, Saigon, Bangkok, Kuala Lumpur
Macao, New York, San Francisco
Makassar, Nagasaki, Yokohama
Nanking, Ningpo, Tsinan, Tsinling
Hamburg, Osaka, Tokyo
Hankow, Quinsigamond, Tsinan
Harbin, Paris, Tokyo
Honolulu, Peiping, Yingkow
Hongkong, Rangoon

Brief description of Banking and Exchange business transacted. Loans created on approved requests.

Current Accounts opened in Local Currency and Fixed Deposits received for one year or shorter periods in Local and Sterling on terms which will be quoted on application.

Sale Deposits, Boxes to Let.

JAN TONG PO, Esq., Chief Manager.

Hongkong, 25th February, 1935.

THE YOKOHAMA SPECIE BANK, LIMITED.

Capital (fully paid-up) ..... £100,000,000
Reserve Fund ..... £22,450,000

HEAD OFFICE—YOKOHAMA.

Branches and Agencies at:

Alexandria, Karschi, Rio de Janeiro

Batavia, Kuching, Macassar, Manila, New York

Berlin, London, Paris, Saigon, Seattle

Bombay, Madras, Semarang, Singapore

Calcutta, Los Angeles, Shanghai

Colombo, Manila, Singapore

Dairen (Dalian) (Moss)

Fuzhou (Fukien) (Moss)

Gibson, Nagasaki, Saigon, Sydney

Hamburg, New York, Tsinan

Hankow, Osaka, Tsinling

Harbin, Paris, Tokyo

Honolulu, Peiping, Yingkow

Hongkong, Rangoon

Interest allowed on Current Accounts.

Deposits received for fixed period at rates to be obtained on application.

G. KISHINAMI, Manager.

Hongkong, 12th September, 1935.

CONSIGNEES' NOTICES.

N. Y. K. LINE.
(Nippon Yusen Kaisha.)

From EUROPE and STRAITS.

The Steamship,

"HAKOZAKI MARU"

having arrived from the above ports, Consignees of Cargo are hereby informed that their Goods are being landed and placed at their risk into the hazardous and/or extra hazardous Godowns of the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf & Godown Co. Ltd., whence delivery may be obtained from the wharves delivery may be obtained.

No claims will be admitted after the Goods have left the Godowns, and all Goods remaining undelivered after the 12th October, 1935, will be subject to rent.

All claims against the steamer must be presented to the Undersigned on or before the 26th October, 1935, or they will not be recognized.

To comply with the General Bonded Warehouse Regulations, consignees must have a Revenue Officer in attendance when damaged dutiable goods are examined.

All broken, chafed, and damaged Goods are to be left in the Godowns, where they will be examined on the 11th October, 1935, at 10 a.m. by Messrs. Goddard and Douglas.

No Fire Insurance has been effected.

Bills of Lading will be countersigned by:

GIBB, LIVINGSTON & CO., LTD.

Agents.

Hongkong, 4th October, 1935.

SERVICES CONTRACTUELS DES MESSAGERIES MARITIMES.

The Steamship,

"MARECHAL JOFFRE"

Bringing Cargo from Marseilles &c.

Consignees are hereby informed that their goods with the exception of Opium, Treasure and Valuables are being landed and stored into the Godowns of the Hongkong Kowloon Wharf & Godown Co. Ltd., Kowloon, whence delivery may be obtained immediately after landing.

All claims must be sent in to me on or before the 14th October, 1935, or they will not be recognized.

Damaged Packages will be examined by the Company's Surveyor Messrs. Goddard & Douglas in the presence of the Consignees at 10.00 a.m. on 11th October, 1935.

Consignees must have a Revenue Officer in attendance when any dutiable goods are examined by the Company's Surveyors.

No fire insurance will be effected by us in any case whatever.

R. OHL, Agent.

Hongkong, 6th October, 1935.

CONSIGNEES' NOTICES.

FUNDS NEEDED FOR THE LOCAL SOCIETY

We may be suffering from the slump, but we have to keep up our traditions.

And one of our oldest traditions is the habit of being kind to animals. The local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is going to have a Flag day next Saturday, instead of the office-to-office collection made in previous years.

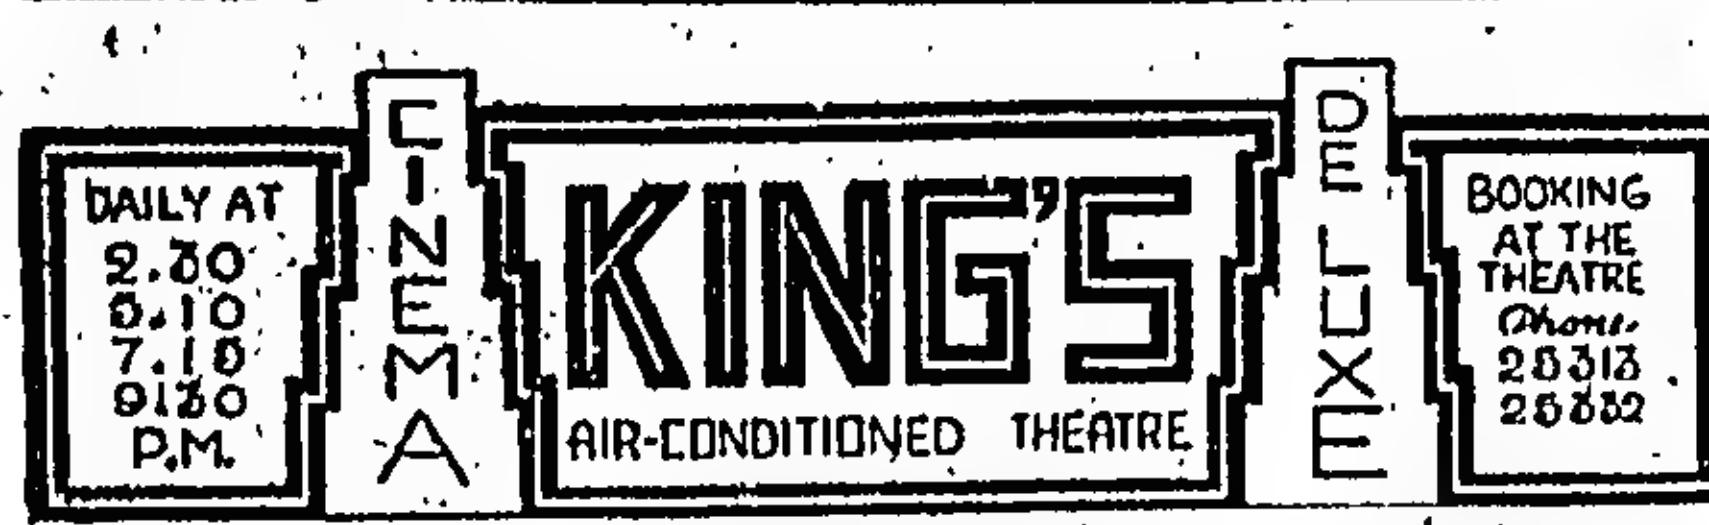

We shall be most grateful if the generous firms who have given subscriptions in the past will continue to do so, and will kindly send them to the Treasurer by post. We are confident that everybody will buy a flag on Saturday.

—Contributed.

S.P.C.A. FLAG DAY

SELFRIDGES

KING'S AIR-COOLED THEATRE

TODAY ONLY

Their love was the flaming crucible that set ablaze a city's mad mob fury!

The Devil from
The most astounding drama the screen has ever known!

With VICTOR McLAGLEN
HEATHER ANGEL
PRESTON FOSTER
MARGOT GRAHAME

His terror and its glory will hold you in chains of steel!

TO-MORROW "SHE" with Helen Gahagan RKO RADIO Picture

SHOWING TO-DAY QUEEN'S THEATRE At 2.30, 5.10, 7.20 & 9.30.

THE BREATH-TAKING STORY OF THE MOST ROMANTIC EPOCH IN MAN'S HISTORY!

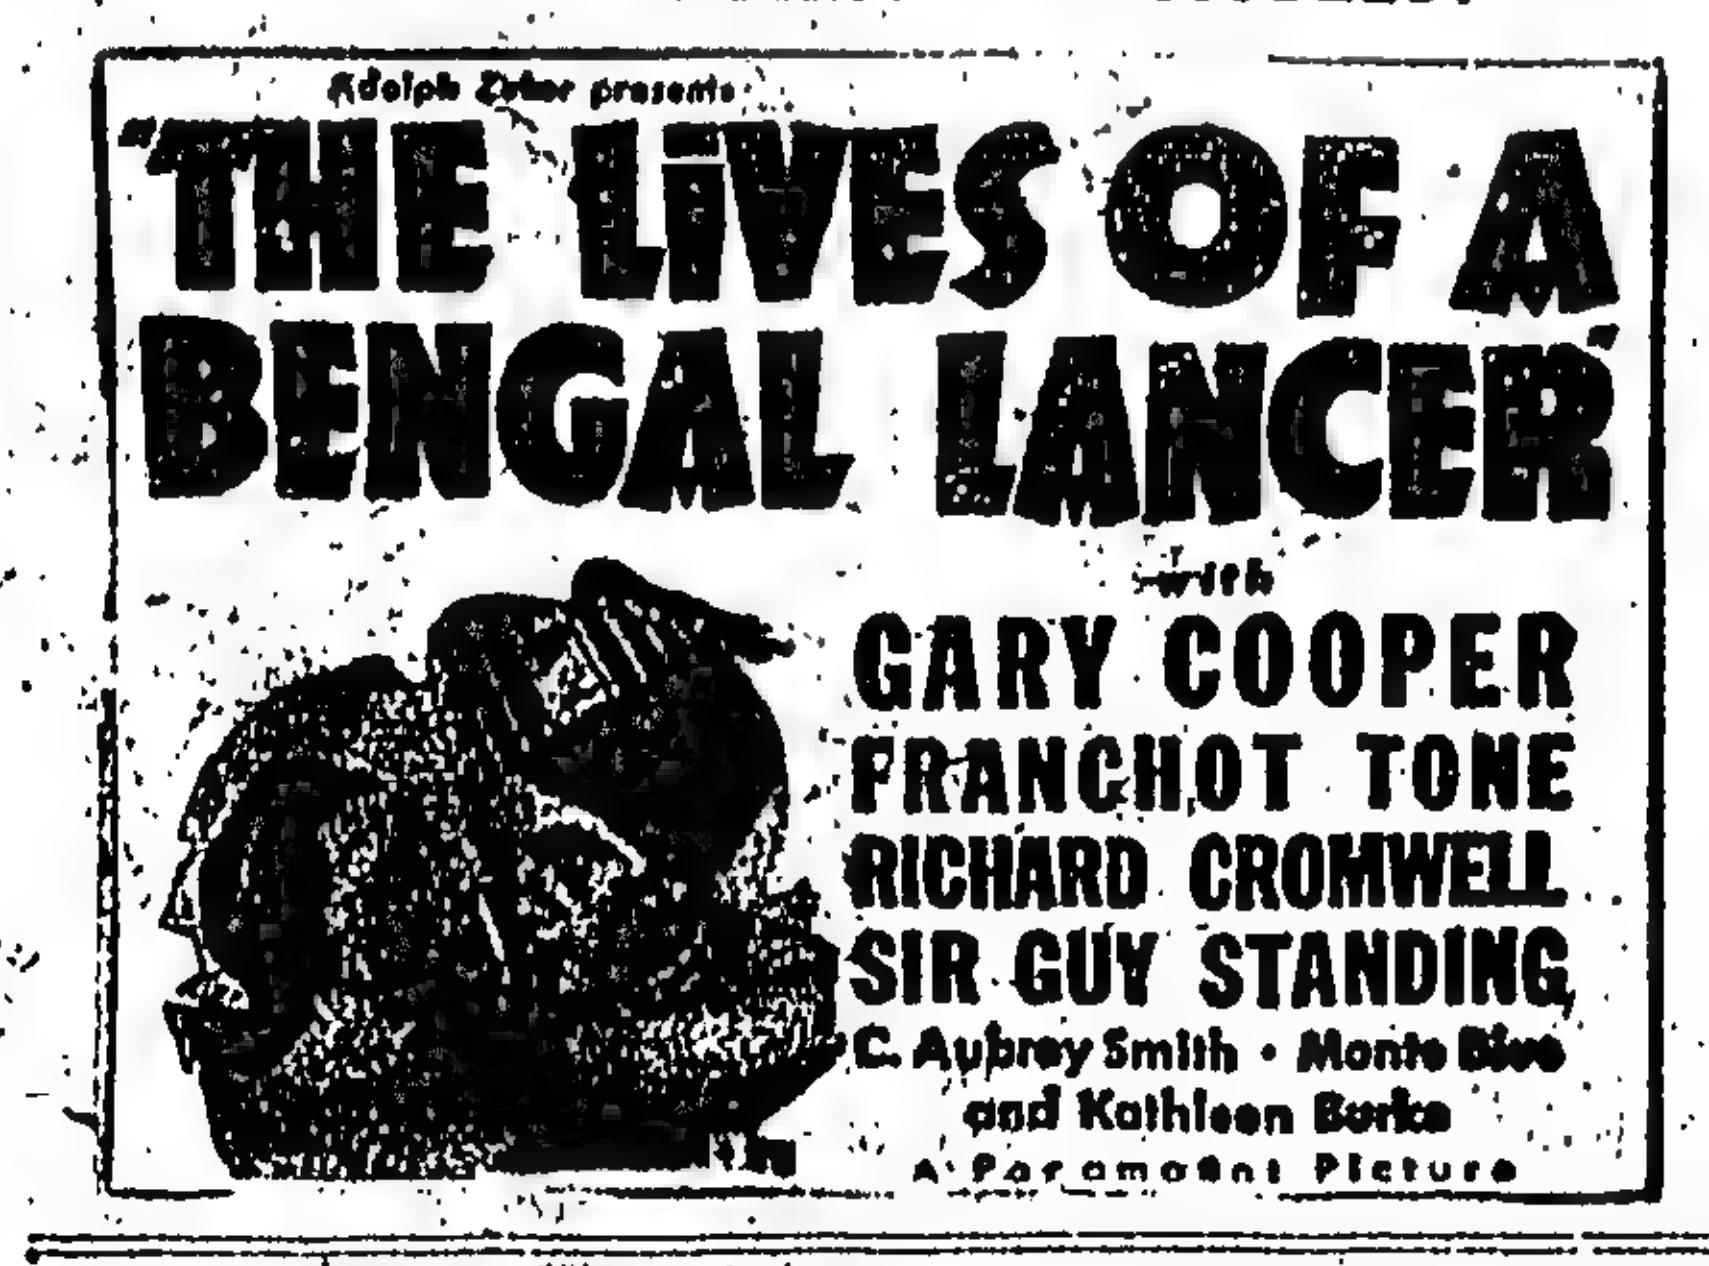

SEE:
Marked with the true Sign of Greatness!
All the pomp and pulsating life of the Middle Ages!

LEO LILL DE MILLE'S GIANTS OF THE MIDDLE AGES
LORETTA YOUNG
HENRY WILCOXON
IAN KEITH-KATHERINE DE MILLE

A Paramount Super Production

4 SHOWS DAILY 8.30-9.30 10.30-11.30
ORIENTAL THEATRE TAKING TRAIN OR HARRY VALLEY BUS FLAMING ROAD WANCHAI TEL. 28478

2 MORE DAYS TO-DAY & TO-MORROW
POSITIVELY
THE MOST LAVISH AND THRILLING OF ALL SCREEN SPECTACLES!

PRICES MATINÉE 30cts., EVENINGS 20cts., 30cts., 50cts., 70cts.

The MING YUEN STUDIO has removed to the 3rd Floor of No. 6 Queen's Road Central.

JUST OPPOSITE the Dairy Farm's Soda Fountain.

At the French watering places have had a most successful season, tourists assisting in many artistic manifestations arranged on the water. Our picture shows a view from a Tahitian feast which took recently place at Aix-le-Bains.

ASSEMBLY INDICTS ITALY

BARON ALOISI'S DEFENCE OF ITALY

Geneva, Oct. 10.—"One cannot suppress war but one can find something to replace it," declared Baron Aloisi in a speech at the re-opening of the Assembly at 10.45 a.m.

He continued that "to proclaim by words the determination to eliminate conflicts is only verbiage. True politics is to remove the cause." Italy is convinced that she is interpreting the true spirit of the League and is not only fighting her own battles but also that of the League. Before the Assembly, Italy must make known its great proletarian voice, which demands justice.

"In the case of the Sino-Japanese dispute the League allowed procedure to drag on for seventeen months. In the case of the Gran Chaco dispute it was two years."

Baron Aloisi referred to Italy's collaboration with the League for 15 years and she assumed obligations for peace at Locarno, which contributed to the rehabilitation of numerous countries, overwhelmed as a consequence of the Great War. She has contributed to the work of disarmament and helped to solve the Saar problem.

Baron Aloisi proceeded to indict Ethiopia for having failed in her obligations to Italy and to the Covenant. He said that she did not fulfil the conditions of Article I of the Covenant.

Baron Aloisi contrasted the fact that sanctions were not invoked in the cases of China and Japan, and of Bolivia and Paraguay. He said that Italian opinion found it difficult to understand why different was accorded to the Covenant and international obligations. Italy was entitled to exercise her right of self protection, whereas Ethiopia had been proved not entitled to remain inside the League.

M. Laval briefly said that France would face her obligations. He said, "We cannot infringe the Covenant nor allow it to become weakened, but we assume at the same time that we apply its law to search for a conciliatory solution."

Mr. Eden said that prompt action must be taken in which British Government would take full part. He said, "We contemplate the duty confronting us with the deepest regret."

Mr. Motta of Switzerland said that his country would not fall in its support of other countries but he made a reservation against the use of military sanctions.—Reuters.

Unity of Action

Though the report was formally adopted immediately after Baron Aloisi had spoken, a general discussion followed lead by M. Laval and Mr. Eden.

M. Potemkin declared that the Soviet delegation again confirmed its intention to take its full responsibility under the Covenant.

Since a member of the League had had recourse to war, contrary to the provisions of Article XII of the Covenant, the situation must be dealt with by unity of action.

A piquant touch was given to the gravity of the situation when the representative of Haiti, General Nenours, sprang a surprise by exercising his right to speak, and declared that the Black Republic of Haiti was prepared to take its full share of responsibility.

The final speaker was Senator Gomez of Mexico, who said that his country would not shrink from its obligations. The Assembly adjourned till 4.30 p.m. when the discussion will be resumed and it is reported that Albania may make certain reservations.—Reuters.

Report Approved

Geneva, Oct. 10.—After-Baron Aloisi had addressed the Assembly the President, Dr. Benes, announced that no further delegates wished to speak. Therefore the report condemning Italy stood approved by the Assembly with Austria and Hungary as only dissentient.—Reuters.

Final Decision

Geneva, Oct. 10.—There was a silent and dramatic scene in the Assembly when the League finally condemned Italy as a violator of the Covenant.

After Baron Aloisi had finished his defence of Italy the President, M. Benes, rose and said: "If no other delegate desires to speak I shall interpret the silence as concurrence with the decision already taken by the Council."

A few seconds' silence followed and then the President gave fell.

Judgment had been passed. The Assembly then proceeded to a general debate in which M. Laval and Mr. Eden and others spoke, and the discussion will be continued this afternoon.—Reuters.

The Scene Described

Geneva, Oct. 10.—Fifty-two nations, in fact the whole of the League with the exception of Italy, Austria and Hungary condemned Italy for violation of the Covenant, thereby automatically binding themselves to the imposing of penalties.

The historical meeting was held in the Hall of the Geneva Canton Council, which is canopied with grey cloth, giving the incongruous effect of a circus tent.

Baron Aloisi's speech was received in silence, no one applauding at its conclusion.

M. Benes, contrary to custom frustrated Baron Aloisi's attempt to file a formal reservation against the procedure.

Only the two countries mentioned supported and none abstained from voting.—United Press.

Dissentients Blamed

London, Oct. 10.—A protest was raised by Baron Aloisi against the method of voting which was unanimously defeated.

Other speeches were then delivered, Monsieur Laval of France, said that France would face her obligations. He added, "The Covenant is our international law. We can neither set it aside nor let it be weakened. At this moment when each must take his responsibility it is with emotion as you know that I assume my duty. My country will observe the Covenant. Friendship also dictates to me another duty. It is not denying our faith in the authority of the highest international institution and to pursue at the same time as the application of this law, our search for a solution by conciliation. The French Government will attack itself passionately to this work of peace, for which I am sure no assistance will be lacking in this Assembly."

Mr. Eden's Reply

London, Oct. 10.—The League of Nations Assembly met this morning to hear a full statement of Italy's case by Baron Aloisi. At last night's Plenary Session representative of all members except Austria and Hungary gave their votes to a decision of the Council that the Italian Government had violated Article XII of the Covenant, Baron Aloisi.

In the course of his speech said that Italy needed expansion; she demanded justice. Non-recognition by the League of the reasons given by Italy for her action had wounded the conscience of the entire Italian people and at the same time rendered Ethiopia more audacious and had accentuated her aggressive attitude. He condemned the procedure adopted by the League and declared that neither the Council nor any of its Committees had taken the Italian Memorandum into account.

He declared that the condition of Ethiopia constituted a menace to peace in East Africa, especially for the boundary of the adjoining States and above all for Italy.

Ethiopia had failed to carry out her obligations not only to Italy but to the League and he added that if its condition had been examined it would have been apparent that the League must have withdrawn the confidence she gave to Ethiopia in 1923 by virtue of admission of that country to the League.

Baron Aloisi contended that Ethiopia was not a united country, but was composed of two regions, which both geographically and politically were distinctly different. He asked the Assembly whether article XXII, which deals with the principle of mandates and control of colonies and territories had not been drafted expressly for countries like Ethiopia.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

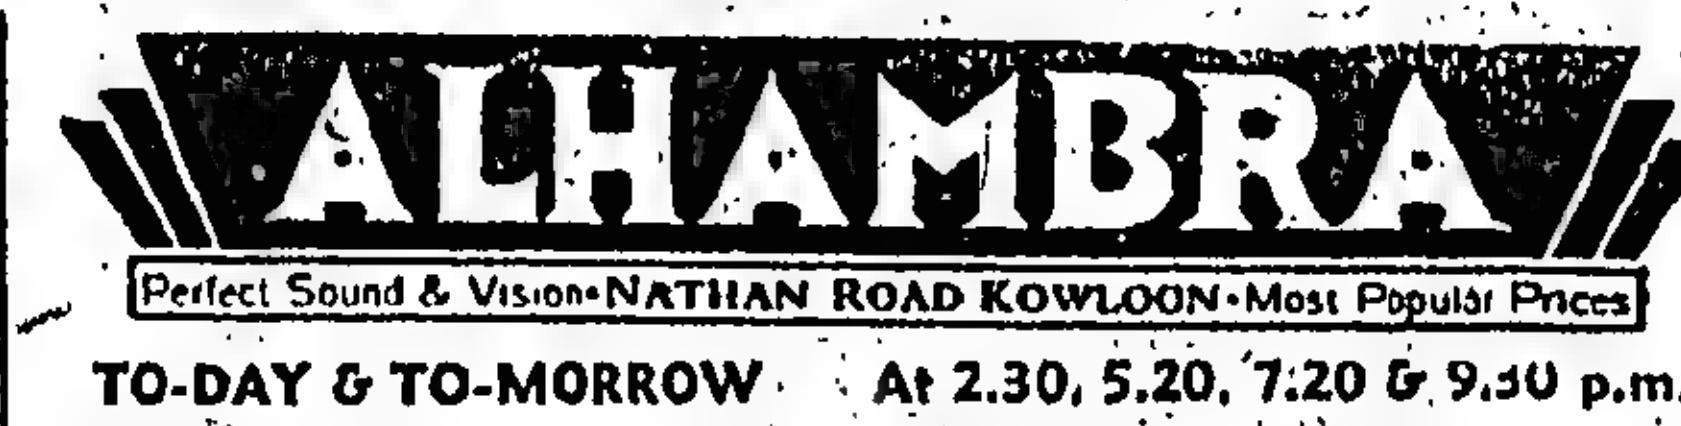

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

Referring to allusions made to the Briand-Kellogg Pact, he said that the Pact could not be applied to colonisation. Italy was convinced that it was right to interpret the real spirit of the League and in this case she waged not only her own fight but also that of the League because she wanted to exalt the spirit of the League, which was synonymous with life to the detriment of the letter of the League, which was synonymous with death. Italy took pride in pointing out to the League, how to make its power living and effective. That part of the League's organisation and machinery, which was concerned with evolution, must be harmonised with that part concerned with progress in order to permit it to keep in step with the march of events and thus to be ready to solve the new problems which might arise and which otherwise might become the surest sources of conflict. No country was more fitted than Italy to express and conform to this new principle.

TO-DAY & TO-MORROW At 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 & 9.30 p.m.

VALHAMBRA Perfect Sound & Vision NATHAN ROAD KOWLOON Most Popular Picture

TO-DAY & TO-MORROW At 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 & 9.30 p.m.

VALHAMBRA Perfect Sound & Vision NATHAN ROAD KOWLOON Most Popular Picture

CHEVROLET
MASTER DELUXE
SALOON
With built-in trunk
26 H.P.—19 miles per gallon
TURRET TOP—KNEE ACTION
DELIVERED PRICES
LONDON £325 VANCOUVER £252
HONGKONG
£236

FAR EAST MOTORS
CHEVROLET 26 Nathan Road, Kowloon.
Telephone 59101.

Dollar T.T.: Hongkong Telegraph
Bank of China, Chas. Horatio West, Ltd.
Hongkong Waterfront
Low Water: 14.20.

The Hongkong Telegraph

FINAL EDITION

Literary Supreme Court

SINGLE COPY 10 CENTS
$5.00 PER ANNUM

Don't experiment—continue to ride on
DUNLOP
the Performance
tyre

GUERILLAS HARASS ITALIAN TROOPS

HARD FIGHTING IN OGADEN

ITALIANS PREPARE FRESH ADVANCE

EXPECTED TO ATTACK TOWARDS MAKALE

(SPECIAL TO "TELEGRAPH")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, Received, Oct. 11, 8 a.m.)

[WITH THE ETHIOPIAN ARMY]

AT THE FRONT, Oct. 10.

Reports reaching the headquarters from the Northern Ethiopian Army advance posts state that guerrilla attacks by the black troops are inflicting heavy casualties upon the Italian outposts. During the past two nights the Italians have been harassed constantly.

Meanwhile, in Ogaden the fighting continues unabated. There have been hand-to-hand skirmishes.

A Red Cross unit has opened a hospital at Jijiga and is caring for the victims of gas attacks and shell-shock.

Meanwhile, brigades of Mohammedans, armed with new Mauser rifles, have marched to the front to join the Christian Ethiopians. In marked contrast to the half-naked Christians, the Moslems are clad in flowing white garments and lace skull caps.

The guerillas are attempting to prevent the Italians from possessing the "water holes" in accordance with headquarters' orders. The most effective way to defend the plateau is to drive the Italians mad with thirst, they claim.

TERROR IN HARRAR

Harrar was swept by thunder-storm to-night. The natives believing it was an air raid were in a panic. Two died of fright. The troops scattered into the open country. The officers rounded up their scattered troops only with

ETHIOPIAN LEGATION FOR JAPAN

MAY ACT FOR ITALY TEMPORARILY

REQUEST NOT YET MADE

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1934. Received, October 11, 8.10 a.m.)

Tokyo, Oct. 11.

Mr. Yamamu Makuyama, the present chargé d'affaires at Rome, is leaving on a tour of investigation of Ethiopia, preparatory to opening a Legation at Addis Ababa in early January.

He will be accompanied by Mr. Tokitaro Kuroki, who is the Consul at Alexandria, and who has previously visited Ethiopia on three occasions, to study trade conditions.

They will prepare for the opening of a Legation, and thereafter Mr. Makuyama will probably remain as chargé d'affaires or Consul, a point which is not yet decided.

A spokesman of the Government to-day declared that the Italo-Ethiopian conflict had not hastened the preparations for the establishment of a Legation at Addis Ababa, which had been planned before the controversy became serious. He said Mr. Makuyama was at present in poor health and therefore the date of his departure was uncertain, but it is hoped it will be soon.

TO REPRESENT ITALY?

Asked whether the Japanese Legation might represent the Italian interests during the cessation of diplomatic relations, he replied that was possible, but it would depend upon whether Italy makes such a request.

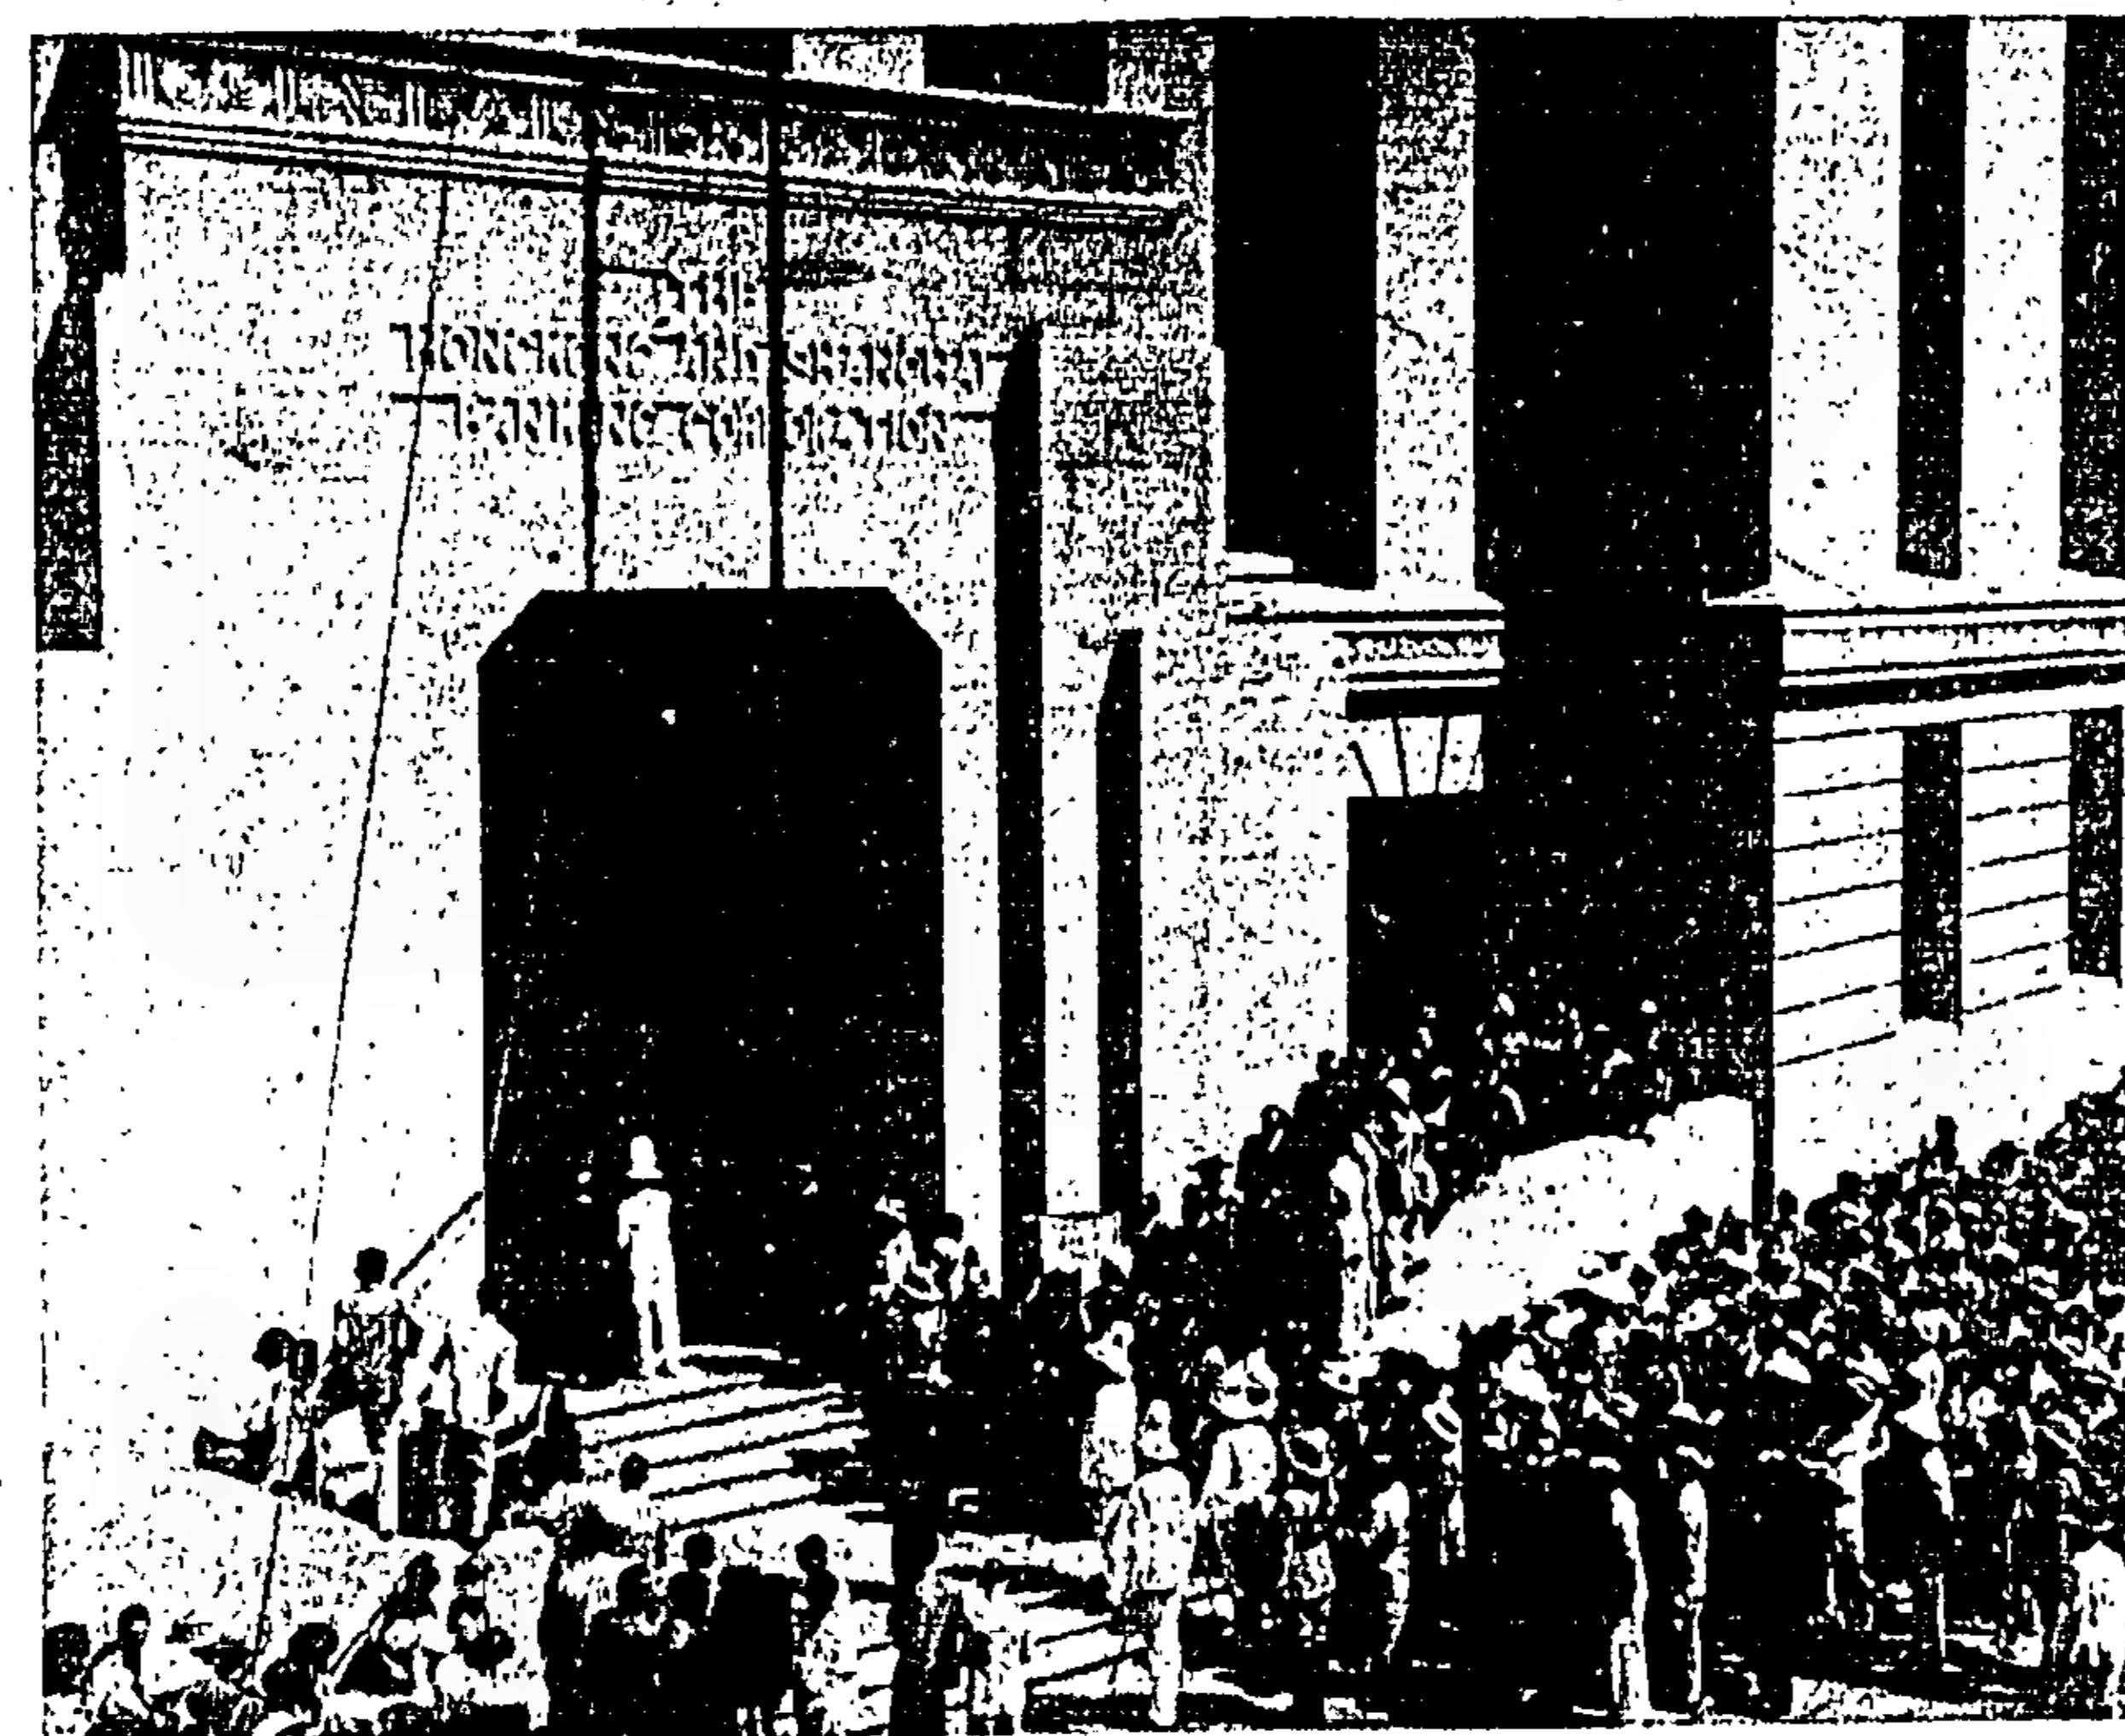

Meanwhile, the Foreign Office has not been informed whether Ethiopia plans to open a Legation in Tokyo simultaneously.

Two strong Ethiopian columns which were earlier reported to be approaching the Italian lines now appear to have withdrawn. —United Press.

GOING TO FRONT

London, Oct. 10. The Daily Mail correspondent at Addis Ababa learns that the Emperor Menen may accompany Emperor Selassie to the Harrar front.

Meanwhile the unmarried (Continued on Page 12.)

Scene at the opening of the new Head Office of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank yesterday. H.E. is seen unlocking the main doors. (Photo: A. Fong.)

STOCK MARKET DANGERS

WARNING ISSUED BY CHARLES GAY

INFLATION IN WALL STREET

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1934. Received, October 11, 8.10 a.m.)

New York, Oct. 10.

Addressing a conference of the American Management Association, Mr. Charles Gay, President of the New York Stock Exchange, warned against the danger of "runaway stock market inflation" and another crash such as that of 1929, as a result of the existing abnormal money market, with a large volume in excess of reserves.

Mr. Gay said only a sound Federal Reserve policy and a sound Treasury policy could control the situation. He added that the Stock Exchange was deeply concerned with the question of such inflation, and at the same time emphasised he was not predicting that stock prices would become inflated, but one must recognise that this might occur.

Commenting on Mr. Gay's remarks, Mr. Landis, Chairman of the S.E.C., at to-day's Press conference, declared that the S.E.C. was fully cognisant of the boom potentialities inherent in the present money, credit situation, but expressed doubt over the S.E.C.'s ability to check an inflationary boom.

Mr. Landis declared that many influences making for a boom have not any relationship with the S.E.C. but deal mainly with monetary policies. —Reuters Special.

DANGEROUS POSITION

New York, Oct. 10.

The President of the New York Stock Exchange, Mr. Charles Gay, in a speech to the American Management Association to-day, said that low money rates combined with the greatest surplus of reserves in the history of the United States form the basis of a greater stock market inflation than that in 1929.

He said, "Given sufficient confidence or even recklessness born of boredom over the idleness of money, the situation could develop and threaten the gravest consequences through the upward flight

(Continued on Page 12.)

HUGE NEW PACIFIC AIRLINER

U.S. TESTING GIANT MACHINE

WILL CARRY 48 PASSENGERS

(Special to "Telegraph")

Aboard the China Clipper, Oct. 10.

We are 5,000 feet above Washington, aboard the biggest aeroplane ever built in the United States, and which is destined ultimately for trans-Pacific trade route, over which she will make the first passenger carrying flight.

Practically all Canton's crack units equipped with the most up-to-date weapons, including a large number of tanks and armoured cars, participated.

Meanwhile, the national holiday was being observed by civilians with an unprecedentedly elaborate programme, including a most magnificent and picturesque dragon procession, and other exhibitions, costing $250,000.

The whole city will be en fete for three days, the Government having declared a general holiday for all shops and Government offices participating in the celebrations.

The population has been increased by at least 10,000 in the last few days, owing to the influx from Hongkong and Macao, and every district of the province. The streets are thronged and traffic is blocked continually in many places.

The object of these celebrations on a large scale is to attract tourists and stimulate business, and thus restore prosperity. —Reuters.

ROUND-WORLD AIR RACE

Three Million Francs
For First Prize

Paris, Oct. 10.

The Aero Club of France has announced that plans are in hand for a round-the-world aeroplane race in 1937.

The first prize will be 3,000,000 francs and the second 1,500,000.

The route would be roughly that by which the late Wiley Post travelled around the globe. —United Press.

Three Million Francs For First Prize

Paris, Oct. 10.

The Aero Club of France has announced that plans are in hand for a round-the-world aeroplane race in 1937.

The first prize will be 3,000,000 francs and the second 1,500,000.

The route would be roughly that by which the late Wiley Post travelled around the globe. —United Press.

Three Million Francs For First Prize

Paris, Oct. 10.

The Aero Club of France has announced that plans are in hand for a round-the-world aeroplane race in 1937.

The first prize will be 3,000,000 francs and the second 1,500,000.

The route would be roughly that by which the late Wiley Post travelled around the globe. —United Press.

CANTON'S SHOW OF STRENGTH

CHAN CHAI-TONG REVIEWS FORCES

ELABORATE CEREMONY

Canton, Oct. 11.

With over fifty aeroplanes droning in formation overhead, General Chan Chai-tong, the "strong man of Canton" yesterday reviewed his land, sea and air forces in one of the most impressive parades ever held here.

Practically all Canton's crack units equipped with the most up-to-date weapons, including a large number of tanks and armoured cars, participated.

Meanwhile, the national holiday was being observed by civilians with an unprecedentedly elaborate programme, including a most magnificent and picturesque dragon procession, and other exhibitions, costing $250,000.

The whole city will be en fete for three days, the Government having declared a general holiday for all shops and Government offices participating in the celebrations.

The population has been increased by at least 10,000 in the last few days, owing to the influx from Hongkong and Macao, and every district of the province. The streets are thronged and traffic is blocked continually in many places.

The object of these celebrations on a large scale is to attract tourists and stimulate business, and thus restore prosperity. —Reuters.

FRENCH COLONY IS QUIET

TROOPS GUARDING DIREDAWA

Paris, Oct. 10.

The Minister of Colonies, in a report on the situation in French Somaliland, says everything is quiet. A Franco-Ethiopian detachment has been sent to Dire-dawa, where the foreign colony is mostly French, and where the Djibouti-Addis Ababa railway repair shop is also situated.

It is denied that the Emperor of Ethiopia has exercised his right to requisition the railway for the use of troops in time of war. —Reuters.

MAY LIFT ARMS EMBARGO

LEAGUE COMMITTEE SETS TO WORK

ITALY FEELS BRITAIN PRESSING SANCTIONS

It is understood that the first work of the League's Co-ordinating Committee, dealing with the application of penalties against Italy and the Italo-Ethiopian crisis generally, will be to consider lifting the arms embargo at present in force against Ethiopia.

There is virtual unanimity in the League with respect to sanctions, and only Austria and Hungary failed to register an affirmative vote for the Co-ordinating Committee's institution.

Italy feels that the League is rushing sanctions against her, and that Great Britain is responsible for the speed at which the Geneva machinery has been working. The Italian resentment against Britain is consequently increasing.

ROYALIST COUP IN GREECE

KING WAITING FOR PLEBISCITE

MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED

Geneva, Oct. 10.

Having condemned the Italian action in Ethiopia, the League of Nations Assembly adjourned until noon to-morrow. It adopted a resolution constituting a Co-ordinating Committee to guide the League Council and itself in the application of penalties against Italy, in addition. Only Italy voted against the resolution. Austria and Hungary abstained.

Geneva, Oct. 10.

Italian officials here told press representative to-day that in the event of League penalties including a blockade, Italy would consider this a warlike act.

They recalled that Benito Mussolini promised to meet acts of war with war! —United Press.

Meanwhile, the Bureau of the Assembly has decided that the Co-ordinating Committee will consist of all the members of the League with the exception of Italy and Ethiopia, but including Austria and Hungary. It will appoint a sub-Committee of about twenty members to deal with the question of sanctions immediately.

The Assembly won't conclude its session when the present meeting is ended; it will only adjourn.

At the resumed meeting of the Assembly this afternoon there were some further expressions of opinion. Chile and Ecuador supported the League's decision against Italy, while Yugoslavia, speaking in the name of the Little Entente, affirmed that they scrupulously observed all their obligations under the Covenant.

Later.

The National Assembly has unanimously agreed to the following steps:

- (1) Abolition of the Republic; form of government;
- (2) Restoration of the Monarchy of 1911;
- (3) The plebiscite to be held on November 2;
- (4) General Kondylis to act as sole Regent in the meantime. —Reuters.

London, Oct. 10. It is learned from unimpeachable source that King George does not intend to return to the Throne until a national plebiscite is held in favour of his restoration. —United Press.

During the debate which preceded the Assembly vote upon the resolution establishing a Co-ordinating Committee, the Ethiopian spokesman, M. Teote Hawarli, insisted upon the need of immediate and energetic action to deal with a pitiless foe.

It said it was not a war but a massacre, owing to Italy's superior armaments. He was ready to accept any procedure upon which the League might decide, and Ethiopia was ready to conclude an honourable peace. But he must proclaim that his people would defend to the death their independence and their integrity.

Ethiopia will not yield to force, which would put a premium upon aggression, and would be in defiance of international morality.

SOME OBJECTIONS

Venezuela and Uruguay had earlier supported the League's resolution, but they indicated at the start their intention of investigating certain difficulties in

(Continued on Page 12.)

Lamp Shades

Lamps, Lamp Shades,
Slippers, Curios, Novelties
—now being offered at surprisingly low prices. We carry the largest local stocks in every type and style of silk and parchment shades.
An opportunity to beautify your home.
ADDRESS—13, Ice House Street.

B.B.C.

"AS SMART AS SMART CAN BE"

Waves, chic coiffures, beauty treatment by specialists with the best of modern equipment.
Under the personal guidance of—
HELEN from SAN FRANCISCO.

HELEN'S BEAUTY SALON

Asia Life Building
Room 306 Opp. Tyeb's Tel. 34055
Make an early appointment.

THE HONGKONG
PENINSULA HOTEL;
HONGKONG HOTEL; REPULSE BAY HOTEL;
PEAK HOTEL
& SHANGHAI
ASTOR HOUSE; PALACE HOTEL;
HOTELS LIMITED.

In association with the Grand Hotel des Wagons Lits, Peking,

RUNNYMEDE HOTEL, LTD.
PENANG

THE ISLAND'S MOST EFFICIENT SERVICE.
RUNNYMEDE HOTEL
On Sea Front.

CRAG HOTEL
Penang Hill (near summit station)
(3,400 feet above sea level).
Private Cars for Excursions Anywhere.
Meals are interchangeable, no extra cost wherever you have your breakfast, luncheon, Rooms of both hotels have private telephones and modern sanitation. At the Runnymede each room has its own public telephone.
The Runnymede Restaurant has undeniably pride of place among hotels of the East with its cuisine, and justly claims by its associations to offer the traveller such as is not to be found elsewhere.

NOTICE

COMPETITORS IN THE RECENT AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHIC COM-

PETITION ARE REQUESTED TO CALL FOR THEIR ENTRIES AT THE OFFICE OF "THE HONG-KONG TELEGRAPH".

MORNING POST BUILDING.

SPY CHIEF MEETS MAN HE HUNTED AFTER 18 YEARS

The "Sea Devil" Swaps War Yarns With Admiral Sir Reginald Hall

EIGHTEEN years ago a tall schooner was sailing the Southern Atlantic, looming up beside a merchant ship at dusk, threatening her with guns, ordering the crew into boats, sinking the ship. The crew would then be taken aboard the schooner and landed at a neutral port.

Allied merchantmen christened the ship the Sea Devil. The daring of her commander, the German Count von Luckner, was legendary.

Meanwhile, in London, a white-haired, keen-eyed man was using all the resources of the Admiralty to lay hands on the laughing raider. The man was Admiral Sir Reginald Hall, head of Naval Intelligence. Three or four times he nearly cornered the Sea Devil, but always he managed to escape.

They have met at last—the greatest of all the German raiders, eulogised in our official history, and this brilliant admiral who crippled the Germans' secret service and is referred to by them as "the one genius of the war."

They met at the admiral's lovely house in the New Forest.

"You fellows had all the fun," was one of his first remarks. "We had all the hard work."

Honest "Norwegian"

The big, boisterous German laughed. "Before I ever got through the blockade," he remarked, "a very nice young officer searched my ship and saw for himself that I was a perfectly innocent Norwegian, with nothing more German than a little dachshund on board."

"He was so satisfied with my honesty that he even wished me a merry Christmas. You are right, admiral, it was great fun."

The admiral chuckled at his wartime enemy.

"What about your papers?" asked the admiral.

"They were faked Norwegian papers, of course. Do you know, I have seen the British Imperial seal in use during the war. It was made in Germany."

Costly Slip

A smile crossed the admiral's shrewd face. He went out of the room for a moment and came back with a small piece of wood with a seal on the end.

That may interest you, he said, that is a German imperial seal—made in England! It was used, too.

"It enabled me to catch one of your most redoubtable spies—von Rintelen. I met him years afterwards, and he asked me how I had spotted him.

"I told him his passport was not in order—it was not German passport, of course. He told me that was impossible.

"It must have been all right," he said. "I made it myself."

"Then I showed him that while faking the passport he had used the seal which should be half on the passport and half on the photograph, before the gum of the photo had dried. When he stamped it he moved the photograph a fraction of an inch. That was enough to show me the passport was a fake."

"He got four years for that little slip. Hard luck, eh?"

The admiral laughed and slightly changed the subject. He took the count into the library and showed him the references to the Sea Devil in our official history. The count's big finger settled on a line.

Boy's Death Fall

"They say here that I read the burial service over a little English

ROYAL PARADE
IN IRAQ

King Ghazi of Iraq attending a military troop review which recently took place at Baghdad on the occasion of the second anniversary of his accession to the throne of Iraq.

SEVEN MILES HIGH

92 DEGREES BELOW
FREEZING POINT
MOSCOW, OCT.

PILOT VICTOR YEVSE-YEV, one of the most celebrated of Russian airmen, flew an airplane, a single-seater, into the stratosphere and reached a height of 39,384 feet, which is just over seven statute miles.

Fingers Frozen

And how cold the stratosphere may be judged from the fact that he reports noting on his instruments that the temperature was 92 degrees below freezing point.

In spite of his special gloves and clothing the fingers of his right hand were frozen.

Before this flight Yevseyev had five times flown his airplane to a height of 31,000 feet.

The world altitude record for an airplane was once held by Britain. Now it is held by Italy. In April 1934 Renato Donati reached a height of 47,340 feet—in a British-engined airplane.

Balloon Heights

Much greater heights have been reached by balloons, which have an advantage over airplanes for stratosphere exploration because they have no engines to be affected by the rarified air.

The Soviet hold the world record for balloon ascents into the stratosphere. In April last a Soviet balloon reached a height of twenty-five miles—and then burst.

That balloon was not manned, but carried an automatic radio apparatus which recorded progress. When the balloon burst the instruments floated down by parachute.

In January 1934 a Soviet balloon carrying three people reached a height of 12½ miles.

That also is a world's record.

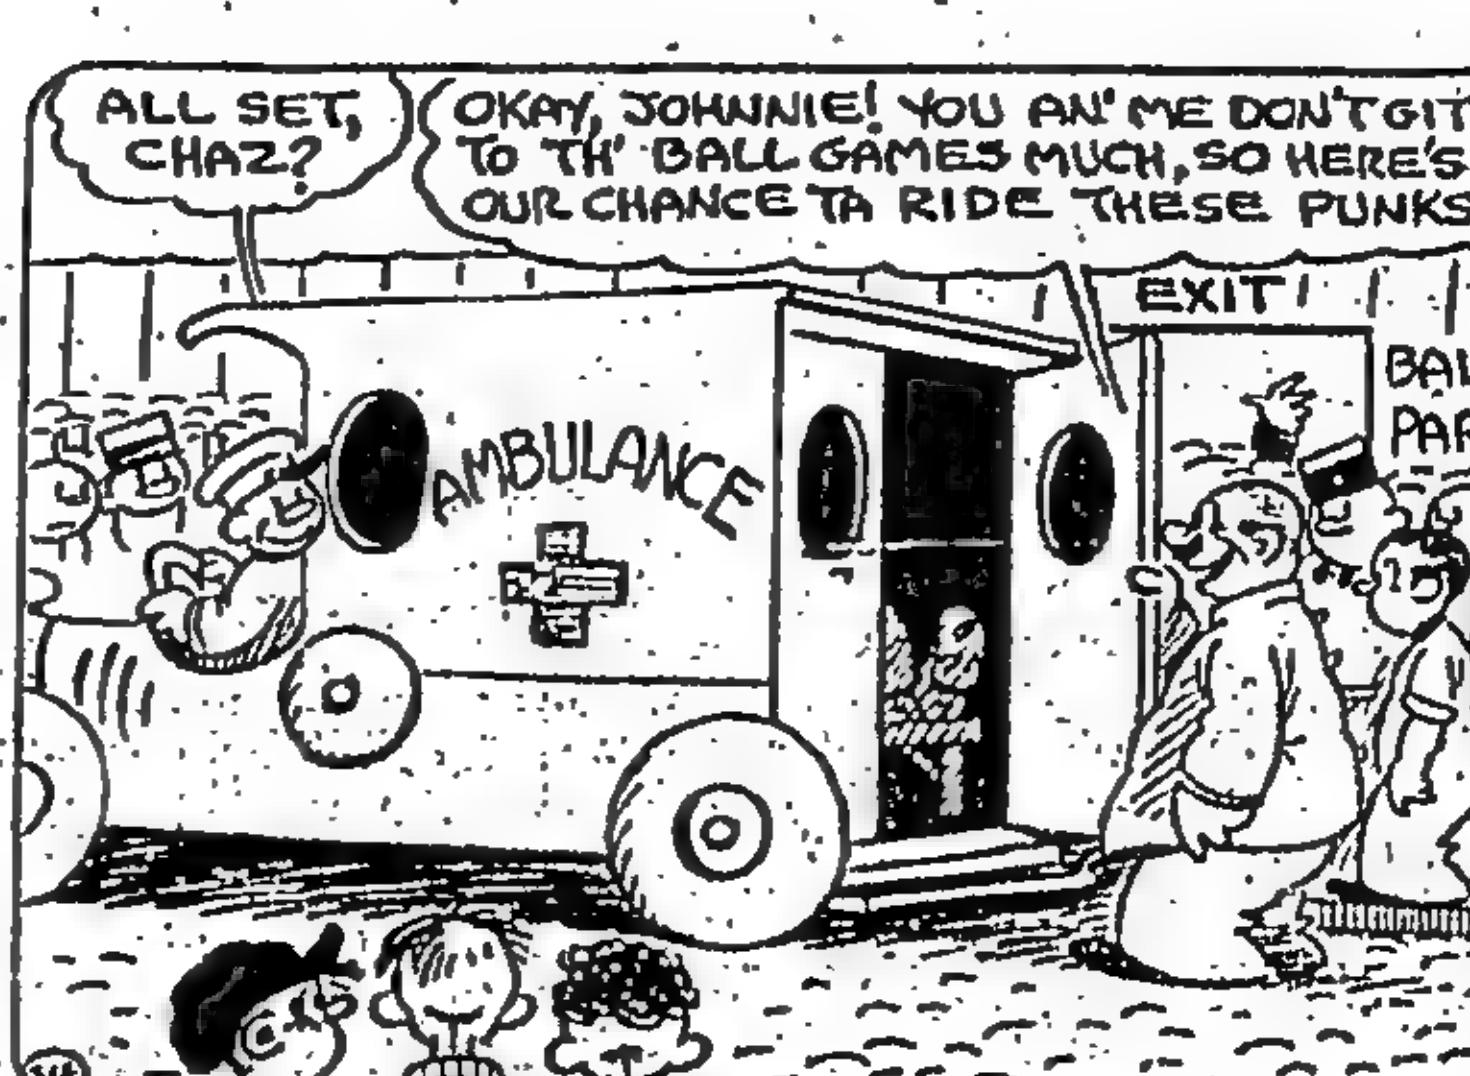

SALESMAN SAM

Teething troubles

Because SCOTT'S Emulsion contains 44% of pure cod liver oil and lime salts for bone formation, it prevents teething troubles, rickets and soft bones. Ask for genuine SCOTT'S EMULSION

Just a Pes

SOME POPULAR DECCA AND BRUNSWICK RECORDS ISSUED RECENTLY.

K761. THE RIDE OF THE VALKYRIES ("Die Walküre") The Queen's Hall Orchestra.

K768. TOCCATA AND FUGUE IN D MINOR (Bach) The Queen's Hall Orchestra.

K762. RACHMANINOFF'S PRELUDE, HUMORESKE, Op. 101, No. 7. (Dvorak) The Queen's Hall Orchestra.

K756. STATE BALL MEMORIES. Marius Winton & His Orch.

F5529. FIRE DANCE. B'WANGA. Quick Step. Ambrose & His Orch.

1922. ONE NIGHT OF LOVE. CIRIBIRIBIN. Grace Moore Soprano.

1993. SWANEE RIVER. EASY TO REMEMBER. Vocal. Bing Crosby.

1994. SOON. DOWN BY THE RIVER. Vocal. Bing Crosby.

2007. SOLITUDE. F.T. Duke Ellington & His Orch.

2013. LOKIE LOKIE LOKIE, HERE COMES COOKIE. I'LL TAKE THE SOUTH. Piano & Vocal. Cleo Brown.

F5543. HOLLYWOOD HOLIDAY. DREAM SHADOWS. Bobo Daniels, Skeets Gallagher & Ben Lyon.

1832. WHY DON'T YOU PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH. DON'T LET YOUR LOVE GO WRONG. Vocal. The Boswell Sisters.

1957. ROCK AND ROLL. IF I HAD A MILLION DOLLARS. Vocal. The Boswell Sisters.

F5548. LULLABY OF BROADWAY. THE WORDS ARE IN MY HEART. Vocal. Dick Powell.

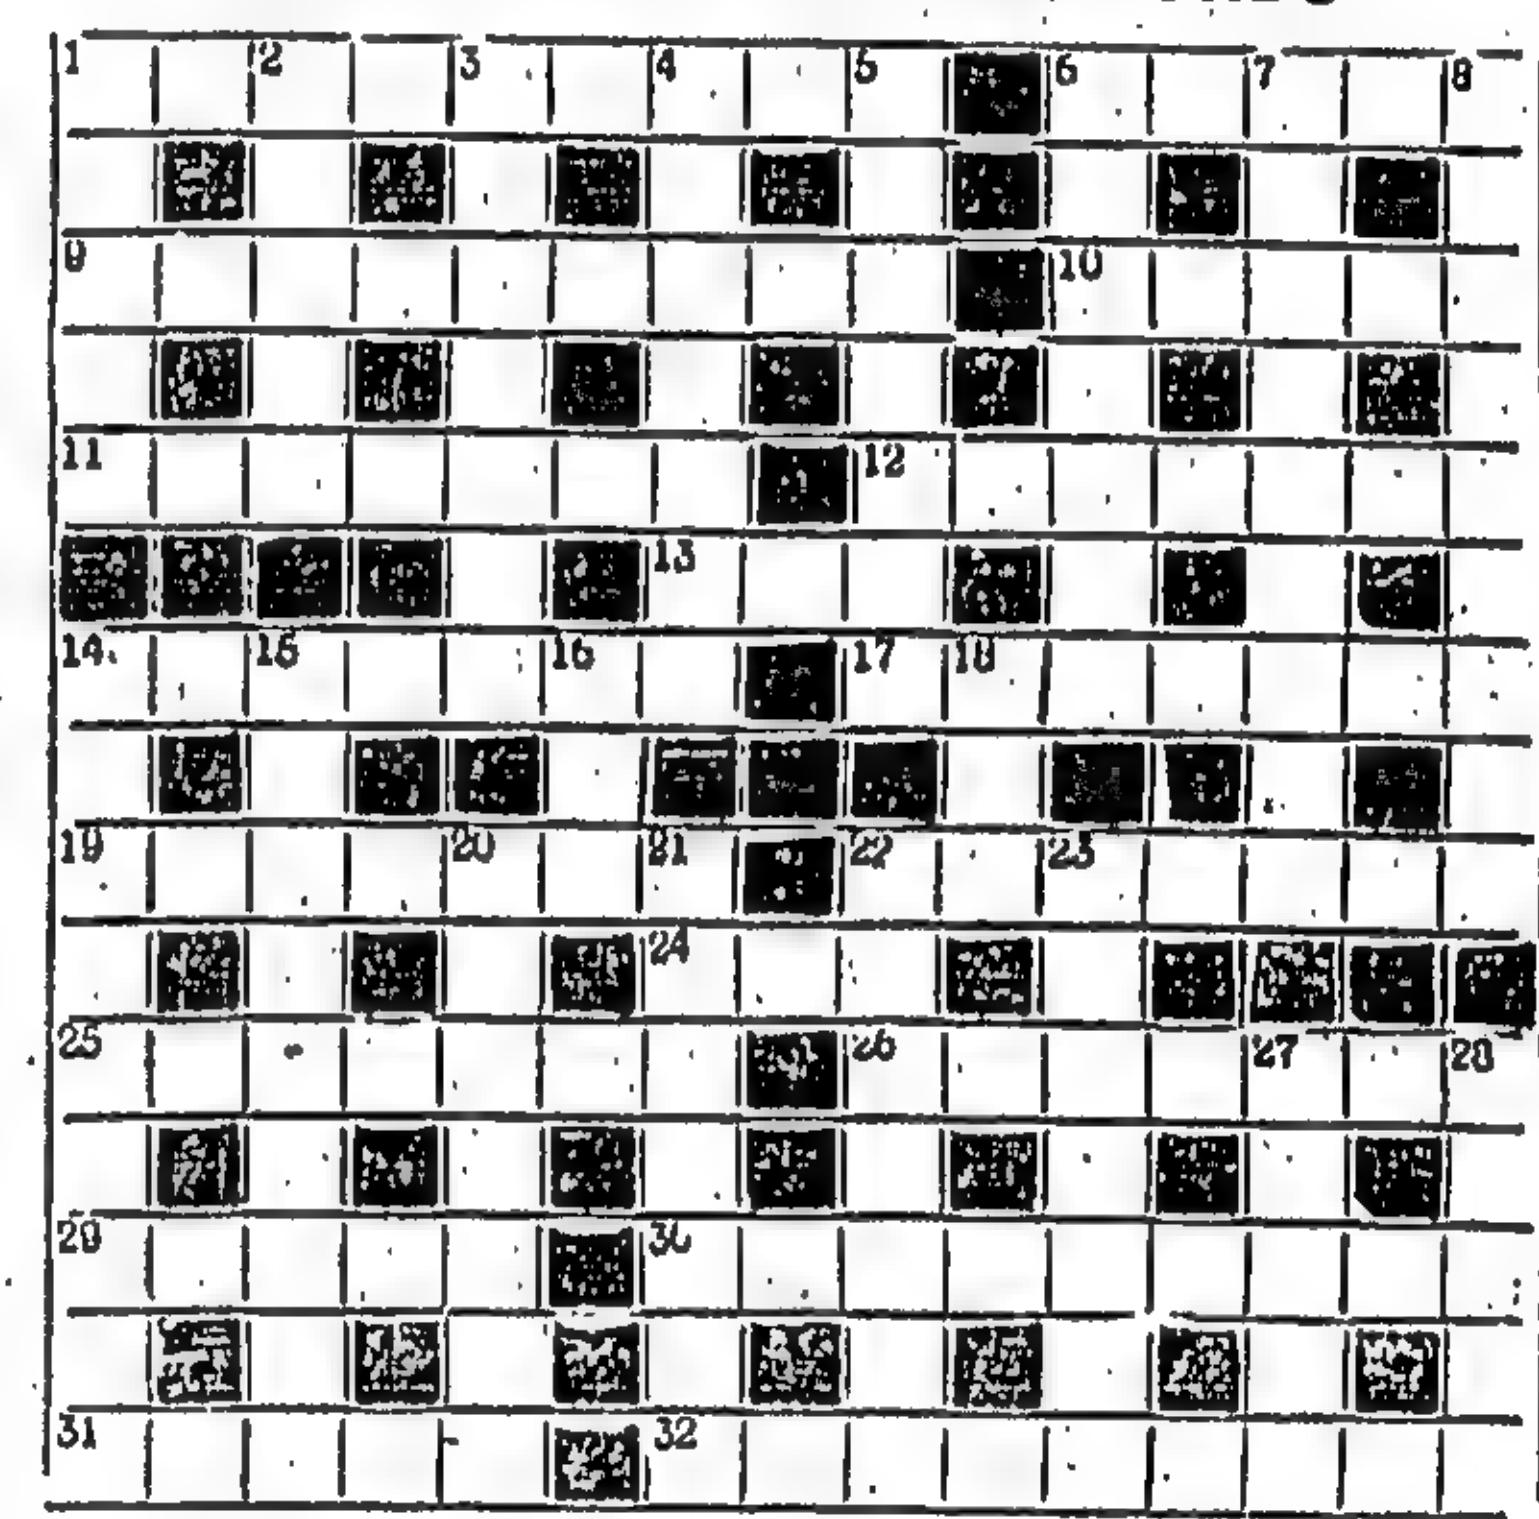

F5558. LULLABY OF BROADWAY. F.T. THE WORDS ARE IN MY HEART. F.T. Ambrose & His Orch.

TSANG FOOK PIANO CO.

9 Ice House Street.
HONGKONG.

USE ELECTRIC CHROMIC NEEDLES WITH YOUR PICK-UP

OUR BRITISH CROSSWORDS

VETERAN DIVER BATTLES SHARK

Panama, Oct. 1.

A 37-year-old pearl diver has died following a fight with a huge man-eating shark 60 feet below the surface.

The man had dived off the islands in search of pearls for fifty years, believing that sharks never attack human beings.

The shark attacked him while he was collecting shells.

Up above the churning waters attracted the attention of his fellow pearl divers. Plunging in, they found the veteran fighting a desperate losing battle with his hands and feet.

They succeeded in rescuing him and bringing him ashore, but he died soon afterwards.—Reuter.

cabin boy who had been killed by my man-in-mid-Atlantic when we sank his ship.

"We did not cause his death. He fell and was killed by accident. I never caused a single death in any of the ships I sank.

"But I took the blame for his death, and read the service over his little body, covered with the Union Jack, so that his record should read: 'Died in Action,' and his name go on the Roll of Honour.

"One question, admiral: An officer saved my life in New Zealand when they wanted to hang me for a sinking when all hands were lost, but with which I had nothing to do.

"He asked me 'in court point-blank if I had sunk the ship. I told him I had not."

"Have I your word of honour?"

"Yes, captain, you have."

"The case was dismissed, what was his name, admiral?"

"Hall Thompson," said Sir Reginald.

"That's it," exclaimed the count. "For years I have tried to remember that name."

As they took leave of each other the big German gripped the admiral's hand. "I am really happy to have met a very gallant sailor," said the admiral.

per.
8 Without the fourth letter this expression of impatience might be a favourite weapon.

14 A fungus.

15 A forerunner of the scientist.

16 This colour has the sound of finally.

18 The warlike form of rug.

20 One of the family and an article in foul association.

21 Is a covert allusion to this cry allowable?

22 A gorgeous English showplace.

23 Double the last letter to describe a kind of steel.

27 Slang money.

28 A boat that may be seen in numbers on the Thames.

Yesterday's Solution

O OBBLIGATO MULET

A R I A A I A I A H

ROASTING USURPER

B N H G C C H I A

OLD TIMER THE IR

Y Y A R E D Y K H

Z T D R E V I L E

B T W E L L O F F N R

E L I S H A E C

A N E C A R F M W

M S H A P D E C I S I V

E M T T F L N T

N O I S E D F U R L O U G H

D T A G G I T E

S A H A R A L E A P Y E A R

By Small

ACTRESS SEEKS DIVORCE

MISS DOROTHY ("CHILI") BOUCHIER, actress and film star, has filed a petition seeking a judicial separation from her husband, Mr. Harry Milton, actor and former "Co-Optimist."

They were married six years ago when Miss Bouchier first became famous as "The English Clara Bow."

Married in the morning, they flew in an airplane for a few hours after the reception, and returned in time for Mr. Milton's performance in "The Show's The Thing," at the Lyceum.

Many American Divorces May Be Illegal

VALIDITY OF MEXICAN COURT DECISIONS QUESTIONED

Washington, Oct. 4. A final legal interpretation of the validity of Mexican divorces may result from the post office department's latest drive on mail order decrees obtained by Americans in the Mexican courts.

The ruling may involve the validity of additional thousands of marriages in which one of the principals has been divorced by the Mexican route.

So far state courts in the United States have ruled generally that such divorces are illegal and not binding in this country. The question has not been determined, however, by any high court such as the supreme court.

Action of the Postal authorities in barring from use of the mails the Border Law office at El Paso, Tex., may furnish the test. That company, or any similarly situated may appeal to the Federal courts from the postal order.

The Border Law Office, according to Postal officials, is typical of those which advertise that they can obtain the judicial severing of marital ties for small fees on a mail order basis.

The company, the department charges, offered the services of two Juarez attorneys and a decree of divorce which must be recognized throughout the world at prices ranging from $100 to $250. Delivery of the decree was promised in from 10 to 35 days after the necessary application papers were received.

Advertising used by the Border Law Office held that International Law made it necessary for every other country to recognize the Mexican decree whatever the local law on divorce might be. It also claimed that courts in the United States had consistently recognized the Mexican decrees where they had been tested.

The Post Office department, in a finding by Solicitor Karl Crowley, held that this was a fraudulent representation. The domestic courts of this country, Crowley found, had never recognized a Mexican divorce excepting in equity cases. He held that anyone who obtained a Mexican mail order divorce and re-wed could be prosecuted for bigamy.

For these reasons, Crowley held, the Border Law Office's business was fraudulent and it might be barred from use of the mails. This case, it is thought, will furnish a direct test of the legality of mail order divorces and may resolve the question of their validity for good.

Lawrence Of Arabia's Secrets Revealed In Diary

£100,000 BOOK THAT HAS BEEN SUPPRESSED

Rigid Discipline Of Royal Air Force Revealed

New York, Oct. 1.

THE secret of the posthumous book by Lawrence of Arabia which an American publisher has announced his intention of publishing—in order to retain the copyright—and immediately suppressing has been revealed.

He proposes to issue only five copies and to put a price of £100,000 on each in order to prevent any sale.

The book is called "The Mint."

It is an astounding picture of life in the Air Force in the form of a diary which Lawrence kept day by day from the moment he entered the R.A.F. depot at Uxbridge as one of a batch of recruits. It continues through his period of training until he graduated at Cranwell with the full status of an aircraftman.

Nobody Spared

Only a few privileged among Lawrence's friends and certain high officials of the R.A.F. have seen this document.

dragged his war-wounded body through these fearful exercises with as little flinching as he could. "Incredible"

There are several drafts of it in existence, for Lawrence was in the habit of constantly polishing and re-writing everything he wrote.

Everything went into that diary. He spared nobody, least of all himself.

The R.A.F. at the time he enlisted was in process of reconstruction. It had been born among the make-shifts of war emergency. Few of its active officers in the field had had any other than pure flying training, the personnel of the ranks consisted of emergency drafted skilled and unskilled labour.

To make an efficient service all this had to be changed. The word went forth that the R.A.F. must be drilled and disciplined on the strictest lines.

"Rigid And Brutal" The diary begins with Lawrence marching into Uxbridge depot in must.

He found there the atmosphere of a Guards battalion subjected to a discipline which was iron rigid and at times brutal.

If the authorities knew his identity they apparently made no sign.

He notes down every detail of his early days and comments upon the incongruity of so drilling men who were destined to be mechanics, riggers, etc. They did nothing but squad drill and "P.T."

The physical training he found hardest to bear. He

Episodes

There are one or two pointed episodes in this period which reflect no credit whatsoever upon those in immediate authority over him.

In his latter years in the Air Force the diary found its way into the hands of those responsible for the direction of the Service, and it is a tribute to Aircraftman Shaw that most of the things he so bitterly endured were afterwards removed from the training curriculum.

Mixed Bathing Prohibited In Kentish Borough

SO THEY ARE PUTTING BY-LAWS IN A MUSEUM

DRIVERS of horse trams must place nosebags containing food on their horses' heads whilst they are waiting.

This is one of Hythe's (Kent) borough by-laws, which date back to 1873. They have not been revised or modernised since.

Councillor T. A. Taylor, ex-Mayor of the town, describes them as ridiculous and the laughing stock of the country.

The by-laws for public bathing, dating back more than 60 years, include the following:

(1) No person above the age of 10 years shall bathe from any part of the seashore within the borough east of the Coastguard Station between 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., except from a dwelling-house, bathing machine, cabin, hut, tent or other enclosure or screen.

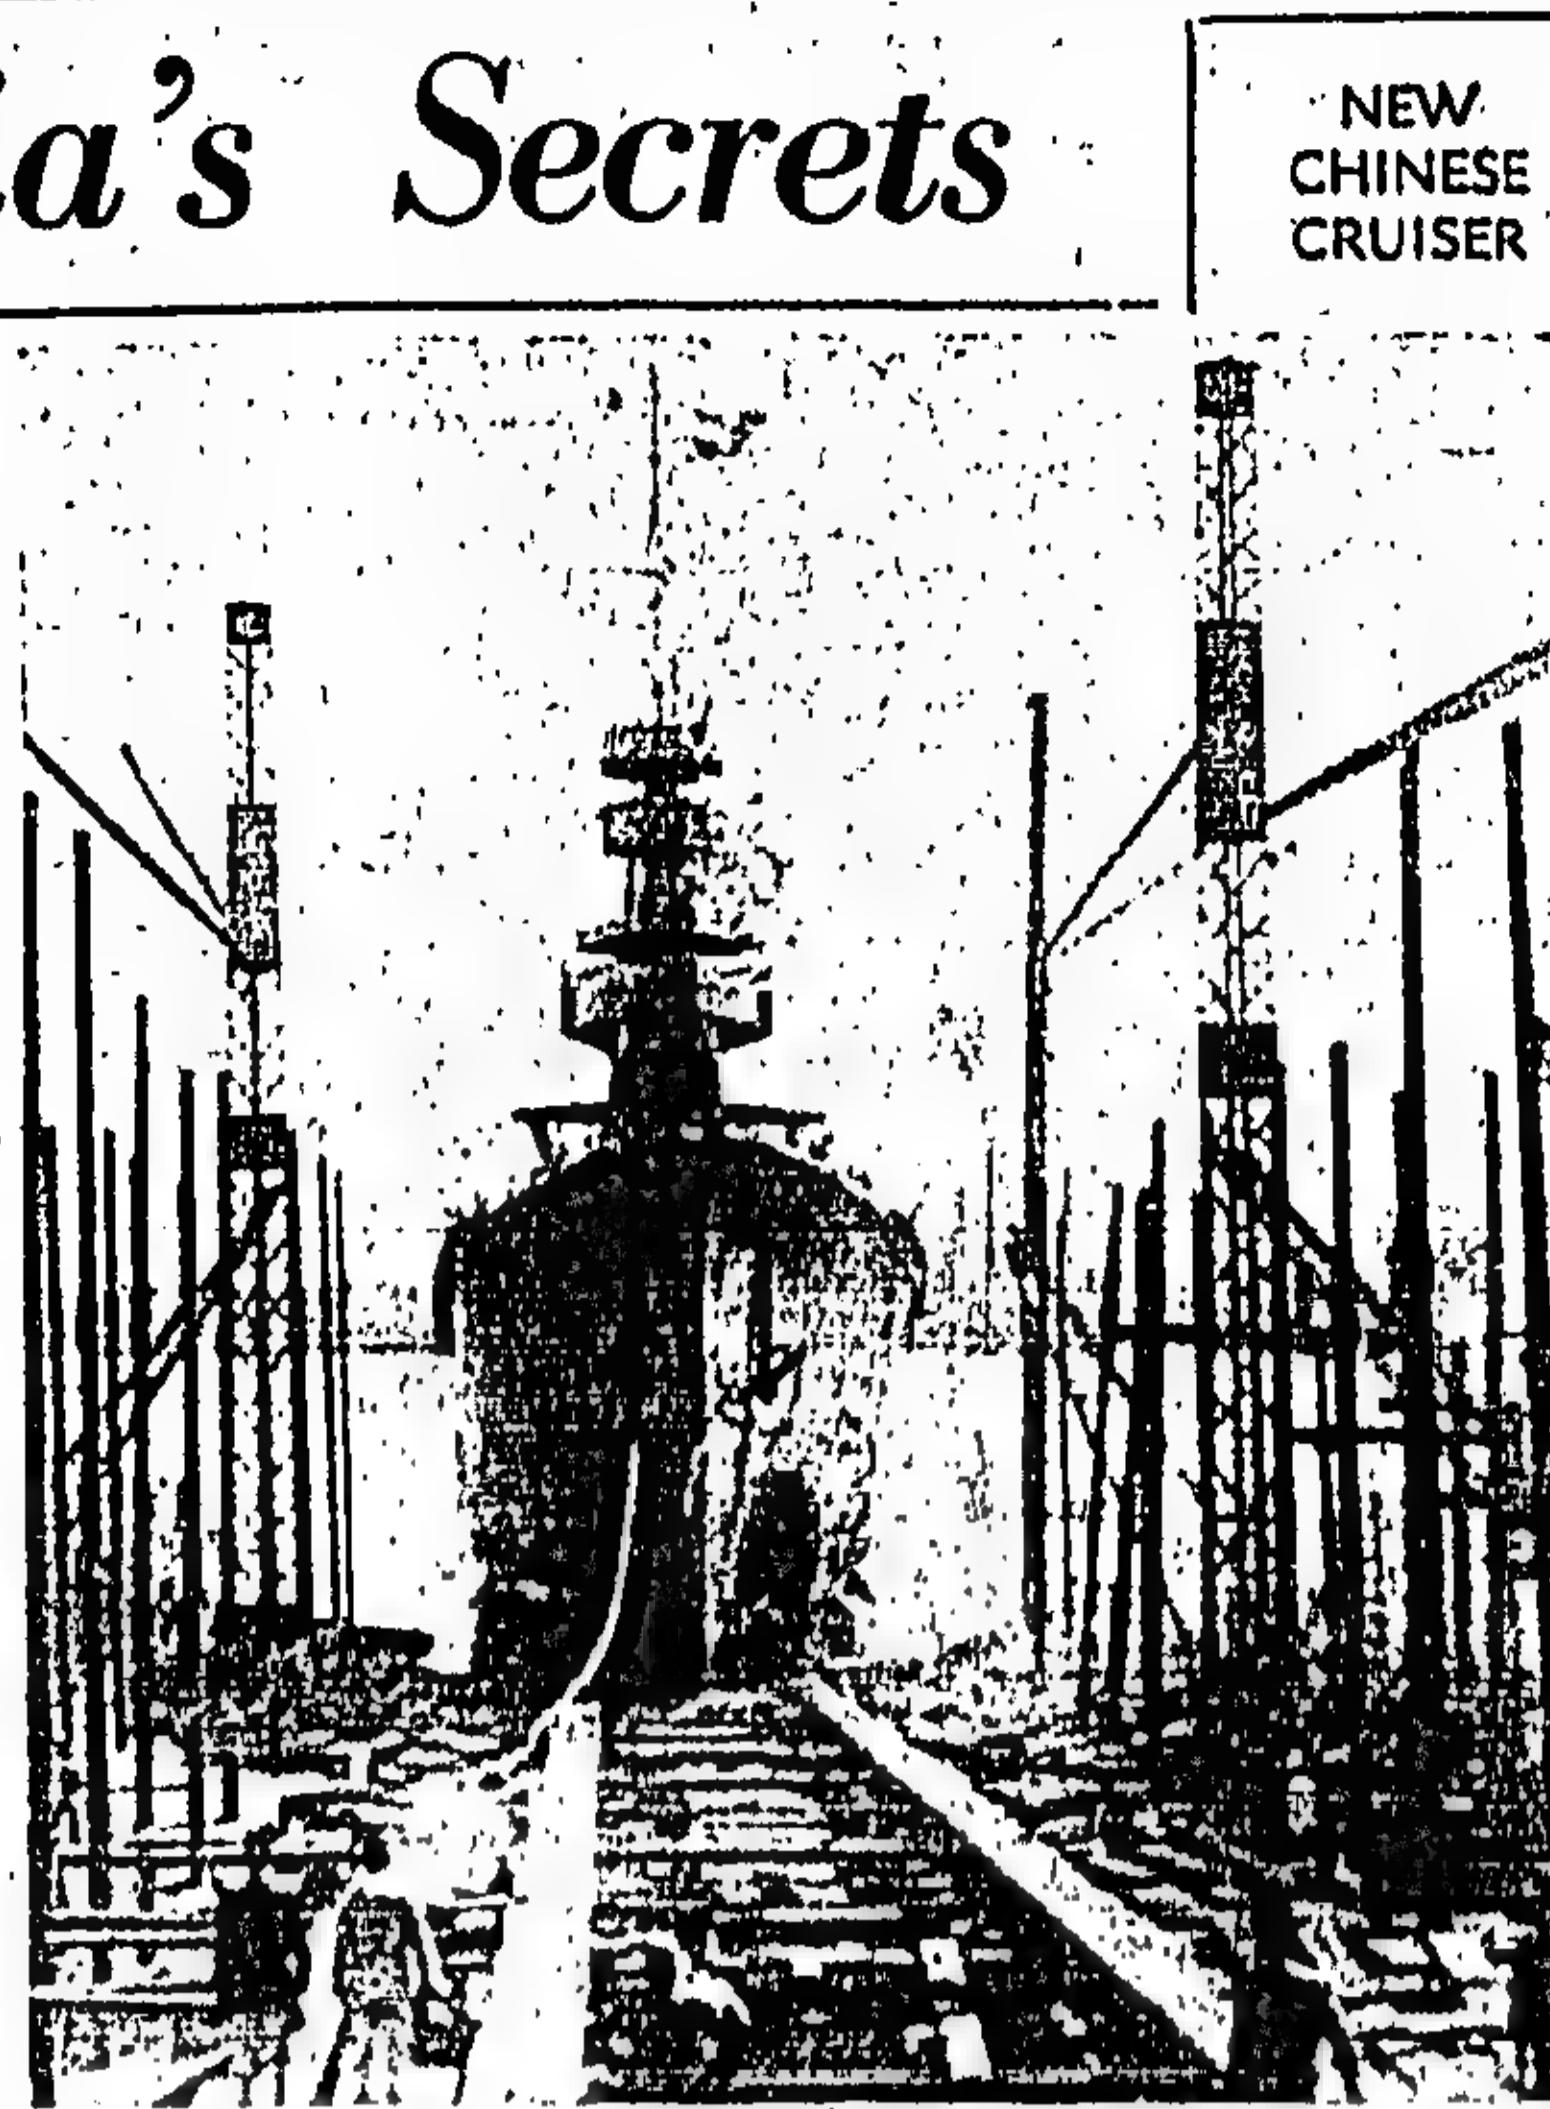

(2) Every person above the age of 10 years who shall from any part of the seashore between the Hotel Metropole and the Coastguard Station between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. shall whilst bathing wear an opaque costume reaching from the shoulders to within three inches of the knees to prevent indecent exposure of the person.

(3) No male person above the age of 10 years shall bathe from any part of the seashore within the borough which is or shall be set apart by notice erected by the Council in a conspicuous place on the seashore as a bathing place for the use of female persons exclusively. The penalty for an offence against these by-laws is £5.

There is only one copy of these old by-laws in existence, and it is proposed to place them in the Hythe Public Museum.

Princess Zahar, daughter of the Abyssinian emperor, is 10 years old and a modern young woman who doesn't miss beauty nor intelligence. She speaks English, German and French fluently, plays the piano and is capable hostess at Imperial palace festivities in Addis Ababa.

Another Chinese cruiser, named the Pin Hai, was launched at Kiangnan Dockyard recently, the naming ceremony being performed by Admiral Cheng Chi-liang, Vice Minister of the Navy. The boat, which is 300 ft. long and has a beam of 35ft., will take nearly another year to complete.

BRIDGE AT NIGHT

BUT

ANDREWS IN THE MORNING

A friendly rubber—good company—a few drinks. Pleasant, fleeting hours. Just one side of life in this country. Tomorrow, the blazing sun—the daily round. Can you greet the morning with the joy which comes from a sense of personal fitness and well-being? You can if you are an Andrews man. A glass of sparkling, pleasant-tasting Andrews in the morning maintains the healthy rhythm of the body and keeps at bay the minor ills. In a word, Andrews keeps you fit! It supplies the little gentle corrective which is necessary to us all and besides it's so cooling and lastingly refreshing.

KEEPS YOU FIT

Sold everywhere in large and small bottles.

Prince Of Wales Sets New Shoe Fashion In Budapest

Black And White Shoes Now The Rage

Budapest, Sept. 28.

THE Prince of Wales, stepping on to the platform here to-day after a two-days' train journey from Cannes, started a new men's fashion—black and white sports shoes.

They were the first things that Budapest noticed. Within half an hour inquiries were being made in the shops for them. Before closing time a few lucky Hungarians had secured pairs of the shoes.

The Prince wore a straw hat, a grey flannel double-breasted suit, blue shirt, grey tie, the already famous shoes, and a white orchid in his buttonhole.

On the hotel register he appears as the Duke of Chester.

27 Rooms

The Prince first asked for the stationmaster, to whose greeting he replied in Hungarian. Then, after shaking hands with the Budapest police chief, he walked smiling through the crowd of 4,000, who cheered their "Prince Charming," as they call him, jumped into a car, and drove to the Dunapalota Hotel.

There an entire floor of twenty-seven rooms has been placed at his disposal. Five are his own, which overlook the Danube facing the royal palace. The rest are for his friends and staff.

The grey-carpeted sitting-room is furnished with gobelin tapestry chairs worth £1,000. Over his bed is a portrait of Queen Elizabeth. The rooms were personally inspected by the British Minister, Sir Patrick Ramsay, before the Prince arrived.

The Prince greeted the hotel manager with the words, "You did not expect to see me back so soon, did you?"

"I am proud," was the reply.

Gift From Promotor

On the Prince's table was a large bowl of peaches grown by the Prime Minister, General Goemba. The Prince and his party finished off the peaches before leaving for a short tour round the town before dinner.

He intended to do some shopping, but changed his mind, and showed his friends the fashionable Margaret Island, on the Danube.

The Prince's chauffeur will be the Hungarian Hussar officer who drove his car last spring.

There is no accommodation to be had in any of the chief Budapest hotels. The city is packed with English, Americans, and other nationalities.

Andrews
Effervescent-Cooling-Refreshing

Agents: BANKER & CO., LTD.

SWAN, CULBERTSON & FRITZ

Investment bankers and brokers in securities and commodities Daily New York and London Stock Exchange Services Commodity Futures on the principal American markets

Members of:
New York Cotton Exchange.
Chicago Board of Trade.
Commodity Exchange, Inc.
(Silver, Rubber, Silk, Copper, Hides and Tin).
New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange.
Canadian Commodity Exchange Inc.
Winnipeg Grain Exchange.
Manila Stock Exchange.

Correspondents for Hayden, Stone & Co.
Telephone: 30244, 30245, 30246. Cable Address: Swanstock,
9, Queen's Road Central
(Corner of Ice House Street).

AEROMAIL
Facsimile of Watermark
SPECIAL

REDUCE YOUR AIR MAIL CHARGES

BY USING

The "POST" Aeromail Letter Paper

and Envelopes.

EXTREMELY LIGHT AND STRONG

ON SALE AT:

THE SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST, LTD.
Wyndham St., Tel. 26615.

PADS CONTAINING 100 SHEETS, LETTER SIZE, $1.00
ENVELOPES IN 3 SIZES, $1.75 TO $2.75 PER 100,
SMALLER QUANTITIES ALSO AVAILABLE

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

25 WORDS $1.50 for 3 DAYS PREPAID,
50 cents for Every Additional Day
Alternate Insertions 20% Extra.
If Not Prepaid a Booking Fee of
50 cents is Charged.

FOUND

FOUND—Thoroughbred wire-haired terrier, pup. Apply Dog's Home, Tel. 60162 or 60074.

TO LET

NO. 69, Wong Nai Chong Road, Happy Valley. (Overlooking The Race Course), two Room Flat, 2nd Floor and three Room Flat, 3rd Floor. Modern Sanitation, Servants' Quarters, and installed with Westinghouse Refrigeration. Rents $45 and $55 inclusive of taxes. Apply Mr. Li Te-fong, Bank of East Asia.

TO LET—Several large and small rowhouses. Apply—Kwong Sang Hong Ltd., P. O. Box 320.

TO LET—Modern Flats at "Ticci Mansion," Macdonnell Road. Quiet locality, splendid view. Apply Xavier Bros., Ltd. Tel. 23216 or 22722.

ROOMS TO LET

ROOMS TO LET—Clarendon Hotel begs to announce that they have a few rooms available at $100 per month.

The gay and packing story of a pretty girl florist who tires of launching other people's romances—and gets romantic herself!

A FILM PICTURE SHOW
JOHN BOLES
JEAN MUIR
CHARLES BUTTERWORTH
RUTHIE STEVENS
HARVEY STEPHENS
ARTHUR LACE
Produced by Robert T. Kane
Directed by William A. Seiter

SUNDAY AT
ALHAMBRA

The Silent Guide
tells the World!

ADVERTISE WHERE YOU ARE SURE OF THE ### LARGEST AFTERNOON CIRCULATION

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN

THE "TELEGRAPH"

CIRCULATION CERTIFIED BY CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

Put your whole soul into shopping and you'll wear a hole in your sole.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

G. R.

HONG KONG EVENING INSTITUTE

(Formerly known as Technical Institute).

The Institute will be re-opened on Friday, 18th October, 1935.

Entry forms and copies of Prospectus may be obtained at the Education Department or at the Central British School:

A. O. BRAUN,
Director,
Evening Institute.

SHARE PRICES

The following is the list of local share quotations issued this morning.

Banks.

H.K. Banks, $1,010 b.

H. K. Banks, (Lon. Reg.) £104½ n.

Chartered Bank, £13 n.

Mercantile Bank, A. and B. 229½ n.

Mercantile Bank C. £13 n.

East Asia Bank, $60 n.

Insurances.

Canton Ins., $180 n.

Union Ins., $375 b.

China Underwriters, $1,10 n.

China Fire, $382 n.

H.K. Fire Ins., $180 n.

Internat'l Asso., Sh. $4 n.

Shipping.

Douglas, $30 n.

H.K. Steamboats, $4 n.

Indo-Chinas, (Pref.), $80 n.

Indo-China (Def.), $12 n.

Shell (Bearer), 74½ n.

Union Waterbonds, $11½ n.

Mining.

Antamoka, 74 cts. n.

Balitoos, $14 n.

Baguio Gold, 24 cts. n.

Benguet Consolidated, $11 n.

Benguet Exp., 13 cts. n.

Benguet Goldfield, —

Bir Wedge, 8 cts. n.

Gold Creek, 30 cts. n.

Gold River, 5½ cts. n.

Ipo Mining, 90 cts. n.

Itogons, 36½ cts. n.

Salacot, 15 cts. n.

Katian, 10/6 n.

Langkata (Single), $13 n.

Shai Explorations, Sh. $4½ n.

Shai Loans, Sh. $8½ n.

Rauha, $6.65 n. ex-div.

Venz: Goldfield $2.30 n.

Docks etc.

H.K. Wharves (old), $72 n.

H.K. Wharves (new), $70 n.

H.K. Docks, $5 n.

Providents (old), 45 cts. b.

Providents (new), 20 cts. n.

Hongkewo (old), Sh. $237½ n.

New Engineering, Sh. $4 n.

Shanghai Docks, Sh. $80 n.

Cotton Mills.

Evo Cottons, Sh. $6.60 b.

Shai Cottons, (old), Sh. $65 n.

Shai Cottons (now), Sh. $40 n.

Zong Sings, $8½ n.

Wing On Textiles, Sh. $25 n.

Lands, Hotels, etc.

H. K. Lands, $3.10 b.

H. K. Lands, $24.40 n.

H. K. Lands, 4½ Deben.

$100 n.

Shai Lands, Sh. $13.90 n.

Metropolitan Lands, Sh. $10 n.

Humphreys, $7½ n.

H.K. Realities, $4 n.

Chinese Estates, $86 n.

China Realities, Sh. $4 n.

China Debentures, Sh. $36 n.

Public Utilities.

H.K. Tramways, 310.75 b.

Peak Trams, (old), $5½ n.

Peak Trams, (new), $5 n.

Star Ferries, $78 n.

Yau Ma Tei Ferries, $17 n.

China Lights, $7.86 b.

H.K. Electric, $53 n.

Macao Electric, $20 n.

Sandakan Lights, $3 n.

Telephone (old), $17.10 b.

Telephone (old), $17.14 b.

China Buses, Sh. $11½ n.

NOTICE

Many interesting illustrations will appear in tomorrow's issue of the Telegraph Pictorial Supplement.

These will include some magnificent pictures of the new Hongkong and Shanghai Bank building, exterior and interior.

Events illustrated will include the Volunteer Gymkhana, the golf championship at Shek-O, and the celebration of the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

Groups taken at the weddings of Mr. H. P. Rees and Miss A. Landolt and of Mr. J. Chor-ling and Miss Tom Wing-kui will also appear.

In addition, there will be a big half-page sketch of the geographical features of Ethiopia, which will be found useful to keep for the purposes of reference in the present crisis.

will afford lower buying opportunities which it will be advisable to take advantage of for higher prices later. Strong efforts are being made by European spinners to obtain cotton credits here. Inflation is prominently mentioned, whilst general trade has shown some improvement.

Wheat.—There is some improvement in the demand from Europe and from mills. Stronger cables abroad and continued uncertainty at Geneva contributed to the rise, but increasing Black Sea shipments are becoming a factor. An improvement in the crop in Australia and the Argentine is tending to create a two-sided market.

Corn.—There was some buying of December corn. We believe that there will be no early pressure of the new crop, but an ample supply is indicated. It appears that prices are now high enough.

Rubber.—The revival of interest on the part of manufacturers is due to expectations of higher prices.

Hides.—Good buying orders created a firm situation.

Silk.—Profit-taking on upturns is advisable.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

MARKET UPWARD YESTERDAY

New York, Oct. 10. The following reports on the New York Stock Market have been received through Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz in conjunction with Reuters.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE

LATEST SHARE QUOTATIONS

The following quotations on the London Stock Exchange have been received through Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz in conjunction with Reuters.

Oct. 9, Oct. 10.

British Government Securities

War Loan 3½% £103½ £103½

Chinese Bonds

4½% Bonds 1898

(Eng. Inv.) £101½ £101½

4½% Loan 1928 £100½ £99½

5½% Loan 1912 £75 £78

5½% Loan 1912 £75 £78

1912 (Eng. Inv.) £78 £78

5½% Bonds 1925-47 £94½ £91½

5½% Shai-Nanking

Rly. £71 £71

5½% Tientsin-Pukow

Rly. £22 £22

5½% Tientsin-Pukow

Railway (Supl.)

£22½ £21½

5½% Honan-Rly.

£25 £25

5½% Hukuang-Rly.

1911 £39 £39

5½% Lung Tsien-U.

£11½ £11½

Foreign Bonds and Banks

German 7½% Int.

£102½ £69½ £60

Janan 5½% Sterling

£100 £77½ £70

Japan 6½% Sterling

£102½ £90½ £91½

ILIC & Shai-BK.

(Eng. Inv.) £103½ £104½

Charl. Bk. of L.A. & C. £13 £13

Commercial and Industrial

&lt;p

MAY LIFE ARMS EMBARGO*ASSEMBLY INDICTS ITALY

(Continued from Page 1.)

effecting sanctions through the Co-ordinating Committee.

Peru also supported the League, while expressing friendship for its large Italian population.

The Co-ordinating Committee begins its work to-morrow morning.—Reuter.AUTONOMOUS BODY

Genoa, Oct. 10.
In order to save time, the new Co-ordinating Committee will be autonomous. It will establish its own Bureau and appoint its own sub-Committee to deal with the manifold aspects of sanctions without consulting either the Council or Assembly of the League.—Reuter.

LONG-DRAWN TASK?

Rome, Oct. 10.
It is believed here that it is one thing to vote for the principle of sanctions, but quite another to decide upon the exact kind. Each country must contribute; hence the work of the Co-ordinating Committee is expected to be long-drawn-out.

The Italians nevertheless express a sense of grievance at the speed with which sanctions are being imposed and there is a widespread feeling that Britain is forcing the League to hasten. This is causing increased resentment against Great Britain.—Reuter.

RAISING EMBARGO

Geneva, Oct. 10.
The Co-ordinating Committee's first business to-morrow will be to consider the raising of the embargo on arms against Ethiopia, but general agreement upon specific sanctions is not expected for some time, probably next week.—Reuter.

FIRST SANCTIONS

Geneva, Oct. 10.
The first actual sanctions against Italy are seen in the British postal authorities' refusal to relay for broadcast in the United States the questions of Mr. Edgar Mowrer, Chicago Daily News correspondent, and the answers of Baron Aloisi. It is understood the British will refuse to broadcast any Italian speeches.—United Press.

DECISION WELCOMED

London, Oct. 10.
In Geneva, the all but unanimous approval by the Assembly of the Council's action in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute, and the fact that the co-ordination committee is to get to work at once, is welcomed as promising success to the efforts under the League Covenant to restore peace and achieve an agreed settlement.

The concluding sentences of Mr. Eden's speech this morning have attracted considerable attention. He said: "We all of us contemplate with the deepest regret the duty that now confronts us, but regret, however deep and sincere, cannot absolve us from fulfilling the obligations to which we have set our names. Since it is our duty to take action, it is essential that such action should be prompt. That is the League's responsibility—a responsibility based on humanity, for we cannot forget that war is actually in progress. We must therefore persist in action which our obligations command us to assume, but not abate by one jot our hope for an early and peaceful settlement."

It is widely expected that the co-ordinating Committee will be able to complete the first part of its difficult task in a week or ten days.

AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN ABSTENTION

Both in Geneva and London, the speeches of the Austrian and Hungarian delegates have caused some surprise. The need of certain countries for special consideration in the event of the application of Article XVI has always been recognised, and in the present case is likely to receive the sympathetic consideration of the Co-ordinating Committee, but the fact that two countries which in the past have owed so much to the League action should have chosen to abstain publicly from associating themselves with the unanimous decision of the Council, which has secured the approval of over fifty nations in the Assembly, is the subject of unfavourable comment.—British Wireless.

FINE TO CLOUDY

A moderate anticyclone covers N.E. Japan and a weak anticyclone is centred over the Yangtze Valley. Depressions are situated to the east of Peking and over the Korean Channel. A small typhoon is situated about 160 miles to the west of Manila, moving N.W. or W.N.W. Another typhoon is developing to the south-west of Guam. Local forecast:—N.E. winds moderate; fine to cloudy.

BARON ALOISI'S DEFENCE OF ITALY

Genoa, Oct. 10.
"One cannot suppress war but one can find something to replace it," declared Baron Aloisi in a speech at the re-opening of the Assembly at 10.45 a.m.

He continued that "to proclaim by words the determination to eliminate conflicts is only verbiage. True politics is to remove the cause. Italy is convinced that she is interpreting the true spirit of the League and is not only fighting her own battles but also that of the League. Before the Assembly, Italy must make known its great proletarian voice, which demands justice."

"In the case of the Sino-Japanese dispute the League allowed procedure to drag on for seventeen months. In the case of the Gran Chaco dispute it was two years."

Baron Aloisi referred to Italy's collaboration with the League for 15 years and she assumed obligations for peace at Locarno, which contributed to the rehabilitation of numerous countries, overwhelmed as a consequence of the Great War. She had contributed to the work of disarmament and helped to solve the Saar problem.

Baron Aloisi proceeded to indict Ethiopia for having failed in her obligations to Italy and to the Covenant. He said that she did not fulfil the conditions of Article I of the Covenant.

Baron Aloisi contrasted the fact that sanctions were not invoked in the cases of China and Japan, and of Bolivia and Paraguay. He said that Italian opinion found it difficult to understand why different was accorded to the Covenant and International obligations.

Italy was entitled to exercise her right of self protection, whereas Ethiopia had been proved not entitled to remain inside the League.

M. Laval briefly said that France would face her obligations. He said, "We cannot infringe the Covenant nor allow it to become weakened, but we assume at the same time that we apply its law to search for a conciliatory solution."

Mr. Eden said that prompt action must be taken in which British Government would take full part. He said, "We contemplate the duty confronting us with the deepest regret."

Mr. Motta of Switzerland said that his country would not fail in its support of other countries but he made a reservation against the use of military sanctions.—Reuter.

Unity of Action

Though the report was formally adopted immediately after Baron Aloisi had spoken, a general disputation followed lead by M. Laval and Mr. Eden.

M. Potemkin declared that the Soviet delegation again confirmed its intention to take its full responsibility under the Covenant.

Since a member of the League had had recourse to war, contrary to the provisions of Article XII of the Covenant, the situation must be dealt with by unity of action.

Baron Aloisi contended that Ethiopia was not a united country, but was composed of two regions, which both geographically and politically were distinctly different. He asked the Assembly whether Article XXII, which deals with the principle of mandates and control of colonies and territories had not been drafted expressly for countries like Ethiopia.

A poignant touch was given to the gravity of the situation when the representative of Haiti, General Nemours, sprang a surprise by exercising his right to speak, and declared that the Black Republic of Haiti was prepared to take its full share of responsibility.

The final speaker was Senor Gomez, of Mexico, who said that his country would not shrink from its obligations.

The Assembly adjourned till 4.30 p.m. when the discussion will be resumed and it is reported that Albania may make certain reservations.—Reuter.

Report Approved

Geneva, Oct. 10.
After Baron Aloisi had addressed the Assembly the President, Dr. Benes, announced that no further delegates wished to speak.

Therefore the report condemning Italy stood approved by the Assembly, with Austria and Hungary as only dissentients.—Reuter.

Final Decision

Geneva, Oct. 10.
There was a silent and dramatic scene in the Assembly when the League finally condemned Italy as a violator of the Covenant.

After Baron Aloisi had finished his defence of Italy the President, M. Benes, rose and said: "If no other delegate desires to speak I shall interpret the silence as concurrence with the decision already taken by the Council."

A few seconds' silence followed then the President's gavel.

Judgment had been passed.

The Assembly then proceeded to a general debate in which M. Laval and Mr. Eden and others spoke, and the discussion will be continued this afternoon.—Reuter.

The Scene Described

Geneva, Oct. 10.
Fifty-two nations, in fact the whole of the League with the exception of Italy, Austria and Hungary condemned Italy for violation of the Covenant, thereby automatically binding themselves to the imposing of penalties.

The historical meeting was held in the Hall of the Geneva-Canton Council, which is canopied with grey cloth, giving the incongruous effect of a circus tent.

Baron Aloisi's speech was received in silence, no one applauding at its conclusion.

M. Benes, contrary to custom frustrated Baron Aloisi's attempt to file a formal reservation against the procedure.

Only the two countries mentioned supported and none abstained from voting.—United Press.

Dissidents Blamed

London, Oct. 10.
The pusillanimous attitude of Austria and Hungary is seriously deplored says Reuter's diplomatic correspondent. It is remarkable that they might have been reluctant to apply economic sanctions in view of the close commercial and economic political ties with Italy, but it is pointed out that both have received financial aid from the League in the past, and might require such aid in the future.

Moreover, Austria and Hungary might have expected League aid under Article XVI if their interests were damaged by sanctions. These definitions, however, were not entirely unexpected and in general consideration of sanctions and their assistance had already been discounted.

It is impossible yet to forecast the exact lines of sanctions, but it is known that there is considerable agreement among the powers concerned.—Reuter.

The League Speeches

London, Oct. 10.
The League of Nations Assembly met this morning to hear a full statement of Italy's case by Baron Aloisi. At last night's Plenary Session representative of all members except Austria and Hungary gave their votes to a decision of the Council that the Italian Government had violated Article XII of the Covenant. Baron Aloisi in the course of his speech said that Italy needed expansion; she demanded justice. Non-recognition by the League of the reasons given by Italy for her action had wounded the conscience of the entire Italian people and at the same time rendered Ethiopia more audacious and had accentuated her aggressive attitude. He condemned the procedure adopted by the League and declared that neither the Council nor any of its Committees had taken the Italian Memorandum into account.

He declared that the condition of Ethiopia constituted a menace to peace in East Africa, especially for the boundary of the adjoining States and above all for Italy.

Ethiopia had failed to carry out her obligations not only to Italy but to the League and he added that if its condition had been examined it would have been apparent that the League must have withdrawn the confidence she gave to Ethiopia in 1923 by virtue of admission of that country to the League.

Baron Aloisi contended that Ethiopia was not a united country, but was composed of two regions, which both geographically and politically were distinctly different. He asked the Assembly whether Article XXII, which deals with the principle of mandates and control of colonies and territories had not been drafted expressly for countries like Ethiopia.

A poignant touch was given to the gravity of the situation when the representative of Haiti, General Nemours, sprang a surprise by exercising his right to speak, and declared that the Black Republic of Haiti was prepared to take its full share of responsibility.

The final speaker was Senor Gomez, of Mexico, who said that his country would not shrink from its obligations.

The Assembly adjourned till 4.30 p.m. when the discussion will be resumed and it is reported that Albania may make certain reservations.—Reuter.

Report Approved

Geneva, Oct. 10.
After Baron Aloisi had addressed the Assembly the President, Dr. Benes, announced that no further delegates wished to speak.

Therefore the report condemning Italy stood approved by the Assembly, with Austria and Hungary as only dissentients.—Reuter.

Final Decision

Geneva, Oct. 10.
There was a silent and dramatic scene in the Assembly when the League finally condemned Italy as a violator of the Covenant.

After Baron Aloisi had finished his defence of Italy the President, M. Benes, rose and said: "If no other delegate desires to speak I shall interpret the silence as concurrence with the decision already taken by the Council."

A few seconds' silence followed then the President's gavel.

Judgment had been passed.

The Assembly then proceeded to a general debate in which M. Laval and Mr. Eden and others spoke, and the discussion will be

MANILA STOCK EXCHANGE*PHILIPPINE GOLD SHARE QUOTATIONS

To-day's quotations as received by Messrs. Swan, Culbertson and Fritz shortly after the close of the morning session of the Manila Stock Exchange are as follows:

Stock	In Price	Acked	Old	Price
Anilao Gold-Mining Co.	.....	0.09	0.08	0.08
Banquet Consolidated	.....	0.09	0.08	0.08
Demerara Gold Co.	.....	0.28	0.28	0.28
Gold Mines	.....	1.90	1.15	1.15
Hagonay Mining Co.	.....	0.85	0.80	0.80
San Mauricio	.....	0.18	0.14	0.14
Buyuk Paraçale	.....	0.19	0.17	0.17
S. C. & F. Gold Share Index	.....	67.0	67.0	67.0
Market—Market looks lower, large supply	.....	—	—	—
Volume—Peso 125,000.	.....	—	—	—

Market—Market looks lower, large supply

Volume—Peso 125,000.

NATIONAL SPORTS MEETING*SUCCESS OF MEN FROM MALAYA*HUGE CROWDS

Shanghai, Oct. 10.
Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.

WATSON'S

Genuine
BAY RUM

The Ideal Non Greasy
Hair Lotion for Summer use.

STIMULATING AND REFRESHING

$1.00 & $1.75
Per Bottle

A. S. WATSON & CO., LTD

You'll save expense
with a—

"STUDEBAKER"

STUDEBAKER trucks cost very little more than the lowest priced units on the market, but they give you far better performance, far more stamina, much lower operating costs.

And the handsome, distinctive streamlined appearance of the new 1935 Studebaker truck makes it stand out from the crowd. With its sleek, business-like lines and powerful, dependable engine, it is a truck you will be proud to own, a truck which inspires a feeling of prestige that suggests a price much higher than its actual cost.

We will furnish particulars and terms on application.

HONGKONG HOTEL GARAGE

Stubbs Rd. Tel. 27778/9.

The
Hongkong Telegraph.

FRIDAY, Oct. 11, 1935.

AIR SERVICE PROSPECTS

Although there has been no outward demonstration of the fact, Hongkong has followed with the liveliest satisfaction the arrival and departure of the Imperial Airways plane on the first of the experimental flights between Penang and this Colony, designed to pave the way for the inauguration of a mail and passenger air service which will link us with the Motherland, Australia and other parts of the Empire. The exchange between Hongkong and the Colonial Office of official despatches on the subject serve to throw into relief the immense advantages which will accrue to this Colony when the service is in full operation.

As to the date of its inauguration, the Secretary of State expressed the hope that it will be in the near future. Some idea of the time which will be gained may be gathered from the fact, mentioned in the despatch by the Officer Administering the Government, that he received Mr. Malcolm MacDonald's letter eleven days after it was signed in London, in spite of the fact that the latter stages of the experimental flight to Hongkong were purposely slowed down. The present series of flights allow three days for the trip between Penang and Hongkong, but subsequent flights will cut that time in half. Eventually, the service between London and Hongkong will be undertaken on a nine and half days' schedule, and the time will doubtless come, with certain parts of the route covered by night flying, when even that time will be eclipsed. A point which is worth stressing, as indicative of the reliability of the Imperial Airways services, is that the first flight between Penang and Hongkong was made strictly to schedule. It is also worth remembering that Imperial Airways has just duplicated its London-Singapore service, providing bi-weekly flights. Thus do we see further evidence of the speeding up of the means of communication between distant parts of the world. Time was, not so many years ago, when five weeks was the minimum for postal contact between London and Hongkong. Since then, the Siberian mail has been introduced and fast shipping services have been established, whilst latterly we have had the joint steamer and air mail facilities enabling postal matter to be sent to and from London inside

NOTES OF THE DAY

UNARMED GUARDS

We are told that the unfortunate guard who was shot to death in the bandit raid upon the China Light and Power Company car on Wednesday night, was unarmed. We do not wish to criticize. We only wonder what useful purpose an unarmed guard on a "cash bag" serves. It would be cheaper, and as sensible, to adopt the system used for centuries by those who grow valuable crops—and keep a scarecrow.

ALBERTA'S MYSTICISM

In theory and in the steps, at least the preliminary ones, to put it into practice, the social credit scheme of Alberta is one of perplexing contrariety. It was emphasized during the election campaign that no aid was expected from the banks to help out in the establishment of the new economic proposal, and yet it is to the banks that Premier Aberhart is turning to give the first whiff to the social credit wheel. For election purposes the banks were portrayed as of no help to industry and consumers. It was pointed out by Premier Aberhart and his followers that the banks "profit by maintaining a scarcity value for their wares, that they carry out a restrictive policy and that they are opposed to the general interests of the community." Of course, the responsibility of office and the irresponsibility of pre-election utterances are two different things. Premier Aberhart is now facing realities; before he was shooting at the moon," says a Canadian contemporary. The Aberhart policy is, like the Douglas scheme, based on the assumption that the consumers' purchasing power is insufficient to buy the goods produced and the goods that are capable of being produced. The goal is to fill the gap between incomes and prices. One method to be adopted is a national dividend calculated on industrial productivity but distributed freely and equally to each individual in addition to any wage, salary or dividend. Another remedy is to reduce prices by decree, with the sellers compensated by new Government credits free of interest charges.

ACT OF INFLATION

When this is pointed to as an act of inflation the answer is that inflation would be prevented by stopping the issue of further credits as soon as the prices show a tendency to rise. What is aimed at is a "just price" to be arrived at by "reducing present prices in the ratio of the financial cost of total national production." How Alberta will do this as a province of the Dominion of Canada, remains to be seen. A correspondent in The Manchester Guardian points out that the Alberta "just price" is not of the orthodox Douglas variety. Moreover, the source of the "social dividend" remains under a cloud. "It," says the correspondent, "is to be found by the 'unearned increment levy' on all transactions, then the scheme would merely reduce purchasing power, and Mr. Aberhart has failed to grasp certain important points in the Douglas scheme. He has failed to grasp that Social Credit involves the creation of additional purchasing power to enable consumers to obtain more goods for a given amount of money."

MUST HAVE FUNDS

The ability to obtain more goods for a given amount of money involves the creation of funds which can only be secured by taxation, inflation or by loans. Mr. Aberhart has commenced his political career by raising loans which are repayable out of the future development of Alberta's natural resources. This is contrary to the Douglas plan. The correspondent quoted says that, "at the same time, the more thoughtful citizens are already worried sufficiently about their existing debts. However, the amount which could be raised for such consumers' credits would test the credit-worthiness of such proposals. On the other hand, Alberta has not the power to inflate its own currency. The world must feel a good deal of sympathy for this already harassed state (Alberta) attempting such a fantastic panacea, full of popular appeal, but choked with obscurity and mysticism."

a fortnight. All that has been lacking has been a direct link by air with the Straits Settlements. It is this link which will soon be forged, and inasmuch as the experimental flights now being undertaken are a preliminary to complete aerial contact with the Imperial Airways services, Hongkong is more than gratified that they have been undertaken.

"The Very Idea"

IT TAKES A BANK EXPERT TO APPRECIATE A BANK

In the Old Days Ice House Street Merchants
Traded Concubines For A Fistful of Rice

By Eddie Kelly, Loan Expert

WANDERING over the new Bank yesterday morning in between champagnes, Eddie Kelly stumbled over a parcel that looked as if it contained a large bundle of banknotes.

So many suspicious characters, disguised in top hats, were cluttering up the place that Kelly decided the safest thing to do would be to take the parcel away with him.

In revealing this act of altruism, Mr. Kelly has taken some pains to point out that he did it solely because he didn't want to see the bank start off by losing any of its property.

Arriving at his office, Mr. Kelly decided that the next best thing to do would be to open the parcel:

"I took an awful risk," he confessed. "Only the other day I was reading that millions of germs lurk on a ten dollar note."

"I couldn't risk the lives of those husky co-workers in the Telegraph office and I intended, if the contents were banknotes, to burn them."

Fortunately, Mr. Kelly on, we decided to fill in the lot more potatoes on him. By de-there and then, agrees he accumulated an enormous stock of bear skins, etc.

Mr. Taggart was there, counting the H.K. & S. Hotel champagne glasses to see how many had been souvenired by the bears died off in hundreds. For crowd, we gave him a cheque want of a feed of potatoes the for $250 in payment of last stone-club maker was too weak month's account of $180, pocket, to make stone clubs, and all the ing the change, which he handed potatoes grew eyes to see.

HOT skyscrapers.

Since we drank all that champagne yesterday morning we have alternated between being unconscious and bank-conscious.

Looking at all those massive chubb doors and grilles makes us understand what they mean when they talk about safe deposits. A crook would have as much chance of getting into the vaults as Mr. Grayburn will have of cashing the dud cheque with which we opened our account with his institution.

We became so full of champagne and enthusiasm for banking-as-a-matter-of-fact, that we gave him all our savings to mind. A five-dollar Chartered Bank note, three dollar cartwheels and eight ten-cent pieces.

Upon such faith are mighty institutions founded. We paid in our $8.80 without a tremor.

Later, however, we realised that we would want something to tide us over the rest of the month, so using our new cheque book for the first time, we got him to personally cash a cheque for $50.

'That left us with 59 blank cheques in our new cheque book so, in order to save time later course, however, and foisted

"Okay," said the rich johnny, "but I've got to have my cut. I'll give you the 500 stone axes, but you've got to give me 600 axes in return."

So the wood merchant agreed.

After a time, when another stone-age merchant wanted some axes, the richest man in the world discovered that he had run out of them. But he knew that he had some considerable reputation by this time so he picked up a stone from the bed of a nearby creek and made his private chop upon it.

"You take this stone along to Master Dave Biggar at the Chaste Cave, and tell him that I will pay him 50 stone axes when he brings it back to me. When he knows that this stone is worth 50 axes he will let you have them."

(How do we go on now, said he, pausing to wipe the sweat off his brow).

After a while Master Grayburn found out that so many cave dwellers wanted stone axes, and bearskins and concubines and things that he did not have enough space in his old cave on the Peak to accommodate them. So he decided to build himself a bigger cave.

And that is how we had so much champagne yesterday.

"Now, when we get home we can say that we saw nearly every roof garden in New York."

Hongkong Volunteers For Front?

AMBULANCE BRIGADE WANTS SUPPORT

WILLING TO RAISE UNIT

The Hongkong St. John Ambulance Brigade is willing to raise a Red Cross detachment for service in Ethiopia, provided financial guarantees are forthcoming, stated Mr. A. Morris, Director of Ambulance of the Hongkong and China District, in an interview with the Telegraph this morning. Mr. Morris added that if the material resources, he is willing to go with the detachment.

The Telegraph approached Mr. Morris on the subject in view of the fact that an appeal has been issued in London by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Mr. George Lansbury, Lord Lothian and Lord Lugard (former Governor of Hongkong) for funds for British ambulance service in Ethiopia. This appeal has been formally recognised by the British and Ethiopian Governments and is working in consultation with the International Red Cross organisation.

Asked if Hongkong would be willing to send a detachment, Mr. Morris replied: "I think we could raise a nursing detachment and a number of other volunteers, provided we get financial support. Many of the Nursing Division and possibly a number of other qualified nurses from Canton would no doubt be willing to volunteer, provided there were certain guarantees in the way of passage, etc."

GEVEVA PERMISSION

Asked the procedure which would have to be followed, Mr. Morris said: "It would be necessary for us to cable to London and get them to communicate with Geneva so as to get the consent of the International Red Cross. We do not expect any difficulties from those quarters."

Questioned regarding the guarantees which would be necessary, Mr. Morris said the question was whether they could get pub-

DAY BY DAY NEWS IN BRIEF

TRIFLES MAKE PERFECTION AND PERFECTION IS NO TRIFLE—Michelangelo.

The body of So Kam, a coal-cooter, has been removed to the Public Mortuary. He was discharging coal from the s.s. Nanshan Mui when he suddenly collapsed and died.

A woman named Lee Kwong, 46, has been admitted to the Kowloon Hospital suffering from a simple fracture of the left arm which received when she fell from a railway carriage. Her condition is reported to be good.

Chung Ming, driver of motor lorry No. 600, reports to the police that whilst driving his lorry along Des Voeux Road West, Lo Tin, a colleague accidentally fell off and received a fractured skull. He was admitted to the Government Civil Hospital but died shortly after admission.

Six weeks' hard labour was imposed by Mr. Macfadyen at the Central Police Court this morning on Young Ying, 39, unemployed, for stealing two rolls of cloth from 163 Queen's Road Central, ground floor. The defendant admitted a previous conviction for theft, Sub-Inspector Walsh prosecuted.

In keeping with modern tendencies, the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation ordered a complete sound and picture record of Thursday's opening ceremony, which will be placed in their private archives. Mr. Chester Bennett was in charge of the filming which was done by R.C.A. Possibly the film may be released to a local cinema before being stored away.

For the unlawful possession of a rattan basket containing clothing and two buckets, Hin Mok-wing, 33, unemployed, was fined $16, or three weeks' pay by Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning. On a similar charge in regard to three bags containing cement and a sieve, Chan Yee, 47, was bound over. Detective-Sergeant T. Cashman prosecuted. So Shum-ai, 17, street coolie, was similarly dealt with on a charge of the unlawful possession of soap, stockings and sugar. Sub-Inspector J.J. Walsh appeared for the prosecution.

To Lin, stonebreaker, and Chan Wong-kin, aged 16, stonebreaker, were jointly charged before Mr. W. Schofield, at the Central Magistracy this morning, with the unlawful possession of two silk bed spreads, two pairs of trousers, and a pair of lady's silk stockings at Wanchai Road on Wednesday. Detective-Sergeant Byron stated that no charge would have been brought against him if he had not made an admission of theft. Police were present at the time the man was questioned and he was not assaulted. Three months' hard labour was imposed. A representative appeared on behalf of the first defendant.

THREE-YEAR-OLD ROBBERY ARRESTED MAN SENT TO GAOL

A daring robbery committed at 275 Des Voeux Road Central on July 17, 1933, was recalled before Mr. Macfadyen. In the Central Police Court this morning when Lam Ling, 34, unemployed, pleaded guilty to stealing $8,700 in money, 18 finger rings, a wrist watch, a gold wrist band, three gold neck chains, four pairs of ear-rings and nine bangles, and by menaces or threats put Tsang Chuen-kwan and his wife in bodily fear.

Detective-Inspector M. Murphy stated that on the morning in question, five or six men were admitted to the house by complainant's folk who had been employed there for about two years previous to the robbery. After entering, the robbers poured kerosene over the occupants' clothes and threatened to set fire if they made noise. All the occupants were huddled into one room at the rear of the shop. The robbers remained on the floor for about an hour and then left. There was no criminal record against the defendant.

Six months' hard labour was passed.

THE NEW PRINCE

London, Oct. 10. A bulletin issued to-day from No. 3 Belgrave Square stated that the progress of the Duchess of Kent and her son in the preceding 24 hours had been very satisfactory.—British Wireless.

He support—whether, in fact, the idea would appeal to the public.

Asked how big a detachment could be supplied, Mr. Morris said the Brigade locally has about 150 nurses, mostly Chinese, and over 350 men, Chinese and Indians, all qualified in first-aid. "Many of them," he added, "served in Shanghai during the trouble there in 1932, and numbers of others have had a certain amount of hospital service since."

When asked if he himself would be prepared to volunteer, Mr. Morris said: "If the idea materialises, I am prepared to go with them."

Mr. Morris added that he would welcome some indication of the public feeling on the matter.

ITALIANS' CASUALTY ESTIMATE

2,500 ETHIOPIANS DIE IN BATTLE

ATTACKERS' LOSSES

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Message Ordinance, 1934. Received, October 8, 8.30 a.m.)

Adowa, Oct. 10. The Italian headquarters on the Northern Front state that the Ethiopian losses since the start of the campaign in that area number approximately 2,500 dead and 600 prisoners.

The only Italian casualties were two officers killed and 100 officers and men wounded.

The Italians are continuing frequent reconnaissance flights designed to locate the great concentrations of troops which the

ALOISI'S LAST ADDRESS?

To Empty Assembly Hall

Geneva, Oct. 10.

After the League Assembly had dispersed for lunch, Baron Aloisi reascended the rostrum and repeated the same speech he delivered to the Assembly, this time to an almost empty hall, where only sound film photographers were present. He spoke in Italian.

This will probably be his farewell appearance. Due to condemnation of Italy by the Assembly, Baron Aloisi will probably decline to attend any future session.—Reuter Special.

HEAVY LOSSES

Another source has stated that the Ethiopian losses in guerrilla fighting have been heavy, and have included a number of chieftains.

The Ethiopians have offered spasmodic counterattacks with detachments of 400 or 500, keeping the Italians busy, but they have proved no serious menace to the advance.

FANLING GOLF

STARTING TIMES FOR SUNDAY

Old Course

9.24 H. G. Wallington, T. R. Rowell.
9.28 R. H. McGregor, H. C. Hopkins.
9.32 A. E. Lissaman, D. J. Gilmore.
9.36 E. Taylor, P. L. Collison.
9.40 H. H. Beddow, D. L. Prophet.
9.44 K. K. Round, I. H. Geare.
9.48 P. Morrison, E. D. Matthews.
9.52 W. J. S. Key, D. S. Edward.
9.56 A. T. Lay, E. Bathurst.
10.00 H. Jusserand, R. A. Rodgers.
10.04 E. G. Smith, Wright, X. Webb.

DOUBLE TENTH CELEBRATED

FESTIVE DOINGS IN MACAO

Macao, Oct. 10. Macao has just seen another festive holiday in the celebrations of the "Double Tenth". Large crowds thronged the main thoroughfares of the city all day long. The streets have been a profusion of colour and the bursting of innumerable strings of red firecrackers from the many Chinese establishments along the Avenida Almeida Ribeiro proclaim "good joss" to the Republic of China.

A formal reception which took place in the offices of the China Merchants Association was attended by H. E. the Acting Governor of Macao, Dr. J. Pereira Barbosa, and a representative gathering of Portuguese Government officials and many Chinese members of the Association. In addressing a few words of appreciation to the gathering, H. E. the Acting Governor expressed his appreciation of the Sino-Portuguese friendship and hoped that the two nations would work together in close harmony for many years.

Residents of Macao returning from the inaugural ceremony of the opening of the Hongkong Bank's new premises and the races in the afternoon at Happy Valley, were greeted with sight of a galaxy of lights along the busy highways of Macao. The lights outlining the new Sincere Co building and other Chinese hotels along the waterfront, lent charm to the spectacle.

All the Chinese school children took prominent part in various lantern processions which proved to be one of the principal attractions of the day's celebrations. There were special issues of the Chinese newspapers.—Our Own Correspondent.

CAR DRIVER FINED

DANGEROUS DRIVING ON MAINLAND

A fine of $20 was imposed on Siu Kal-hong, driver of public car No. 795, when he appeared before Mr. Thomson at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning in answer to a summons for driving in a manner dangerous to the public on the Castle Peak Road near the Brewery. Mr. A. Y. Calame, the owner of private car No. 4226, appeared as complainant and stated in evidence that about 11.30 a.m. on September 22, he was driving along Castle Peak Road towards Kowloon, and at a bend about 12½ miles from Kowloon, public car No. 795 came round the corner on the wrong side of the road at a speed of between 30 to 35 miles-an-hour. Witness was forced to apply the brakes and just managed to clear the hillside by a few inches.

Witness did not see any pedestrians on the road. The driver of the car appeared to be either sleeping or did not know the road.

Corroborative evidence was then given by Mr. J. H. Ruttonjee, who was a passenger in complainant's car.

In the course of his evidence, defendant alleged that when he came to the bend, he saw a woman walking towards the Brewery. He sounded the horn twice, but the woman did not appear to hear, so he had to swerve to avoid her. Witness did not encroach upon the wrong side of the road; he merely swerved a little to avoid the woman.

HORRIBLE CRIME

Chieng, Oct. 10. The jury had been completed in the trial of Mandeville Zenge, accused of the emasculation murder of Dr. Walter Bauer, and the prosecutor, Mr. Charles Dougherty, in his opening statement, demanded the death penalty.—United Press.

DAVENTRY PROGRAMMES

To-day's Broadcasting From Four Transmissions

The following wave-lengths and frequencies are broadcast through DJQ on 19.63 metres (18.298 k.c.) 10.30-8 p.m. Concert news at 2 p.m.

9 p.m. G.S.C. DJA, DJN, DJM (Germ., Eng.) Popular Ballads, Melody, Folk Songs, Programmes Forecast (Germ., Eng.).

9.15 p.m. Country Music, News in English, German, French.

6.45 p.m. News in German, English, French, Programmes Forecast (Germ., Eng.).

9.45 p.m. News in English on DJA and in Dutch on DJB, DJN, DJM. Dutch News, Recitation, Dr. Fritz Schwieck.

10.15 p.m. Brass Band.

10.45 p.m. News in German on DJA, DJB, DJC, DJM. Close down DJB, DJN (Germ., Eng.).

11.15 p.m. Concerts, Songs and Piano Music by Max Reger.

12.15 a.m. News in English on DJA and in Dutch on DJB, DJM.

12.30 a.m. Close down DJA, DJN (Germ., Eng.).

EAST ASIA ZONE

East Asia Zone, broadcast through DJQ on 19.63 metres (18.298 k.c.) 10.30-8 p.m. Concert news at 2 p.m.

9 p.m. G.S.C. DJA, DJN, DJM (Germ., Eng.) Popular Ballads, Melody, Folk Songs, Programmes Forecast (Germ., Eng.).

9.15 p.m. Country Music, News in English, German, French.

6.45 p.m. News in German, English, French, Programmes Forecast (Germ., Eng.).

9.45 p.m. News in English on DJA and in Dutch on DJB, DJN, DJM. Dutch News, Recitation, Dr. Fritz Schwieck.

10.15 p.m. Brass Band.

10.45 p.m. News in German on DJA, DJB, DJC, DJM. Close down DJB, DJN (Germ., Eng.).

11.15 p.m. Concerts, Songs and Piano Music by Max Reger.

12.15 a.m. News in English on DJA and in Dutch on DJB, DJM.

12.30 a.m. Close down DJA, DJN (Germ., Eng.).

TRANSMISSION 5

(G.S.B. and G.R.S.) Big Ben. Popular Ballads, Melody, Mitchells (Contralto) and Wilfred Miles (Tenor).

7.30 p.m. Big Ben by Helga Krog. A play translated from the Norwegian by Marianne Helgesen.

8.15 p.m. Greenwich Time Signal at 8 p.m. at the Victoria Creek Quartz.

8.45 a.m. The News.

12.15 p.m. Close down.

TRANSMISSION 6

(G.S.B. and G.R.S.) Big Ben. "Mixed Pickles—No. 4" with sophisticated sketches, simple songs and some stunts. Bottled by C. G. Holden.

11.45 p.m. "Mixed Pickles—No. 4" with sophisticated sketches, simple songs and some stunts. Bottled by C. G. Holden.

12.15 p.m. Big Ben. "An Afternoon Nap." A post-prandial programme of variety.

10.30 p.m. Sports Talk.

10.45 p.m. B.D.C. Northern Orchestra.

11.30 p.m. "Mixed Pickles—No. 4" with sophisticated sketches, simple songs and some stunts. Bottled by C. G. Holden.

12.15 p.m. Big Ben. "An Afternoon Nap." A post-prandial programme of variety.

10 p.m. Big Ben. "An Afternoon Nap." A post-prandial programme of variety.

TRANSMISSION 7

(G.S.G. and G.R.S.) Big Ben. "Mixed Pickles—No. 4" with sophisticated sketches, simple songs and some stunts. Bottled by C. G. Holden.

11.45 p.m. "Mixed Pickles—No. 4" with sophisticated sketches, simple songs and some stunts. Bottled by C. G. Holden.

12.15 p.m. Big Ben. "An Afternoon Nap." A post-prandial programme of variety.

10 p.m. Big Ben. "An Afternoon Nap." A post-prandial programme of variety.

11.45 p.m. "Mixed Pickles—No. 4" with sophisticated sketches, simple songs and some stunts. Bottled by C. G. Holden.

12.15 p.m. Big Ben. "An Afternoon Nap." A post-prandial programme of variety.

10 p.m. Big Ben. "An Afternoon Nap." A post-prandial programme of variety.

11.45 p.m. "Mixed Pickles—No. 4" with sophisticated sketches, simple songs and some stunts. Bottled by C. G. Holden.

12.15 p.m. Big Ben. "An Afternoon Nap." A post-prandial programme of variety.

SHANGHAI'S SUPERIORITY OVER LOCAL BOWLERS

HONGKONG RINK TROUNCED IN INTERPORT

VISITORS START BADLY BUT RECOVER WELL

COLONY PLAYERS FAIL TO FIND THEIR TRUE FORM

(By "Sagax")

Wednesday's match against the combined Police R. C. and Civil Service C. C. rink was certainly no criterion of Shanghai's capabilities as lawn bowlers and in the First Interport contest on the Club de Recreio green yesterday afternoon, the visitors from the North not only beat the Colony quartette, but they completely outplayed our rink after a very poor start, the final score being 30 shots to 13.

No excuse can be offered for the Colony's defeat beyond the obvious explanation that the visitors were the superior of the two rinks and that the scores of 30 shots to 13 was fairly indicative of the general run of the play. Admittedly, Lux deserved better luck than with some of his shots but he was the only local representative who can be said to have justified his selection.

For an interport match the general standard of the bowls reproduced was not high, particularly during the opening heads but in the second half of the game, when the visitors were dominating the play there was some brilliant bowls played. It was from the Shanghai men that the thrills came and never were four interport bowlers more deserving of such a convincing victory.

Shanghai's total is not a record for an Interport match between the two Associations but it comes very near to being the highest ever registered. Only once before has it been exceeded and that was by the 1927 Shanghai team which beat Hongkong by 31-17 on the Crapen-gower C. C. green when J. W. Brierley, one of the six now in Hongkong, made his first appearance. In the man took his place in the passenger's seat. Then, with the wife driving, they set off for the husband's sports shop in Northampton.

Vallance William Crisp Jupp, England and Northants cricketer, who was sentenced at Northampton Assizes to nine months' imprisonment last January for manslaughter while driving his car, had returned to the world.

His sentence included disqualification from driving for two years.

Jupp, superb batsman, had kept up his wicket all summer in Bedford prison. He expiated his offence with full remission marks for good conduct.

When the car halted in Northampton friends, acquaintances, and even strangers waved cheery greetings to him.

Jupp received them shyly and retreated to the back of the shop.

Mrs. Jupp, his grey-haired Scots wife, who had waited patiently with Gillian, her seven-year-old daughter, kept back the curious.

"He is fit," she said. "It would merely be maudlin to say I am glad to have him back."

The Shanghai Interport lawn bowlers this afternoon will meet the combined Kowloon Cricket Club and Club de Recreio rink on the Kowloon C. C. green.

The Second Interport match will be played to-morrow on the Civil Service C. C. green. His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, (the Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith), has signified his intention of being present.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first match ever played Shanghai scored 30 shots against the "Big Four's" total of eleven.

Visitors find form.

It took Shanghai but half a dozen heads during which, to adapt themselves to the strange local conditions and although they were scratchy at the start, they improved to such an amazing extent upon their opening form that the Colony players were completely taken aback and were never in the picture.

Outstanding among the Shanghai players was J. Munro, the Hon. Secretary of the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Association, and the captain of the team. It was he who maintained the most consistent form throughout the 21 heads and who actually laid the foundation for the big score registered against the Hongkong players. Never was he outplayed by his opposite number, C. G. Silva, and it was only during the concluding stages of the game that his brilliance was eclipsed by the uncanny accuracy of C. W. Glover, the Northern skip.

When the other Shanghai players were "looking for the green" Munro had his delivery judged down to a nicety and he was early prominent. Had it not been for some exceptionally fine play by R. F. Lux, the Hongkong skip, Munro would have been able to prevent the Colony's early lead of nine shots to one. Even when he was not interfering with the lie Munro was putting his Players in yesterday's Interport Lawn Bowls match anxiously awaiting a delivery from R. F. Lux, the Hongkong skip, during one of the heads. Reading from left to right the players in the picture are:—C. W. Glover (Shanghai's skip); J. E. Noronha; J. M. C. Lopes; C. Richards; R. P. Phillips (umpire); J. Munro and C. G. Silva. (Photo: Ming-Yuen).

R. F. Lux, who played a lone hand against Shanghai.

BROADCAST OF THE CUP FINAL

NOW A NATIONAL FESTIVAL

ABOLITION BEING OPPOSED

(By JOHN BELL)

London, Sept. 14. Congratulations to Mr. W. Pickford and others of the F.A. Council who share his recently expressed view that the broadcast of the Cup Final at Wembley is a national festival like the Derby or the Boat Race.

For a long time there has been talk of discontinuing the broadcast and the whole question will, I am informed, be discussed at the next meeting of the F.A.

There is no doubt that practically all the League clubs in England will oppose another broadcast commentary from Wembley because of the effect on attendances at smaller matches upon that particular April day.

The issue before the F.A., when they come to consider the matter is this:

Are they, who have full control in all things relating to the Cup, to preserve the broadcast and so repeat the pleasure which it gives to thousands lying in hospitals and others who, for various reasons, are confined to their homes?

Are they to listen to the plea of the League clubs who point out that the preference of so many for the fireside on Cup Final day is losing them some hundreds of pounds in gate receipts?

BEATING TO ONE TIME

In other words, the F.A. are asked if they govern a game in which questions of finance have crept so near to its heart that it beats to one tune only—the click of the turnstiles.

Are they wilfully to destroy those moments allowed a large army of people whose physical disability leaves them just this one opportunity to recapture something of the game's thrill?

And I would say this to the clubs whose eyes are too closely glued to their balance-sheets. That the enormous following which the football game commands to-day has grown from a small beginning, just so quickly as interest in the Cup Final has grown.

It was the glamour of the Final scene which drew the curious crowds in the early days and if to-day the loud-speaker takes up the clarion call the game must gain new friends. If it is worth hearing it is worth watching.

Germany have now accepted the invitation of the Football Association to play an international match in England on December 4. A venue for the game has not yet been fixed.

Referee Mr. Fogg is A Diplomat

OFFICIATES ON CONTINENT

Vienna, Sept. 14. Mr. A. E. Fogg, of Bolton, Cup Final referee at Wembley last April, had the diplomat's job to-day of controlling the Central European Cup Final between the Czech champions, Spartans, and Hungary's Ferenczvaros.

An intense was the national excitement aroused in both countries by the championship that it was agreed to ask neutral Britain to undertake the refereeing.

For ninety minutes Mr. Fogg acted as The Dictator with the Iron Nerves. He ruled over twenty-two players and 56,000 frenzied spectators. And at the end, after Spartan had won, fifty-six thousand and twenty-two people broke into spontaneous cheers for Mr. Fogg.

RUGBY FOOTBALL IN ENGLAND

COUNTY MATCHES COMMENCE

ALL BLACKS WIN

London, Oct. 10. The New Zealand rugby football tourists yesterday won their seventh victory of the season, beating Northumberland and Durham at Gosport by ten points to six.

The first of the County Championship matches was played off-to-day when East Midlands and Warwickshire met at Northampton in the Midland Group. The East Midlands beat last year's Group champions by eleven points to seven.

Germany have now accepted the invitation of the Football Association to play an international match in England on December 4. A venue for the game has not yet been fixed.

YOUR BLOOD

IN HEALTH OR DISEASE

Pure Blood is HEALTH, VIGOUR, and LIFE. Impure Blood is the root cause of Skin Diseases, Boils, Rashes, Ulcers, Sores, Glandular Swellings, Rheumatism. The poisons result in damage to the Arteries, Internal organs and In premature old age. The direct way to health is by purifying the blood with in LIQUID or TABLET form of all Chemists and Druggists.

Clarke's Blood Mixture is a liquid or tablet form of all chemists and druggists. It is used for the treatment of skin diseases, boils, rashes, ulcers, sores, glandular swellings, rheumatism, and internal organs. It is also used for premature old age. The direct way to health is by purifying the blood with Clarke's Blood Mixture.

VALLANCE JUPP

CRICKETER RETURNS TO FREEDOM

Northampton, Sept. 16. A husband and wife emerged from a picturesque, ivy-covered house in the village of Brixworth this morning and brought their saloon car from the garage.

Villagers watched curiously as the man took his place in the passenger's seat. Then, with the wife driving, they set off for the husband's sports shop in Northampton.

Vallance William Crisp Jupp, England and Northants cricketer, who was sentenced at Northampton Assizes to nine months' imprisonment last January for manslaughter while driving his car, had returned to the world.

His sentence included disqualification from driving for two years.

Jupp, superb batsman, had kept up his wicket all summer in Bedford prison.

He expiated his offence with full remission marks for good conduct.

When the car halted in Northampton friends, acquaintances, and even strangers waved cheery greetings to him.

Jupp received them shyly and retreated to the back of the shop.

Mrs. Jupp, his grey-haired Scots wife, who had waited patiently with Gillian, her seven-year-old daughter, kept back the curious.

"He is fit," she said. "It would merely be maudlin to say I am glad to have him back."

The Shanghai Interport lawn bowlers this afternoon will meet the combined Kowloon Cricket Club and Club de Recreio rink on the Kowloon C. C. green.

The Second Interport match will be played to-morrow on the Civil Service C. C. green. His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, (the Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith), has signified his intention of being present.

It is understood that among the official guests who will be present at the dinner on Wednesday will be the Acting Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, and Commodore C. G. Sedgwick.

The first match ever played Shanghai scored 30 shots against the "Big Four's" total of eleven.

Visitors find form.

It took Shanghai but half a dozen heads during which, to adapt themselves to the strange local conditions and although they were scratchy at the start, they improved to such an amazing extent upon their opening form that the Colony players were completely taken aback and were never in the picture.

Outstanding among the Shanghai players was J. Munro, the Hon. Secretary of the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Association, and the captain of the team. It was he who maintained the most consistent form throughout the 21 heads and who actually laid the foundation for the big score registered against the Hongkong players. Never was he outplayed by his opposite number, C. G. Silva, and it was only during the concluding stages of the game that his brilliance was eclipsed by the uncanny accuracy of C. W. Glover, the Northern skip.

When the other Shanghai players were "looking for the green" Munro had his delivery judged down to a nicety and he was early prominent. Had it not been for some exceptionally fine play by R. F. Lux, the Hongkong skip, Munro would have been able to prevent the Colony's early lead of nine shots to one. Even when he was not interfering with the lie Munro was putting his

INTERPORT CRICKET TRIAL

DESCRIPTION OF GAME PROMISED

REQUEST TO CLUB SECRETARIES

(By R. Abbott)

Eastbourne, Sept. 13. R. K. Tinkler achieved one of the foremost feats of his career in beating G. L. Rogers in the semi-final of the South of England Championship, at Devonshire Park to-day.

Rogers, who won the cup in 1932, has been regarded this year as rather less formidable than he used to be, but I could see nothing much wrong with his game to-day except that he was not volleying quite so often as he had been known to do, although he has always relied mainly on his baseline play. In this instance he was up against a man whose long suit was his vollying, and I think he counted on being able to check the vollyer by means of his powerful and accurate passing strokes.

That he failed to do this was due, to some extent, to the fact that he occasionally broke down over fairly simple shots, but the main cause of his defeat was Tinkler's really sterling play. Its key-note was sustained aggression and the pertinacious employment of pressure. This is something that our Davis Cup men have, I think, at last succeeded in instilling into their understandings.

Tinkler's main line of attack was via the backhand, with drives hard and deep which needed a lot of skilful handling. Of course, his volleys failed sometimes, but he, rightly, did not allow that to discourage him. They came off often enough for all practical purposes, and a swing over to a forehand side attack often bore fruit. I ought to add that when unable to volley he held his own quite ably from the base-line—another factor in his victory, since man cannot live by vollying alone.

EARLY SERVICE BREAKS

Two early service breaks in the first set neutralised each other, and they went on winning their services up to 5-5; then came a hectic game. Rogers, serving, reached 40; Tinkler caught him, and won the game after eleven deuces, with the majority of vantage points going to Rogers, until Tinkler got the last one and clinched it. Then Tinkler went out majestically from 0-30 down.

In the second set there were again two early service breaks, one each way, after which they hammered 40-0, but could not quite agree it although he reached vantage point.

NEWMARKET RACES NEXT WEEK

CESAREWITCH CALL-OVER

CAMBRIDGESHIRE PRICES

London, Oct. 10. Woodstock has now been established favourite for the Cesarewitch which is being run at Newmarket on Wednesday next over 2½ miles. Doreen Jane, the former favourite, is now second on the list.

The latest call-over for the race gives the following starting prices:

15/2	Woodstock (o)
8/1	Woodstock (t)
21/2	Doreen Jane (t and o)
100/9	Shining Cloud (t and o)
100/7	Tommack (t and o)
100/6	Lucky Patch (o)
18/1	Lucky Patch (t)
18/1	Polly Stephens (o)
20/1	Polly Stephens (t)
18/1	Quashed (o)
20/1	Quashed (t)
22/1	Hoplite (o)
22/1	Semarkand (t and o)
22/1	Neat Relation (t and o)
22/1	Chrysler II (o)
25/1	Chrysler II (t)
28/1	Nightcap III (t and o)
28/1	Bunkswal (o)
33/1	Bunkswal (t)
34/1	Handsoff (o)
40/1	Handsoff (t)
40/1	Cornered (t and o)

—Reuter.

Finalist, one time favourite for the Cambridgeshire, to be run at Newmarket on Wednesday, October 30, is now third to Pegasus and Law Court.

The latest call-over prices are as follow:

19/2	Pegasus (o)
<tbl_info cols

HONGKONG BOWLERS DEFEATED

Shanghai Recover After A Bad Start

(Continued from Page 8.)

woods in places where they were always likely to prove useful and it was exceptionally rare that both his woods were wasted.

GLOVER IMPROVES

Against the consistency of Munro throughout the 21 heads was the sudden brilliance of Glover in the concluding heads when he improved on his form of the opening ends during which his bowling was listless and ineffective and it was Glover's accuracy which sealed Hongkong's fate for when he was in his most destructive form it was indeed a sad time for the Colony. Many a promising head was spoilt by Glover's uncanny deliveries, which broke up the positions and gave Shanghai the count.

It seemed impossible that the player skipping Shanghai during the first ten heads and the man directing them in the last ten were one and the same for the difference in the play was so pronounced that one would never have thought it was Glover who was skipping in each instance.

When on the eighth head Shanghai lay two shots with the position very delicate and Glover cautiously played his last wood on to the adjoining green, somebody rather facetiously remarked "that's the best shot you have played," and that seemed to be the general opinion—so badly had Glover been skipping the rink during the first half of the match.

However, the spectators and all the Shanghai players were able to forgive and forget and to accord due credit to the Shanghai skip for his brilliant work after the first half of the game. Glover became, in an instant, the outstanding player on the green and was constantly applauded for some skillful play.

LEADERS WEAK

Neither Lopes nor Richards were up to their best and in the beginning both were completely off form although the Lustiano representative was easily the better of the two visitors. He was playing short heads at his skip's direction and it was on these that the Shanghai players were prominent as they were not altogether happy on the few long heads that Hongkong was able to obtain.

After finding the green Lopes was an ideal lead although quite a few erratic deliveries were still being sent down by him.

Richards was never at home as No. 2 and except for a slight improvement towards the end he was incapable of the form which he revealed in the inter-ports of 1932 when he skipped one rink and played No. 3 in the other two.

The Hongkong team can be dismissed in a few words, probably the fewer the better. Only Luz was offering any opposition to the Shanghai players and the way he dominated the play on the first three heads was nothing short-of-amazing. He was able to do almost anything he willed and of the first seven shots scored by Hongkong himself registered four, either by drawing or dislodging opposition woods. He played well throughout but at times his form suffered through lack of support.

None of the other three players were anywhere near Interport standard and their form would have shamed many players in an ordinary club match. Guy was occasionally drawing some good shots but the occasions were few and far between. Silva failed to reproduce any of his fine form while Noronha was a dim-appointment.

COLONY'S EARLY LEAD

When Hongkong ran away with a seven shot lead on the first three heads there were few spectators who were prepared to wager that the visitors would be able to extend our players, let alone beat them by such a convincing margin as 30-13.

Silva and Luz proved the most accurate of the bowlers on the first head on which Hongkong scored a three. The two Portuguese players each drew one shot while another was promoted by an opponent. On the second head Luz drew two woods almost dead on the jack and Hongkong registered another three.

The best shot of the third head was delivered by Luz who carried the jack into the ditch when Shanghai lay the shot. Hongkong chalked up a single and made the score 7-0.

Shanghai's first shot came from Munro who rested Guy's erstwhile counter. Luz made two attempts at driving but failed narrowly on each occasion.

When Shanghai lay second shot on the fifth head Luz, with a narrow passage to negotiate, dislodged the visitors' wood and gave Hongkong an extra shot, making the score 9-1.

Lopes showed better form on the sixth head and was on the jack with one of his deliveries while Munro drew two more shots. Luz sent down a shot which was only three inches from the jack but Shanghai had one resting on the "litty" while Munro's better wood was still second shot.

SHANGHAI TAKES LEAD

Munro was again prominent on the seventh head with two perfect shots, which culminated in Shanghai laying three to make the score 9-6 in favour of Hongkong. Two on the eighth head made matters more interesting but on the next head Hongkong again forged ahead.

It was on the eleventh head, whilst tea was being served to players and spectators that Shanghai took the lead for the first time. Glover sent down two perfect woods. With one he drew dead to the jack and with the other he dislodged a Hongkong wood to secure a count of four.

Shanghai threatened to gain a commanding lead on the next head when Glover had two perfect shots after Munro and Lopes had given Shanghai a lie of two or three. With a count of four and possibly five staring him in the face Luz had no alternative but to break up the head and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play with more accurate second shots and—apart from one lapse—some remarkable putting.

Padgham, who had saved the second hole, after a pulled second, by holing a 5-yard putt, took the lead at the 3rd, where he banged his second to within four feet of the pin and holed his putt for 3. He went further ahead at the 6th, where Whitcombe, endeavouring to cut his second up, pulled it far over the road.

Speaking of the 17th hole, J. H. Taylor said that it was the first time he had ever seen the cross-bunker.

Both Alliss and Burton produced a grim struggle which was in doubt until the last putt on the last green. Burton was unlucky to lose and he thoroughly justified his selection as a member of the Ryder Cup series for the first time.

Padgham won this tournament over the same course in 1931 and Alliss in 1933 at Purley Down, Mark Seymour being the runner-up in each case.

The tournament has seen some brilliant golf and stern fighting. The semi-finals were fully up to the standard of the week's play. Padgham beat R. A. Whitcombe by 4 and 3, and Alliss got home by one hole in a desperate finish against Burton.

Both Padgham and Whitcombe were a little wild at the start, but play

LONDON SERVICE

ANTENOR sails 23 Oct. for Marseilles, Casablanca, London, Rotterdam & Glasgow

ACHILLES sails 4 Nov. for Casablanca, London, Rotterdam, Hamburg & Hull

LIVERPOOL SERVICE

EUMAEUS sails 1 Nov. for Havre, Liverpool, Brumbeough & Glasgow

NEW YORK SERVICE

MARON sails 7 Dec. for Boston, N.Y., Philadelphia and Baltimore, via Manila, Batavia, Straits & Capo di Good Hope.

PACIFIC SERVICE (via Kobe, Nagoya &amp; Yokohama)

TALITHIUS sails 24 Oct. for Victoria, Vancouver & Seattle

INWARD SERVICE

HECTOR Due 12 Oct. From U.K. via Straits
PROTESILOUS Due 21 Oct. From U.K. via Straits

*Specially reduced fares are quoted for cargo & passengers with limited passenger accommodation.

For freight, passenger rates and information apply to

BUTTERFIELD & SWIRE.

Tel. 59333. Agents: 1, Connaught Road, C.

LLOYD TRIESTINO
FLOTTE PUNTERI LLOYD TRIESTINO MARITIMA ITALIANA-SITMAR

EXPRESS PASSENGER SERVICE

TAKE ADVANTAGE of our SPECIAL REDUCED TWO MONTHS RETURN TICKETS allowing a stop over of about 8 weeks in India, 9 weeks in Ceylon or 10 weeks in the Straits.

To	1st.	2nd.	2nd Econ. class
Bombay	£44	£25	£21
Colombo	£41	£22	£19
Singapore	£18	£13	£11

NEXT SAILING 8.8. "CONTE VERDE" 11th October.

Same reduced RETURN TICKETS to SHANGHAI

1st. cl. £12, 2nd. cl. £9, 2nd. Econ. cl. £6.

For full particulars apply to:

LLOYD TRIESTINO

Queen's Building, ground floor.
Tel. Ad. "LLOYDIANO" P.O.B. 143 Telephone 32081.
Agents, Canton-Messrs. DUDWELL & CO., LTD., SHAMEEN.

THE SWEDISH EAST ASIATIC

SERVICE OF FAST MOTOR VESSELS

(with limited, but exceptionally good, passenger accommodation).

Homeward to:

Port Said, Marseilles, Algiers, Oran, Casablanca, Rotterdam (Amsterdam), Hamburg, Oslo, Gothenburg and other Scandinavian Ports.

via

Manila and Straits Settlements

M.V. "SHANTUNG" ..... 3rd Nov.

S.S. "CEYLON" ..... 3rd Dec.

Outwards to:

Shanghai, Yokohama, Kobe and Osaka.

S.S. "CEYLON" ..... 22nd Oct.

M.S. "TAMARA" ..... 19th Nov.

Passenger Rates:

Hong Kong to Mediterranean ..... £48

Hong Kong to Rotterdam ..... £55

Agents:

GILMAN & CO. LTD.

Hongkong.

G. E. HUYGEN

Canton.

HONGKONG BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

DONATIONS GRATEFULLY RECEIVED

Please send to the Honorary Treasurer:

Mrs. E. I. Wynne-Jones

404, The Peak.

SERIAL STORY

One I Love

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

CHAPTER XLVII

Janet said, "Why, yes, I remember you, Jeff Grant introduced us one day last summer. You're Miss—she hesitated—"Miss Calahan, isn't it?"

"So I made an impression!" the other girl said in mock surprise. "Yes, Dolores Calahan's my name. I've seen you a couple of times since but you didn't see me. Riding around in a big car with a chauffeur I guess you wouldn't notice anybody like me! But just the same I've got something to say to you and I'm going to get it off my chest!"

"Why, of course—" Janet began but the other girl interrupted. Dolores' dark eyes were defiant.

"What's the idea of two-timing a swell guy like Jeff Grant?" she demanded. "I saw you out there with your blond boy friend! It's because Jeff's out of town, I suppose."

"What in the world are you talking about?"

"I'm talking about you and the way you treat Jeff Grant!" Dolores went on. "You needn't act so innocent! Because you can't get away with it. The Calahan's aren't afraid to say what they think to anybody and I'm telling you right now I think you're the limit! You're the kind of a girl who thinks it's smart to let a fellow get crazy over her and then give him the air. You don't want Jeff but you don't want anyone else to have him either!"

"But—" Dolores stopped her. "Wait a minute," she said. "I'm not going to stop until I've finished. I'm not ashamed to admit I like Jeff myself and I tried to make him fall for me. I'm not the only one, either. I didn't have a chance and neither did any of the others. Why? Because he's so wild about you he doesn't know we're on earth. Say, if you don't want him why can't you lay off? Give somebody else a chance, can't you?"

Dolores was staring at her. "Do you mean, you think Jeff is in love with me?"

Dolores tossed her head. "I'd be blind if I couldn't see that!"

"Yeah! You thought you'd play your little game. Play around with your blond Barrymore and let a swell guy like Jeff break his heart! There ought to be something done about dames like you. You make me sick!"

"Just what," Janet asked in a strained voice, "makes you think Jeff Grant is in love with me?"

"I guess I saw the way he looked at you! I've seen him mooning over a picture of you he's got, too. Oh, don't try to play innocent..."

"But he hasn't any picture of me."

"Yes, he has. A snap-shot with a couple of kids beside you. And one day I heard him talking to you on the telephone."

Janet remembered the snapshot then. Jeff had taken it the day of the picnic for Rosie and Tommy Silvani. She had had no idea that he had kept one of the prints for himself.

"Listen," Dolores went on. "I'll tell you one thing—the Calahans play square. I wouldn't be a cheap little cheater like you for anything in the world. You'll go on just the same, I suppose. You'll break Jeff's heart and then laugh at him but at least I've had the satisfaction of telling you exactly what I think of you. Good Night, Miss High-and-Mighty Janet Hill!"

Head in the air, with a quick whirl, she made her exit. Janet turned toward the mirror. Five minutes later she was still staring at her reflection there.

It was three days later. There was no softly lighted table with flowers and gleaming silver and an orchestra in the distance as there had been at Roigal's. This table stood in the bright midday glare of the door. On the sidewalk outside he signalled a cab.

"But where are you going?" Janet asked. "You'll see." They stepped inside the cab. "Just head for the park," Jeff told the driver. "And keep going."

The cab started off with a jolt. Quite naturally Jeff's arm slipped about the girl's waist. Quite naturally his cheek brushed the velvet softness of hers. "Janet," he said huskily, "haven't you known you're the only girl in the world I care about? There never has been any other. Didn't you know it was you and nobody else but you all the time?"

"Hear eyes were pools of happiness. "I thought it was Dolores," she told him. "And I thought I loved Rolf, but I found out I didn't. I've never really loved him. It was the person I thought he was that I cared about."

"You're sure, dear?"

"Sure!"

"Oh, you darling!" His arms tightened about her. "Janet, you're sweet. So—so wonderful!" His lips found hers and all at once the world became miraculous and breathless. Seizing them and marking the most of them is what takes the brains. What in the dickens made you think of that?"

"Oh—just something. I've got another funny question to ask, too. Will you tell me the truth?"

"Maybe. Have to hear what it is first."

"You're sure, dear?"

"Oh, you darling!" His arms tightened about her. "Janet, you're sweet. So—so wonderful!" His lips found hers and all at once the world became miraculous and breathless. Seizing them and marking the most of them is what takes the brains. What in the dickens made you think of that?"

"When is she coming?"

"Then you didn't buy it—because you were in love with her?"

"In love with Dolores?" he asked, astonished. "Say, for Lord sake!" The words were lost in sharp laughter. And I'm going to do everything in the world to make you happy. I've got $500 in the bank!"

"Five hundred dollars! Oh, Jeff, we'll be rich!"

"I will," he said. "With you. I'd be rich if I didn't have a cent. Oh, Janet, didn't you know all along?" He stopped suddenly. "There's something I forgot," he added.

"What?"

"Something important. I forgot to say, Janet, I love you. More than anything or everything in the world! I love you, darling. I love you!" Her cheek was against his. She put a hand up and drew his face closer. "And I love you," she said. "Oh, Jeff, tell me again!"

He told her in a manner completely convincing.

THE END.

Do They Call It Gay Paree? Supporting roles in the comedy are ably handled by Lynne Overman and Jessie Ralph.

"Car 99"

The exploits and adventures of the Michigan State Police, most famous of the nation's crime hunting forces, is the subject of "Car 99," the Paramount picture next change at the Queen's Theatre, with Fred MacMurray, Sir Guy Standing and Ann Sheridan heading the cast. Packed with thrills and mile-a-minute action, this is a colourful and authentic picture of what these peace-loving soldiers must encounter in the performance of their arduous and often dangerous duty. The stern sense of loyalty and devotion which this force inculcates in its men is revealed in the career of Fred MacMurray who plays a rookie trooper. Urged by the girl he loves, he joins the force and soon distinguishes himself by bravery in the apprehension of criminals. Throughout the stirring episodes of "Car 99" there is a pleasing note of humour, principally carried by the extremely capable and jovial William Frawley as a trouper lieutenant. Adapted from the series of shore stories by Karl Detzer, which recently appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, the picture was directed by Charles Barton.

"Orchids To You"

One of the most unusual romantic dramas ever to come out of Hollywood is Fox Film's "Orchids To You," is due at the Alhambra on Sunday. With a brilliant cast, sparkling dialogue and a most novel setting, the picture has been declared a smash hit by previewers. In "Orchids To You" John Boles, the screen's most popular singing star, plays the role of a clever shore lawyer. He thrillers previewing audiences with his flight to bush a pretty girl florist from her prosperous business. The way he loves, he joins the force and soon distinguishes himself by bravery in the apprehension of criminals. Throughout the stirring episodes of "Car 99" there is a pleasing note of humour, principally carried by the extremely capable and jovial William Frawley as a trouper lieutenant. Adapted from the series of shore stories by Karl Detzer, which recently appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, the picture was directed by Charles Barton.

"The Informer"

Produced by the same studio and staff that made film history with "The Lost Patrol" and presenting Victor McLaglen as the same star, Liam O'Flaherty's widely-read novel, "The Informer," comes to the screen as a John Ford production for RKO-Radio, and is showing to-day at the King's Theatre. Accounted one of the greatest character studies and most absorbing stories known to literature, "The Informer" affords McLaglen what he considers the finest role of his entire career. While the drama centres closely about the life and work of the protagonist, "The Informer" is a riotous, bubbling, effervescent film of love and gay manifestations in the beautiful city of the Soiree. Mack Gordon and Harry Revel, those prolific geniuses of music, composed the musical score which Miss Elsa Lanchester sings in this picture, and it includes such hits as "Bon Jour Mam'selle" and "Why She's".

"Paris in Spring"

The screen's leading lady of song and its most debonair lover are curiously together on the screen of the Star Theatre, where Mary Ellis and Tullio Carminati enact the leads of Paramount's delightful romantic comedy with music, "Paris in Spring." Skillfully directed by Lewis Milestone who has no equal for lightness, of touch, "Paris in Spring" is a riotous, bubbling, effervescent film of love and gay manifestations in the beautiful city of the Soiree. Mack Gordon and Harry Revel, those prolific geniuses of music, composed the musical score which Miss Elsa Lanchester sings in this picture, and it includes such hits as "Bon Jour Mam'selle" and "Why She's".

PRESIDENT LINERS
are
LUXURY LINERS
with All the Comforts of a Fine Hotel

If you like airy, commodious rooms, with deep-sprung beds and every other modern hotel comfort, you are bound to like travelling on President Liners. For to these, and to a famed cuisine, these liners add luxurios lounges and smoking rooms, an outdoor swimming pool and generous space for other sports. Investigate before you plan your next trip.

TO SAN FRANCISCO
18 DAYSTO SEATTLE, VICTORIA
17 DAYS

THE SUNSHINE ROUTE Via Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama, Honolulu, San Francisco, Panama Canal, Havana, New York.

Fortnightly Sailings

Pres. Taft 6 a.m. Oct. 23

Pres. Hoover 6 a.m. Nov. 2

Pres. Pierce 6 a.m. Nov. 20

Pres. Collidge 6 a.m. Nov. 30

Pres. Jefferson 1 a.m. Nov. 23

Pres. Jackson 1 a.m. Dec. 7

EUROPE, NEW YORK

Inquire for round-trip tickets to Europe in connection with Lloyd Triestino.

Via Manila, Singapore, Penang, Colombo, Bombay, Suez Canal, Marselles.

Next Sailings

Pres. Van Buren 8 a.m. Oct. 12

Pres. Garfield 8 a.m. Oct. 26

Pres. Folk 8 a.m. Nov. 9

Pres. Adams 8 a.m. Nov. 23

Pres. Harrison 8 a.m. Dec. 7

Canadian Pacific

EMPEROR OF RUSSIA

SAILS FOR

VICTORIA & VANCOUVER
via SHANGHAI & JAPAN PORTS

at 6 A.M. FRIDAY, October 18th

BOOK NOW FOR 1936
SAILINGS

AND SECURE CHOICE OF
ACCOMMODATION.

Sailings to MANILA

EMPEROR OF JAPAN ..... Oct. 25th.
EMPEROR OF ASIA ..... Nov. 7th.

Full information from your own Agent or

CANADIAN PACIFIC

WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM

Union Building. Tel. 20752.

General Passenger Agents in the Orient for the
CUNARD WHITE STAR LINE.

San Francisco via Shanghai, Japan Ports & Honolulu.
Tatsuta Maru ..... Wed., 16th Oct.
Asama Maru ..... Wed., 30th Oct.
Takao Maru ..... Wed., 13th Nov.
Seattle & Vancouver:
Hikawa Maru (starts from Kobe) Sat., 19th Oct.
Hiye Maru (starts from Kobe) Sat., 9th Nov.
London, Marseilles, Antwerp & Rotterdam.
Hakone Maru ..... Sat., 12th Oct.
Suwa Maru ..... Sat., 26th Oct.
Fushimi Maru ..... Sat., 9th Nov.
Sydney & Melbourne via Manila & Ports.
Kamo Maru ..... Sat., 26th Oct.
Kitano Maru ..... Sat., 23rd Nov.
Bombay via Singapore, Penang & Colombo.
Tango Maru ..... Fri., 11th Oct.
Mayebashi Maru ..... Mon., 28th Oct.
South America (West Coast) via Japan, Honolulu,
Los Angeles, Mexico & Panama.
Bokuyo Maru ..... Sat., 9th Nov.
New York via Panama.
Katsuragi Maru ..... Thurs., 17th Oct.
Liverpool via Port Said; Beirouth, Istanbul, Piraeus,
Genoa & Valencia.
Lima Maru (Calls Genoa) Sun., 13th Oct.
Calcutta via Singapore, Penang & Rangoon.
Bengal Maru ..... Tues., 15th Oct.
Tokushima Maru ..... Tues., 29th Oct.
Shanghai, Kobe & Yokohama.
Hakozaki Maru ..... Fri., 11th Oct.
Kitano Maru (Nagasaki direct) Fri., 18th Oct.
Terukuni Maru ..... Tues., 22nd Oct.
Cargo only. Tel. 30291.

FRENCH MAIL STEAMERS.

Sailings from Hongkong.

To SHANGHAI—KOBE.

To MARSEILLES via Saigon
Singapore, Colombo, Djibouti
(Aden), Suez, Port-Said.

Marchal Joffre 22nd Oct.
Sphinx ..... 5th Nov.
Chenonceaux ..... 19th Nov.
D'Artagnan ..... 3rd Dec.
Athos II ..... 17th Dec.
Pres. Doumer ..... 31st Dec.
Andre Lebon ..... 28th Dec.

We can issue through tickets to Egypt; Syrian ports
East Africa, Madagascar by transhipment on our mail steamers
at Port-Said or Djibouti.

For full particulars, apply to
Tel. 26651 Cle des MESSAGERIES MARITIMES.

BANKS

P. & O. BANKING CORPORATION LTD

Authorized Capital ..... £1,000,000
Subscribed and Paid-up ..... £2,394,100
Reserve Fund ..... 180,000

HEAD OFFICE—117-122, Lombard Street, London, E.C.3.
WEST END BRANCH—14-16, Cockspur Street, London, S.W.1.

BRANCHES—Bombay, Calcutta, Ceylon, Colombo, Hongkong, Madras, Rangoon, Singapore, and Agencies—in all the principal towns of the world.

General Exchange and Banking Business transacted, and overdrafts granted on unsecured security. Current and Fixed Deposit accounts opened.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS opened in local currencies and in Sterling—interest allowed at rates which may be obtained on application.

"TRAVELLER'S LETTERS OF CREDIT" and "TRAVELLER'S CHEQUES" issued to PASSENGERS' LETTERS OF CREDIT for use only on board Ship & on Land
Hongkong, Colombo, and at Ports of Call
British Income Tax Recovered.

Executorships and Trusteeships undertaken.

W. J. WADDINGTON,
Manager.

Hongkong, 22nd June, 1935.

AMERICAN FLEET

NO WARSHIPS NEAR ETHIOPIA

Washington, Oct. 9.

The Secretary of the Navy, Mr. C. A. Swanson, declared to-day that there were no U.S. naval vessels near Ethiopia. Three destroyers which were on a cruise were the only warships in European waters.

Referring to the Asiatic Fleet, he said the units were at present on their autumn cruise. The flagship Augusta would be at Bangkok on October 15 and would leave thence for Singapore accompanied by the destroyers Paul and Stewart and the armed yacht Isabel. After a brief stay in Singapore the vessels would proceed to Pontianak, Netherland Indies, and Jesselton, British North Borneo, arriving at the latter port on November 3. They would reach Manila on November 11.

The destroyers which had been in Hongkong since September 30 would shortly visit French Indo-China, Division 13 going to Halong Bay on October 13, and Haiphong on October 15. They would remain in the latter port for six days.

Division 14 would go to Tourane and Saigon on October 15, he said, and leave French Indo-China on November 2.—United Press.

U.S. Neutrality Atlantic City, Oct. 9.

The American Legion has joined the America Federation of Labour in its firm stand against the United States' participation in another foreign war.—United Press.

Control of Prices Washington, Oct. 10.

"If war conditions abroad bring high prices permanently sustained above parity, then all American programmes for the control of crops will be suspended."

This was, in effect, the statement made by Mr. Chester Davis, Administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Act. Mr. Davis added that the programme would be continued for the balance of the contract period, when, and if, prices declined.—Reuter Special Service.

Ethiopian Appeal to U.S.

New York, Oct. 10.

"I have expressed my full confidence in the power of the League Assembly to insure the victory of right over might," declared Mr. Teles Hawariate, in the course of a broadcast speech from Geneva to the United States.

The Ethiopian Delegate added that he welcomed with a profound feeling of joy the League Council's decision that Ethiopia had abided by the rules of international law.—Reuter Special Service.

Netherlands Action Hague, Oct. 10.

The Netherlands Government issued its first export embargo decree to-day, covering gasoline.

The decree, which made no mention of the Italian Foreign Minister, announced that bills were ready for introduction into Parliament forbidding Hollanders to extend credits to Italy or to import Italian goods should the League so order.—United Press.

S.P.C.A. FLAG DAY

FUNDS NEEDED FOR THE LOCAL SOCIETY

We may be suffering from the slump, but we have to keep up our traditions.

And one of our oldest traditions is the habit of being kind to animals. The local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is going to have a Flag day next Saturday, instead of the office-to-office collection made in previous years.

We shall be most grateful if the generous firms who have given subscriptions in the past will continue to do so, and will they very kindly send them to the Treasurer by post. We are confident that everybody will buy a flag on Saturday.—Contributed.

THE CHARTERED BANK OF INDIA, AUSTRALIA & CHINA

Incorporated by Royal Charter 1858.
HEAD OFFICE—LONDON.

Paid-up Capital ..... £1,000,000
Reserve Liability of Proprietors ..... £8,000,000
Reserve Fund ..... £8,000,000

AGENCIES AND BRANCHES:

ALOR STAR ILOILO SAIGON SEMARANG
AMRITSAR IPOH KARACHI BEREMAN
BANGKOK KLANG BANGKOK SINGAPORE
BATAVIA KOBE HATYAI
BOHOL KUALA TAIPEH BOURABAYA
CALCUTTA LUMPIUR TAIPING
CAWNPUR KUCHING TIENTHIN (Shakat)
CEBU MADRAS TIENTHIN
COLOMBO MEDAN THINGTAO
DEJUJI NEW YORK YOKOHAMA TSINGTAO
HAIPHONG PEKING YOKOHAMA TSINGTAO
HANKOW HARBIN HONGKONG
HARIN JIANGKOW RANGOON
HONGKONG RANGOON
Foreign Exchange and General Banking business transacted.

Current Accounts opened and Fixed Deposits received for one year or shorter periods at rates which will be quoted on application.

HEAD OFFICE—HONGKONG.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

H. H. Dowdell, Esq.,
Chairman.

C. C. Knight, Esq.,
Deputy Chairman.

Hon. Mr. W. H. Bell-Horn, Mr. J. J. Peterson
A. H. Compton, Esq., T. E. Pearce, Esq.
M. T. Johnson, Esq., J. A. Plummer, Esq.
G. R. Rinkin, Esq., A. L. Shields, Esq.
V. M. O'Hearn, Esq.,
Chief Manager.

BRANCHES:

AMOY LONDON LYONS
BANGKOK MALACCA
BATAVIA MANILA
HOMIAY MUAR (JOHORE)
CALCUTTA MUKDEN
CANTON NEW YORK PEKING
CHEFOO RANGOON
COLOMBO SAIGON
DAIREN SHANGHAI
FOOCHOW HARBIN
HAMBURG HONGKOW
HANKOW HARBIN
HARIN JIANGKOW
HONGKONG KUOLOON
KODE KUEHNE
KUALA LUMPUR
KUOMINTUNG
LAI CHING SHEK, Esq.,
Chan Ching Shek, Esq.,
Kan Tong Po, Esq.,
Li Tu Fong, Esq., Manager.

Current Accounts opened in Local Currency and Fixed Deposits received for one year or shorter periods in Local Currency and on Sterling on terms which will be quoted on application.

HEAD OFFICE—HONGKONG.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Mr. Shouson, Ching, Chairman.

P. K. Chung, Esq., Li Lan Hang, Esq.,
P. K. Wong Pan Tong, Esq., Kan Ying Po, Esq.,
Chan Ching Shek, Esq.,
Kan Tong Po, Esq., Chief Manager.

Li Tu Fong, Esq., Manager.

Branches and Agencies:

Melbourne Singapore
Bogor Macau Shanghai
New York New York
Osaka Rangoon
Tokyo
Penang
Hankow
Hankou
London
Manila
Seoul
Vancouver
Yokohama

Every description of Banking and Exchange business transacted. Loans granted on approved securities.

Current Accounts opened in Local Currency and Fixed Deposits received for one year or shorter periods in Local Currency and on terms which will be quoted on application.

Sale Deposit Boxes To Let.

KAN TONG PO,
Chief Manager.

HONGKONG SAVINGS BANK.

The business of the above Bank is conducted by the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank Corporation.

FOR THE HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI
BANKING CORPORATION.

V. M. O'Hearn,
Chief Manager.

Hongkong, 26th February, 1936.

THE YOKOHAMA SPECIE BANK, LIMITED.

Capital (fully paid-up) ..... £100,000,000
Reserve Fund ..... £127,450,000

HEAD OFFICE—YOKOHAMA.

Branches and Agents:

Alexandria Hsinking Rio de Janeiro
Batavia Kuching San Francisco
Calcutta Lae Angeles Somarang
Canton Macau Shanghai
Dairen (Dalian) Hall Sasebo
Fengtien Nagasaki Sydney
Hamburg New York Tientsin
Hankow Hankow Tsinling
Harbin Paris Tokyo
Honolulu Hangchow Yingkow

Interest allowed on Current Accounts,
Deposits received for fixed period at rates to be obtained on application.

G. KISHINAMI,
Manager.

Hongkong, 12th September, 1936.

CONSIGNEES' NOTICES.

N. Y. K. LINE.
(Nippon Yusen Kaisha.)

From EUROPE and STRAITS.

The Steamship;

"HAKOZAKI MARU,"

having arrived from the above ports,
Consignees of Cargo are hereby informed that their Goods are being landed and placed at their risk into the hazardous Godowns of the Hongkong Kowloon Wharf & Godown Co., Ltd., Kowloon, where delivery may be obtained immediately after landing.

All claims must be sent in to me on or before the 14th October, 1936, or they will not be recognized.—

Damaged Packages will be examined by the Company's Surveyor Messrs.
Goddard & Douglas in the presence of the Consignees at 10.00 a.m. on 11th
October, 1936.

Consignees must have a Revenue
Officer to be present at the examination of damaged packages.

No fire insurance will be effected by us in any case whatever.

R. OHL,
Agent.

Hongkong, 5th October, 1936.

IN LONDON

The Hongkong Telegraph.

is on sale at

SELFRIDGES

For Advertising Rates
the London Representatives are—

BISHOP ARRESTED?

ALLEGED VIOLATION OF NAZI CURRENCY LAW

Berlin, Oct. 10.

The Catholic Bishop of Moers, in Saxony, Monsignor Peter Lette, has been arrested on a charge of violating the currency laws.

Reuters Special Service.

Advertiser's Dept.

24, Old Jewry,

LONDON, E.C.3.

REUTERS, LIMITED

Advertisement Dept.

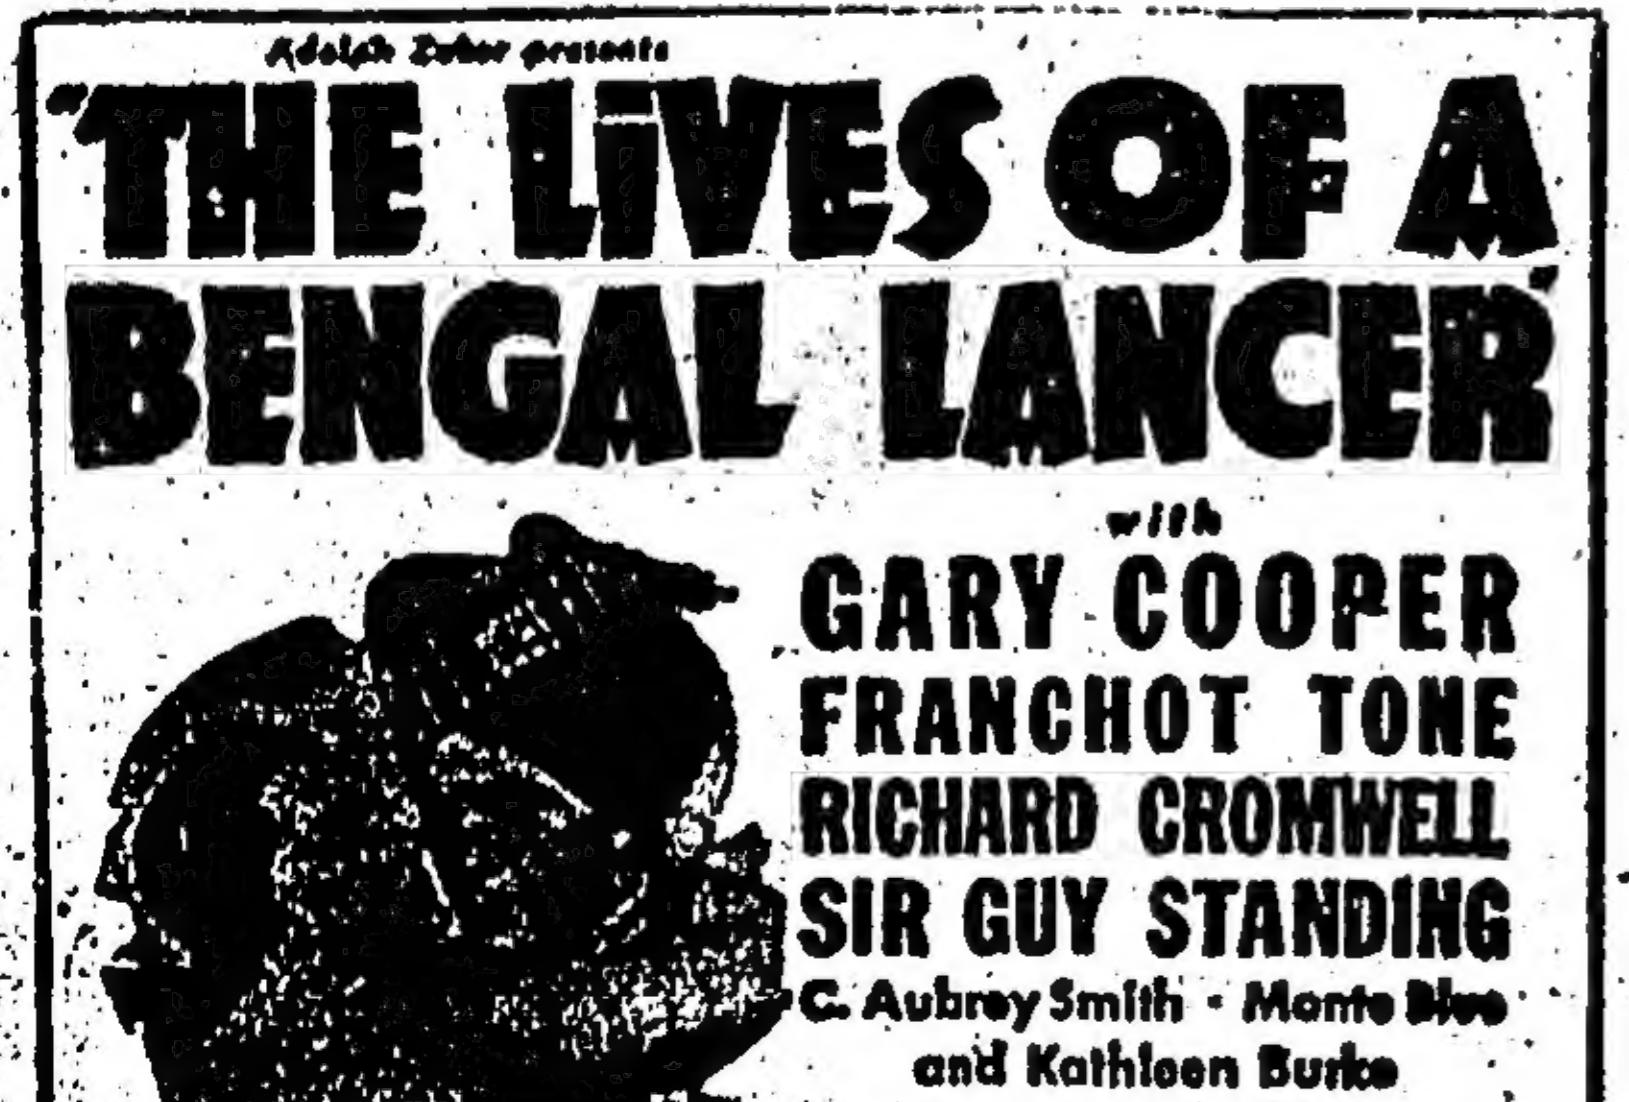

T. DAY ONLY

TO-MORROW "SHE" with Helen Gahagan RKO
Pandolph Scott—Helen Mack RADIO

SHOWING TO-DAY QUEENS THEATRE At 2.30, 5.10, 7.20 &amp; 9.30.

THE BREATH-TAKING STORY OF THE MOST ROMANTIC EPOCH IN MAN'S HISTORY!

A Paramount Super Production
LORETTA YOUNG HENRY WILCOXON
IAN KEITH KATHERINE DE MILLE4 SHOWS DAILY 2.30-5.10 7.20-9.30
TANG ANY TRAM OR HARRY VALLEY BUS
ORIENTAL THEATRE FLEMING ROAD WANCHAI TEL 80002 MORE DAYS TO-DAY & TO-MORROW
POSITIVELY
THE MOST LAVISH and THRILLING OF ALL SCREEN SPECTACLES!

PRICES MATINERS 20cts., 30cts., EVENINGS 20cts., 30cts., 50cts., 70cts.

The MING YUEN STUDIO has removed to the 3rd Floor of No. 6 Queen's Road Central.

JUST OPPOSITE the Dairy Farm's Soda Fountain.

Triumphal Occupation Of Adowa

ITALIANS PROMISE JUST RULE

GREETED BY SUPPLICANTS

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright. Telegraphia News Service, Inc. Received, October 11, 7 a.m.)

London, Oct. 10.—Reuter's special correspondent with the Italian Northern Army has telephoned his impressions on entering Adowa on Wednesday with General Villa Santa, the commander of the victorious Division. As the General passed through the narrow alleys on horseback, the amazed inhabitants left their primitive huts and peered between the maize stalks in their tiny gardens. The bolder ones stood on the walls saluting, and some even gave the Fascist salute.

The General hoisted the Italian flag with his own hands and was frequently stopped during his tour by Ethiopian supplicants, but he exhorted them not to be afraid and to induce their fugitive neighbours to return, because "Italy has not come for pillage."

Proceeding to the Cathedral, consisting of whitewashed hall, the party were received by a native Bishop bearing a brass cross which the General and his officers kissed.

General Villa Santa here reiterated Italy's good intentions, and the crowds in the doorway of the Cathedral shouted "Evviva!" while women raised a long-drawn-out wail, the equivalent of cheering.

As a conclusion to the ceremony in the barely-furnished Court of Justice, the party were received at the gates by brightly robed Lords and their ladies, to whom General Villa Santa repeated that Italy's only aim was to tranquillise the country.—Reuter Special.

SEE:

All the Pomp and Pulsating Life of the Middle Ages!

GUERRILLAS HARSS ITALIAN TROOPS

(Continued from page 1.)

women in Addis Ababa are in uniform and are parading the streets, demanding permission to guard the Empress or join the men at the front.—United Press.

WARRIOR MARCH

Addis Ababa, Oct. 10.—The Governors of the provinces of Kaffa-and-Wollaga—each—with an army of 30,000 warriors, are expected to reach here shortly.—Reuter Special.

ITALIAN VERSION

Rome, Oct. 10.—The failure of the night attack on the Italian post of Omager, in Eritrea, was reported by the Giornale d'Italia, which said that 25,000 Ethiopians, equipped with modern weapons, tried to surprise the post under cover of darkness but were repulsed by Italian native troops, who counter-attacked and routed the enemy.—Reuter.

STOCK MARKET DANGERS

(Continued from page 1.)

of security prices. With business at a lower level than in 1929 it is unpleasant to contemplate the consequences of a "runaway market." He concluded by saying there was no evidence of this happening so far, but he warned everybody that extreme alertness was necessary.

Commenting on Mr. Gay's speech, the Chairman of the Security Exchange Commission, Mr. Landis, said, "We are conscious of those pressures but they are not related to the S.E.C. since they deal mostly with monetary policies." Also he added that the S.E.C. would welcome a test of its constitutionality.—United Press.

SEEK TRADE TREATY

Tokyo, Oct. 11.—The Foreign Office said to-day that the note delivered to Canada regarding the mutual withdrawal of the Canadian and Japanese special import charges would pave the way for the opening of negotiations for a new trade treaty. The note requested an early conference to adjust differences, but no new treaty was mentioned.—United Press.

BISHOP ARRESTED

Berlin, Oct. 10.—The Catholic Bishop of Meissen has been arrested on charges of exporting German money.—United Press.

Ex-King's Son To Wed

ROYALISTS' FEUD FINISHED

Rome, Oct. 11.—The glories of the ancient Spanish courts will be revived tomorrow when Don Juan, youngest son of the ex-King Alfonso of Spain, marries the Princess Mariana Mercedes, of Bourbon-Sicily.

The wedding will be celebrated by the Archbishop of Florence in the Church of Santa Maria de Gloriosa in Rome.

Over 5,000 Spanish Royalists have arrived for the ceremony, which marks the end of the feud between the Legitimists and the Carlists and establishes Don Juan as the sole future claimant to the Spanish throne.—Reuter.

HONGKONG-PENANG FLIGHT

PLANE COMPLETES TRIP

The Imperial Airways' Dorado plane, which left Hongkong at 7.20 a.m. on Wednesday, arrived safely at Penang at noon to-day, thus completing the first of the series of experimental flights between the two ports.

The plane, piloted by Captain W. Armstrong, arrived at Ford Bay about some two hours after her departure from Hongkong and the same afternoon stopped at Tourange. Saigon was the next stop, and the plane took off from that port at 8 a.m. to-day, arriving in Penang four hours later.

Including stop-overs, the flight from Hongkong to Penang was accomplished in 2 days, 4 hours, 49 minutes.

U. S. BUILDING DELAYED

SHANGHAI FEDERAL BLOCK PLANS

Washington, Oct. 10.

On account of the revision of architectural plans the contract for the Shanghai Federal Building, which will house the American diplomatic service, will not be awarded for another six months, at best.

The Foreign Service Building Commission has indicated that plans are at present in the hands of the supervising architect, and that the Treasury will later require the Commission's approval. Thereafter, advertising would allow ninety days for tenders.

The plans were originally drafted four years ago, and are now reportedly being revised to avert any possibility of a subsidence of foundations on the river-side of the building.

The last Congress provided $750,000 for the building, which will house all federal activities.—United Press.

HAUPTMANN'S SLIM HOPE

SUPREME COURT IS LAST HOPE

Trenton, N.J., Oct. 10.

Mr. Walter Fisher, the counsel for Bruno Hauptmann, is preparing to take the case to the United States Supreme Court.

Neutral observers forecast that the Supreme Court will refuse him a hearing, citing the fact that the thirteen Appeal Court judges in New Jersey unanimously held that proof of guilt was an "inescapable fact" and that the state had proved beyond reasonable doubt that the man who collected the ransom was the kidnapper of the baby son of Colonel and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh.—United Press.

RAW RUBBER

LATEST SINGAPORE PRICES

Mrs. Benjamin and Potts received the following Straits currency quotations (buyers) from Singapore to-day for raw rubber:

Sept.	20 1/2 cts.
Nov./Dec.	20 1/2 cts.
Jan./Mar.	21 cts.
Apr./June	21 1/2 cts.

Market—firm.

WONT HANDLE CARGO

Seattle, Oct. 10.—Longshoremen and seamen here agreed not to handle any commodities destined for the war zone or to sail any ships bound there. Unions said the Italian freighter Collini, which arrives Sunday, will probably be pleated.—United Press.

LONG FLIGHT

Key West, Fla., Oct. 10.—The Navy has announced that a seaplane has completed a non-stop flight from Norfolk, Va., to Coco Island.—United Press.

Not Opposing Sanctions

AMERICA KEEPING HANDS CLEAN

WARNING TO TRADERS

Washington, Oct. 10.—Mr. Cordell Hull, the Secretary of State, to-day strongly reaffirmed the President's warning to American citizens that those trading with the belligerents in East Africa or Europe did so at their own risk.

He added that his statement was based on a definite policy, designed to keep the United States out of the African conflict.

Mr. Hull's statement is significant, due to the League sanctions discussions, since President Roosevelt's statement of policy has been interpreted to mean that the United States won't oppose League sanctions.—Reuter.

NO RESTRAINT

Washington, Oct. 10.—Mr. Cordell Hull, commenting on the determination of exporters to continue their Italian trade, indicated they were free to follow their inclinations. However, if any of them strike trouble with foreign Governments they cannot expect the United States to provide support, he said.

The whole purpose of the President's warning to Americans that they would trade with belligerents at their own risk, was to prevent the United States from being drawn into a war.

Technically, he said, there was no prohibition against Americans trading with Ethiopians or Italians.

His remarks did not concern cargoes of war materials which exporters are allowed to sell neither to Italy nor Ethiopia.—United Press.

HUGE NEW PACIFIC AIRLINER

(Continued from Page 1.)

smoothly. One feels as though one were in a living room, high on some mountain-side. The enormous wing-spread makes air bumps completely absent.

The plane rises imperceptibly at 65 miles per hour and lands at the same low speed, without a bump.

We are flying to New York now, and thence to Miami, on a shake-down cruise before the big plane is flown to San Francisco for delivery to her purchasers, the Pan-American Airways, who will send her across the Pacific.—United Press.

NEW AIR LINE

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—A Department of Commerce expert, Mr. William Hiller, arrived from a visit to Mapping, Baker, Howland and Jarvis Islands, and said that an all-year air line service to Australia from America was practicable, using land planes the whole way.

Seaplanes would be impracticable, he said, owing to the lack of sheltered harbours.—United Press.

ANOTHER CLIPPER

Midway, Oct. 10.—The Pan-American air-liner, Oriental Clipper, arrived here to-day from Alameda, Calif.—United Press.

ANOTHER ADVENTURE

Tokyo, Oct. 11.—It is understood the French pilot, Marcel Doret, who is at present in Tokyo, is studying the possibilities of a Tokyo-Paris non-stop flight before the winter. In the event of a non-stop flight proving impracticable he will make a single stop at Moscow.—United Press.

NORTHERN STORMS

Nome, Alaska, Oct. 10.—Storms and floods lashed the western Alaskan coasts to-day and families fled for shelter. Bethel, and the native village near-by, were destroyed, and the refugees are being sheltered at the mission here, pending the arrival of the U.S. cutter, Northland.—United Press.

FRENCH APPEAL

Paris, Oct. 10.—French seamen's syndicates have voted to appeal to sailors and dock-workers at home and abroad to refuse to handle cargoes for Italian vessels carrying war materials.—United Press.

LONG FLIGHT

Key West, Fla., Oct. 10.—The Navy has announced that a seaplane has completed a non-stop flight from Norfolk, Va., to Coco Island.—United Press.

VALHAMBRA

Perfect Sound &amp; Vision • NATHAN ROAD KOWLOON • Most Popular Prices

TO-DAY &amp; TO-MORROW At 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 &amp; 9.30 p.m.

SHOWING TO-DAY
QUEENS THEATRE At 2.30, 5.20, 7.20 & 9.30 p.m.INTRODUCING MARY ELLIS!!!
THE LOVELY SINGING STAR OF THE METROPOLITAN OPERA THAT YOU LOVED IN "ALL THE KING'S HORSES"NEXT CHANGE
"SLIM" SUMMerville, Zasu Pitts in "THEIR BIG MOMENT"
ONE BIG LAUGH FROM START TO FINISH!
RKO RADIO PICTURE

TWO HARBOURING CHARGES

SEQUEL TO LOVE AFFAIR

A 24-year-old odd job electrician was brought before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning on two charges of harbouring two unmarried girls, Chan Ngan-fan, aged 16, and Tsang Kwan-tai, aged 17, at No. 319 Reclamation Street, second floor, between October 6 and 8. Defendant pleaded guilty and was remanded for 24 hours.

Inspector K. W. Andrew, attached to the Secretariat for Chinese Affairs, in outlining the case, stated that defendant was an odd job electrician and had done only two days' work since February. Formerly he worked at the Macao Electrical Works, and came to Hongkong in February. He became acquainted with the girl, Tsang, who fell in love with him and introduced him to her mother. The girl's mother consented to a marriage between the couple and terms of $150 were agreed upon, but no date was fixed for the marriage. From time to time defendant lived at the girl's home.

In the meantime, Chan's father had discovered the girl to be missing and had made a report to the police, but found the girl himself at Shanghai Street. He questioned her, and a party went to No. 319 Reclamation Street and defendant was arrested.

The prosecution stated that they were not pressing the case. The girl Tsang had had an affair with another man some time ago. The father of the girl named Chan, was satisfied that his daughter had not been interfered with.

His Worship stated that he would consider the case and remanded defendant for 24 hours.

Printed and Published for the Proprietors by FREDERICK PERCY FRANKLIN, at 1 and 3, Wyndham Street, in the City of Victoria, Hongkong.